

ORDINANZE
21 OCTOBRE 1601

Fore-edge of a thick antique book

25, 523/c

G.XX.12

P.

Great Britain. House of Lords.

Wing E 2874

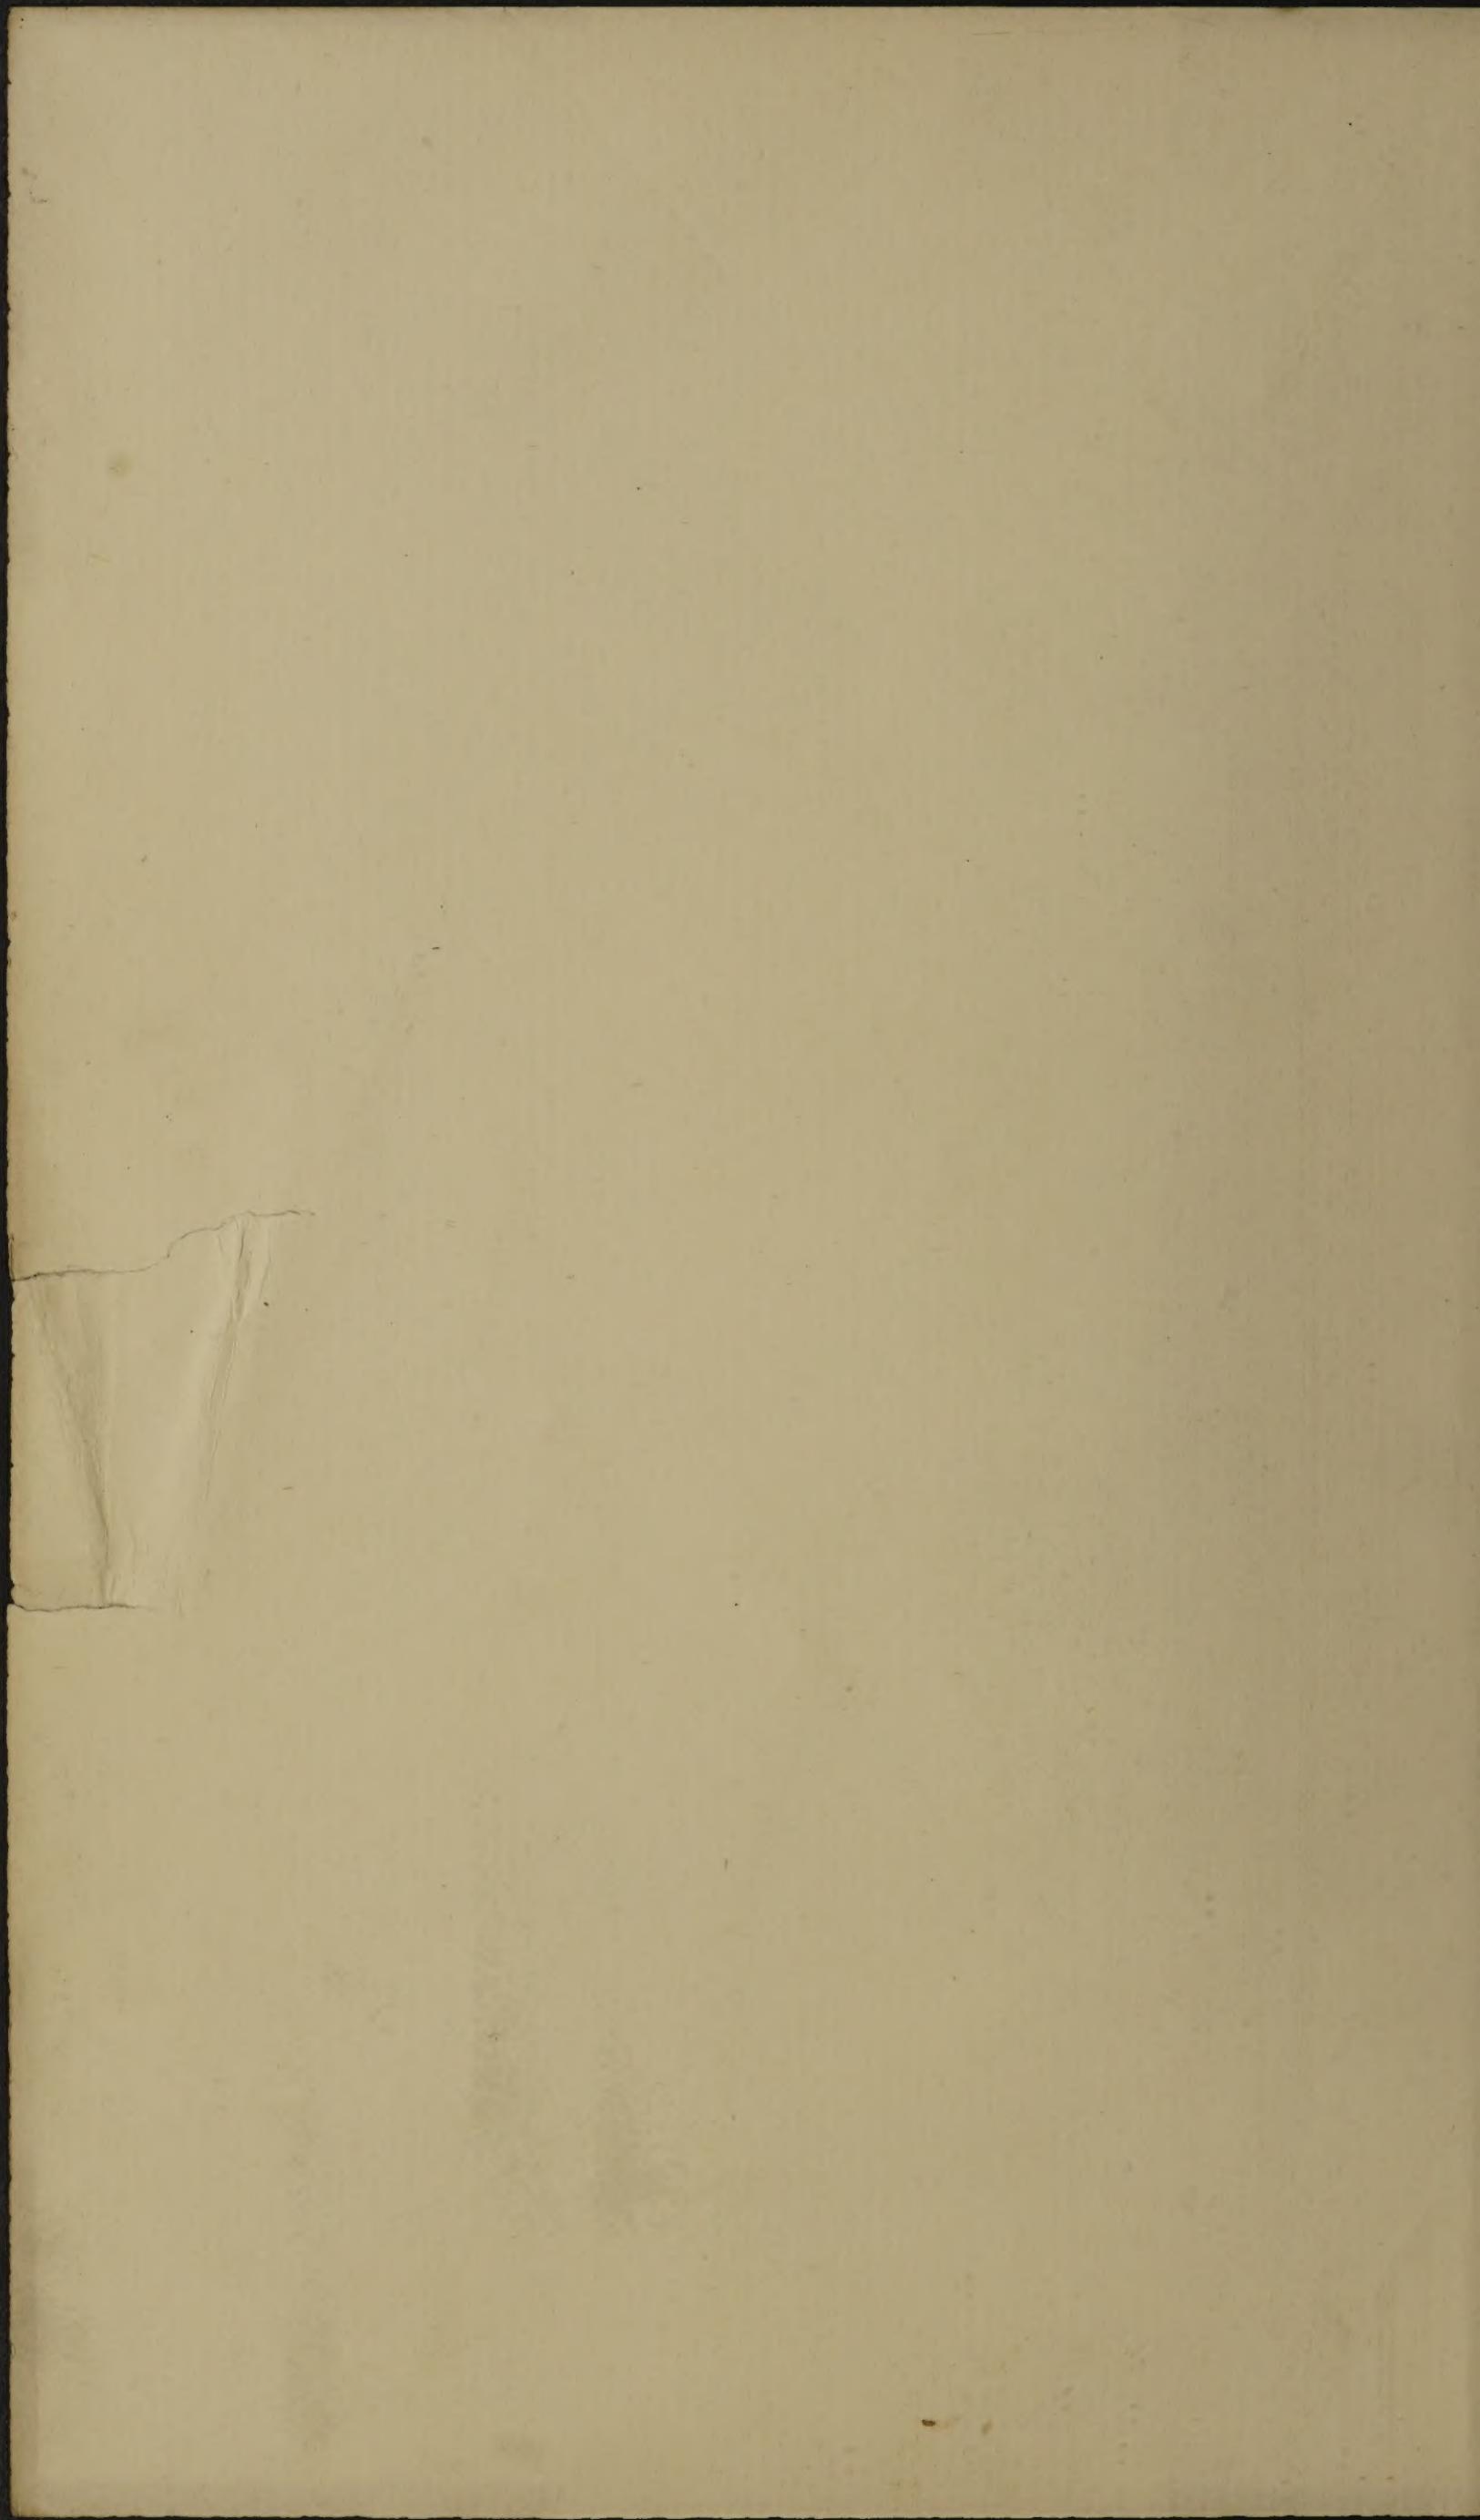

Plague

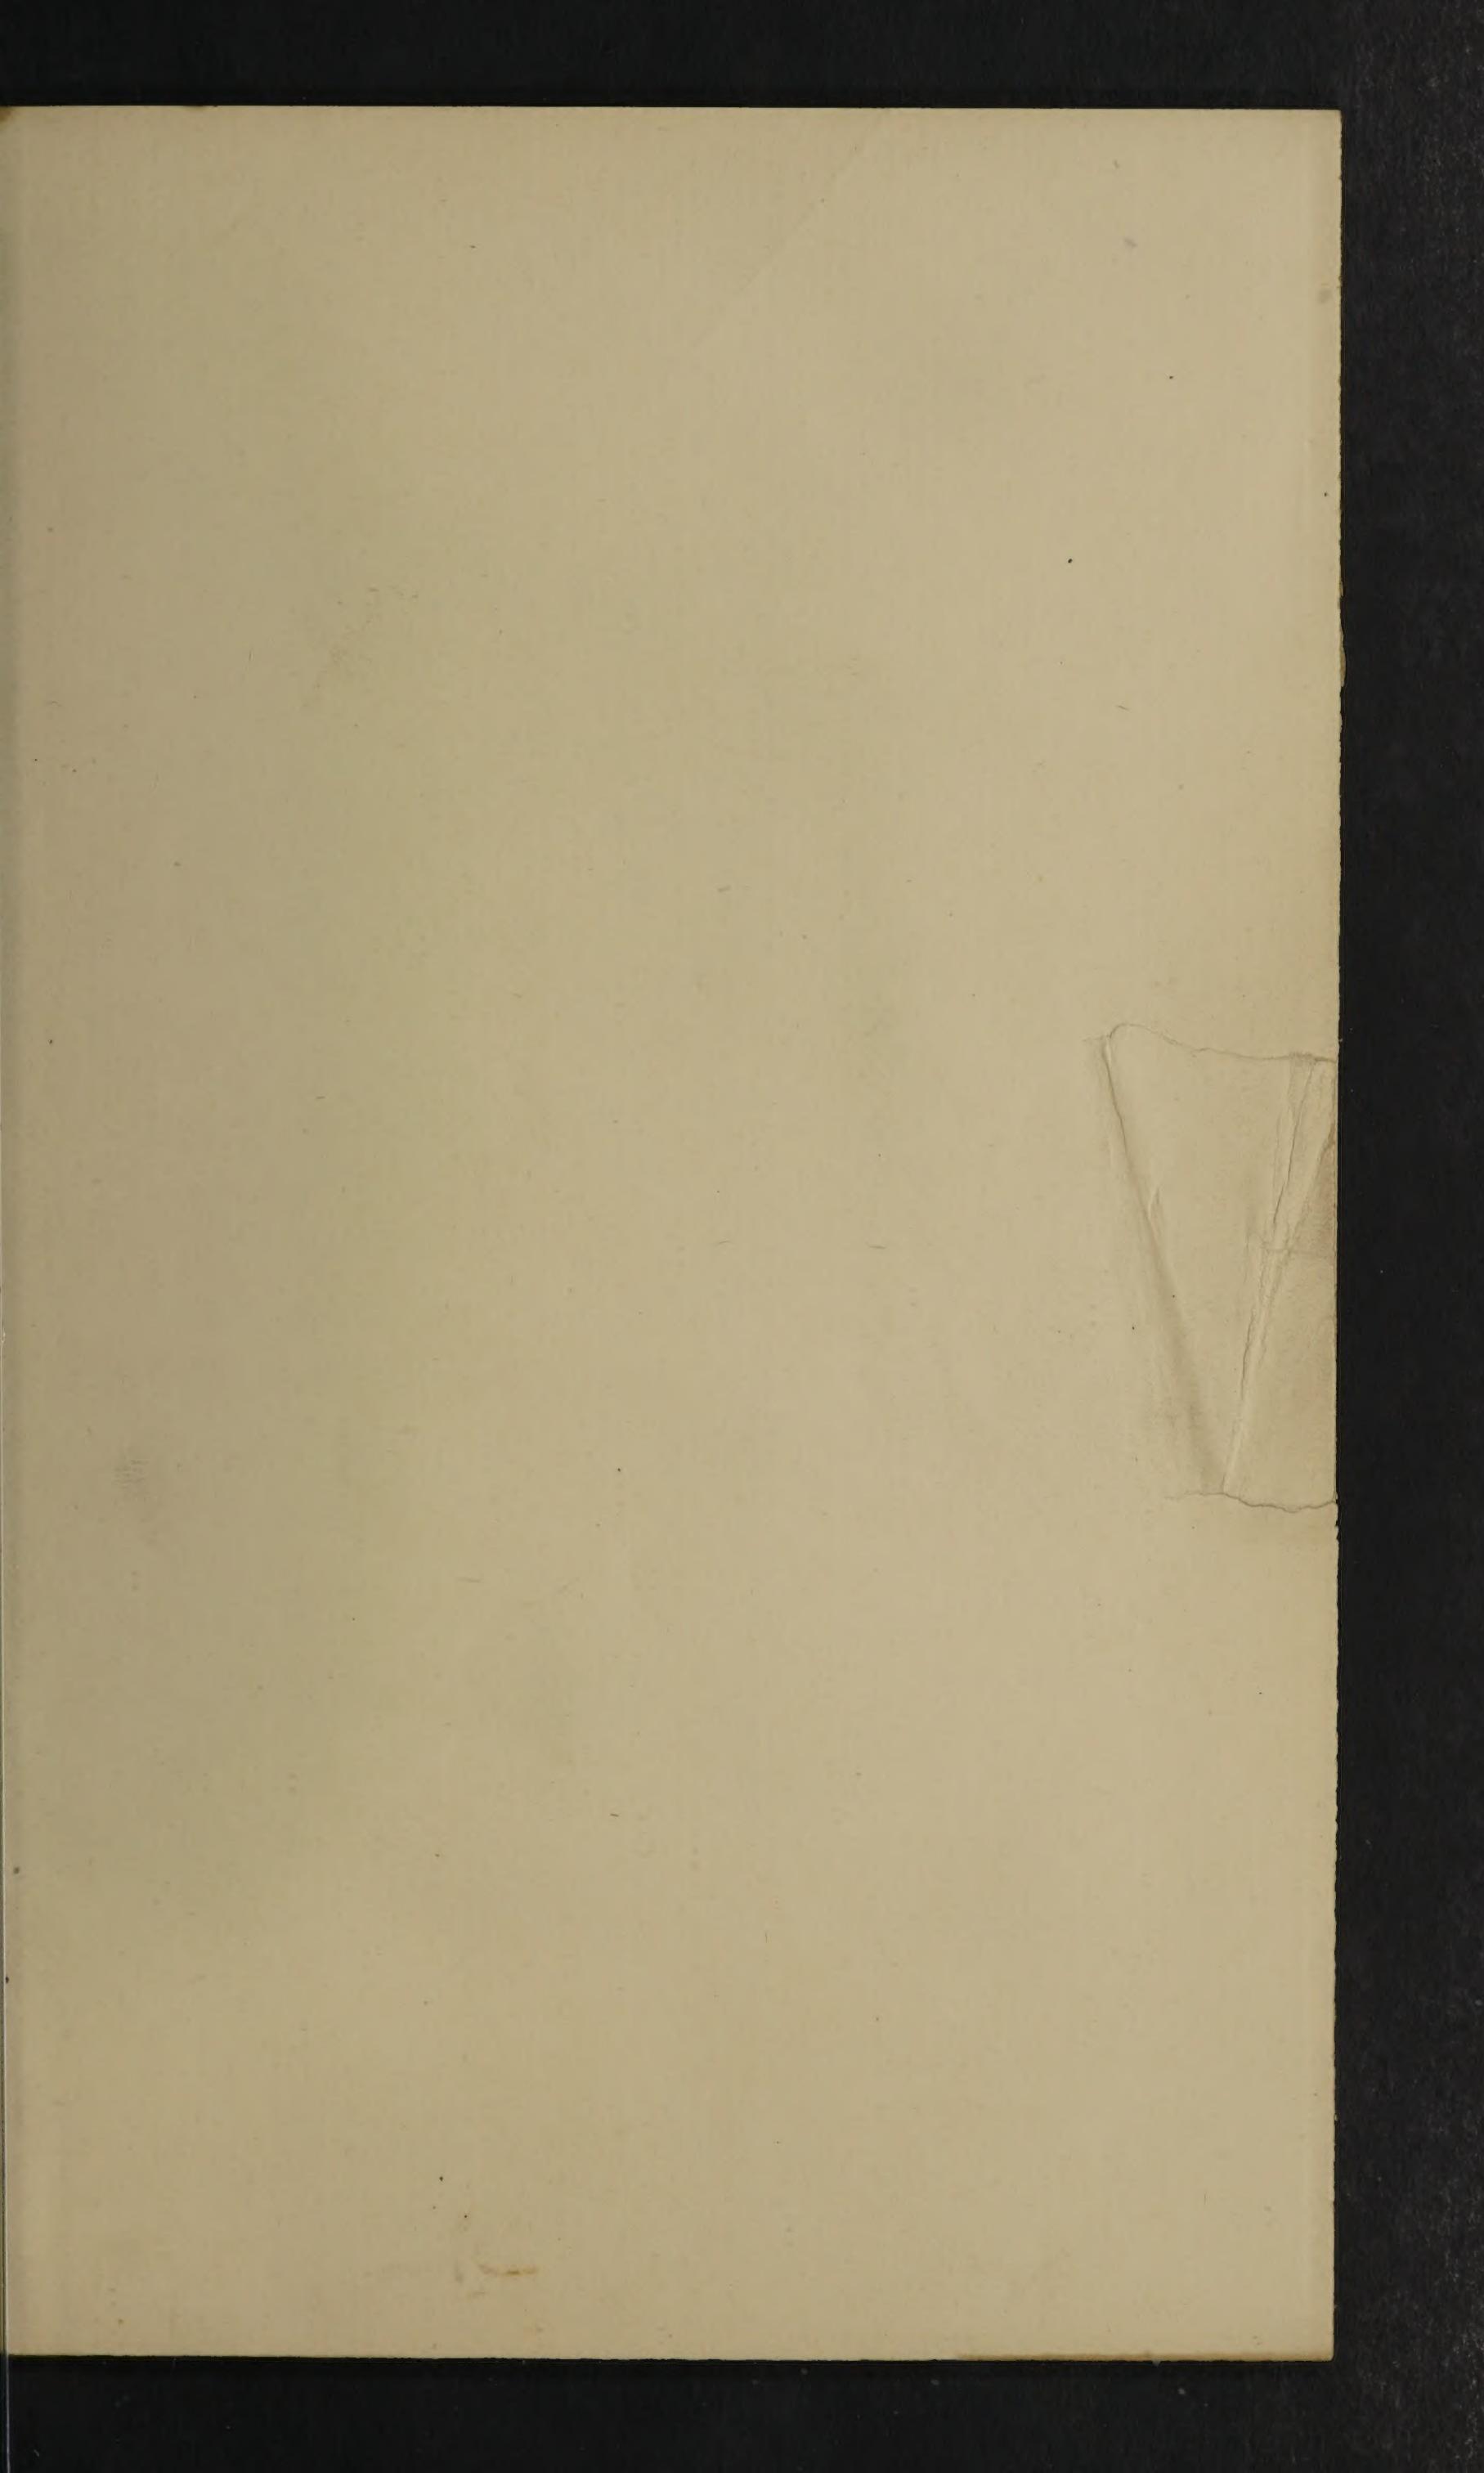

15-D-4

28929

14 + 11¹/₂ + 9¹/₂

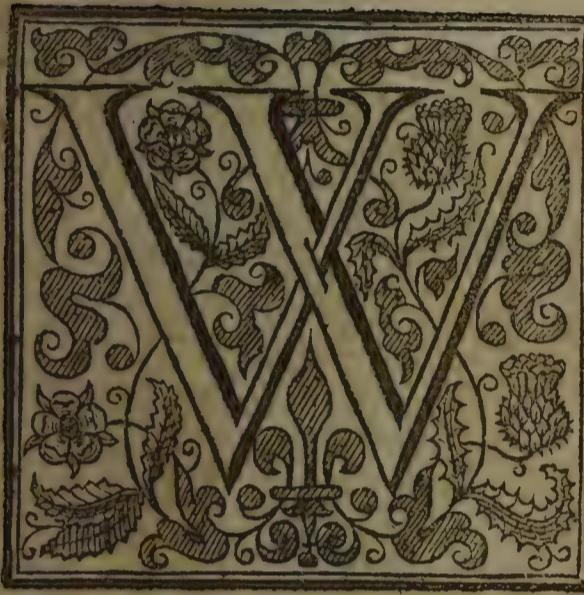

page 2411

¶ Die Jovis 21. die Octobris. 1641.

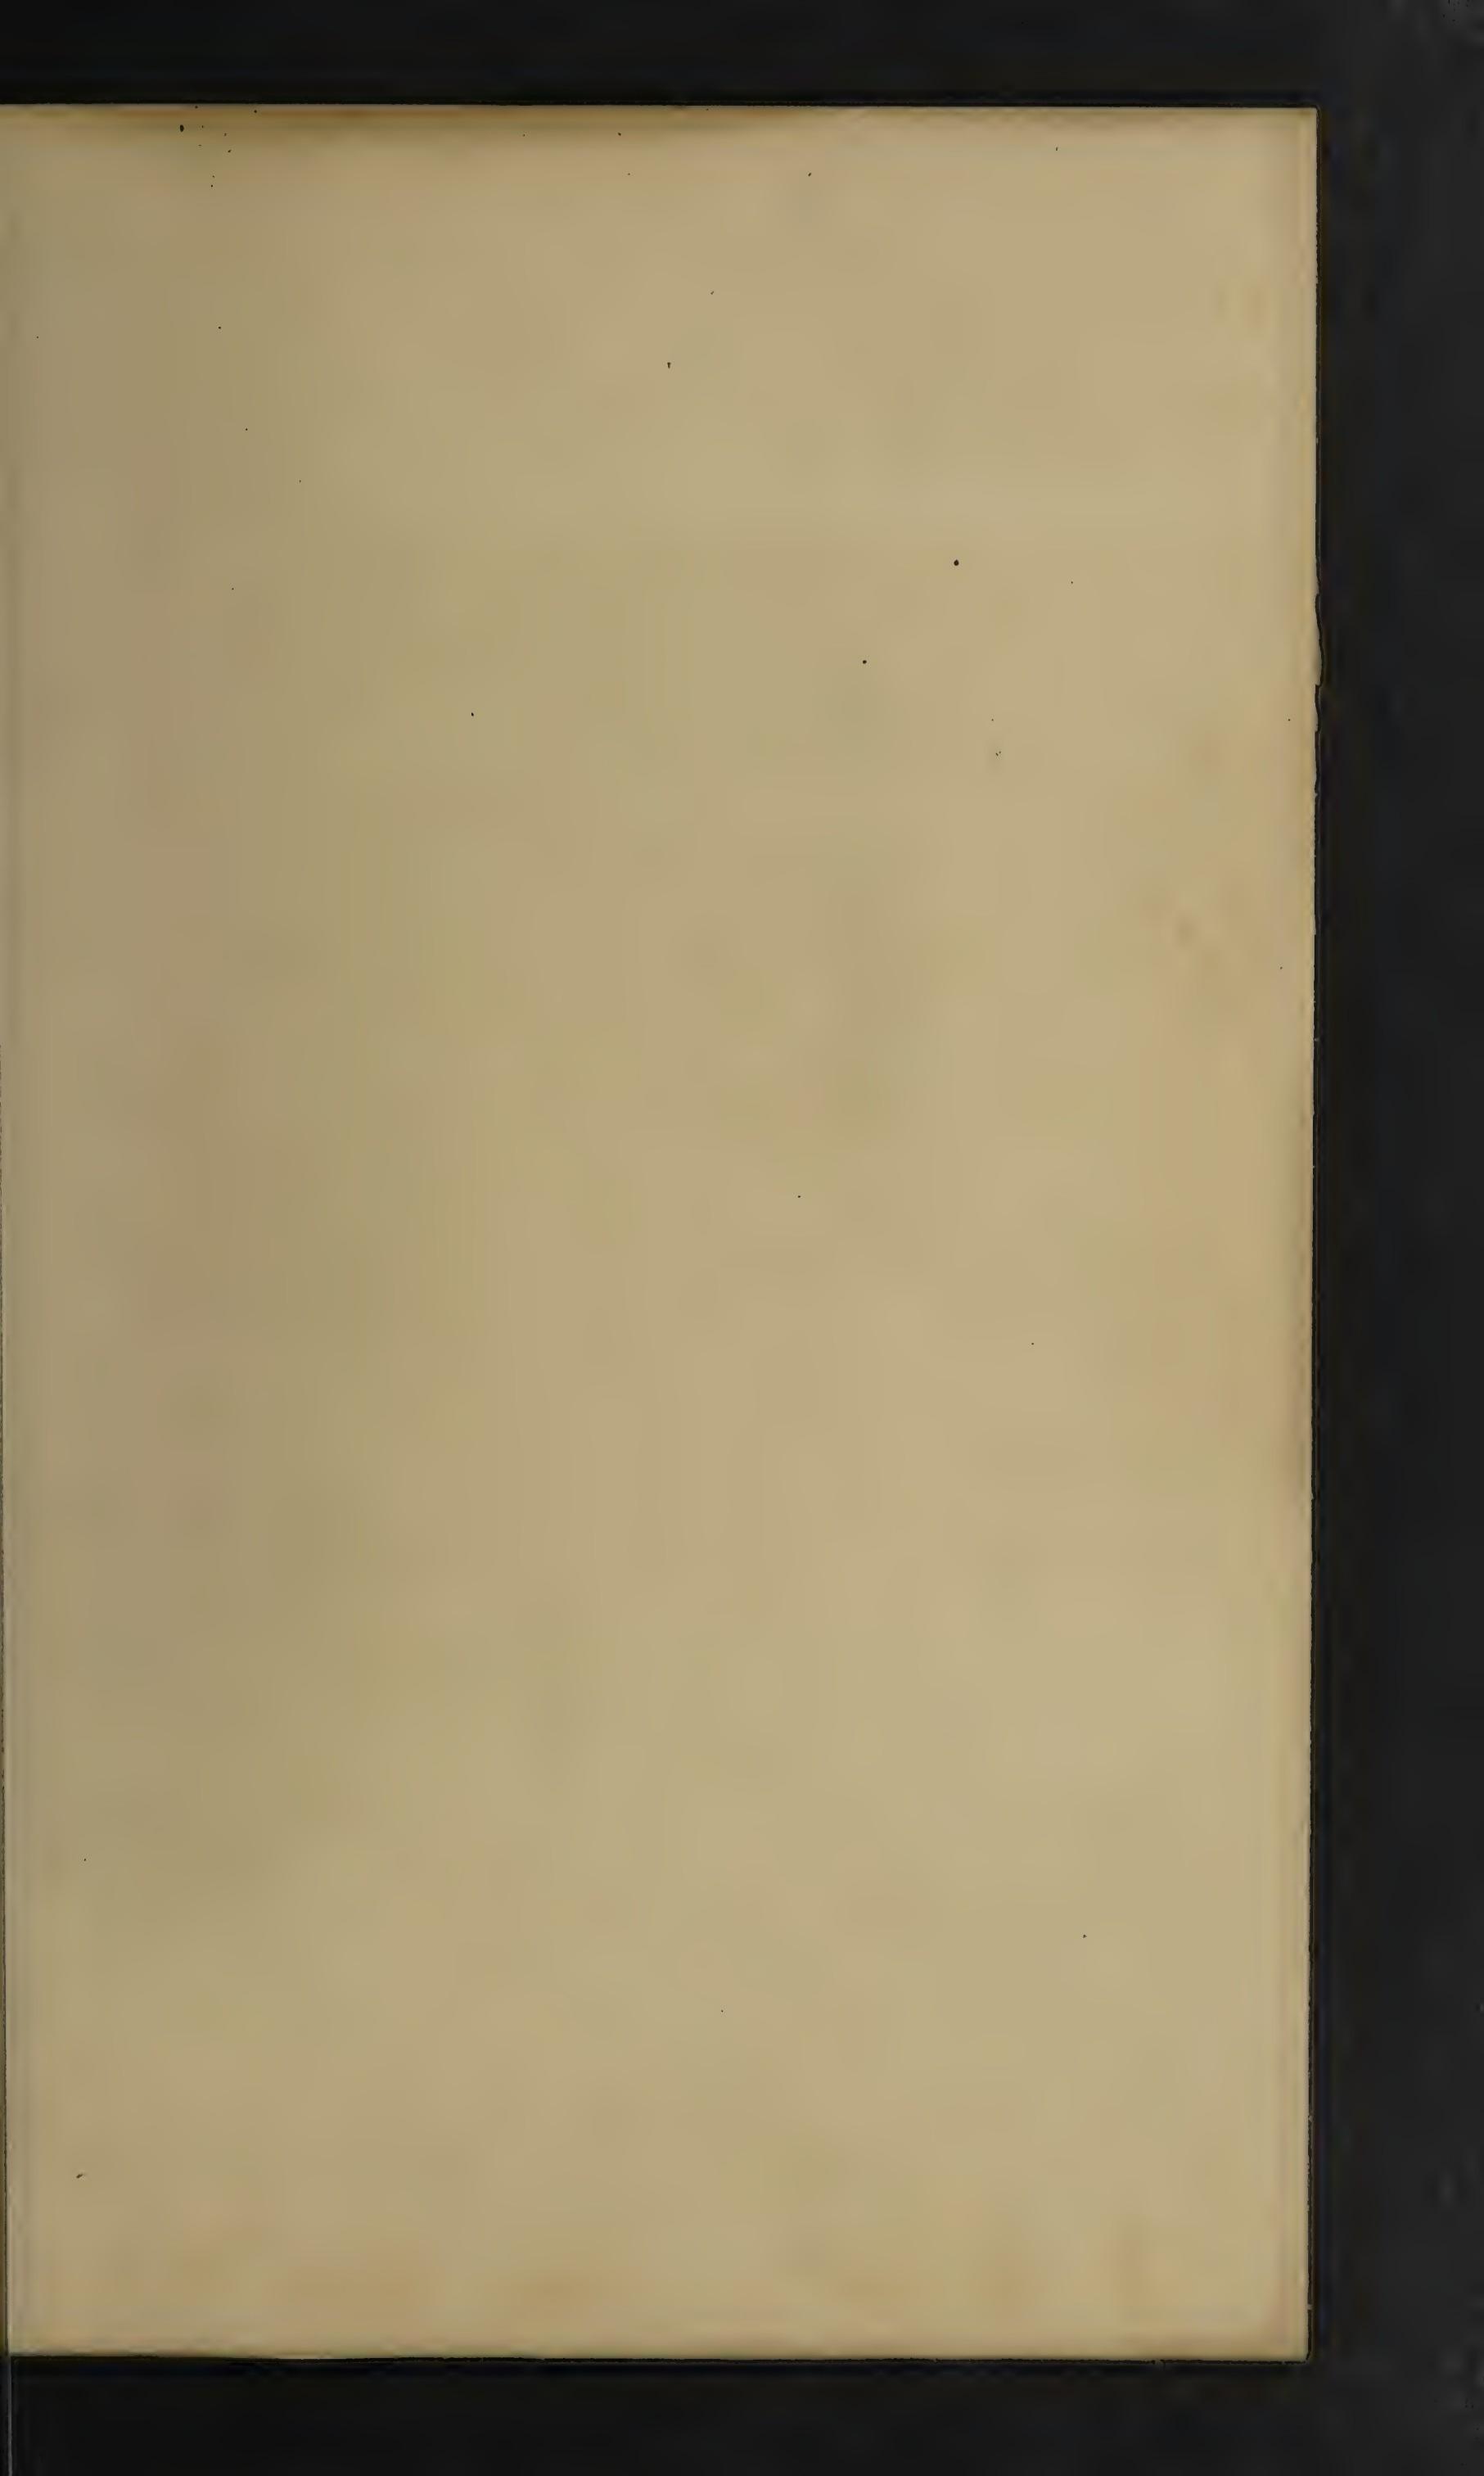

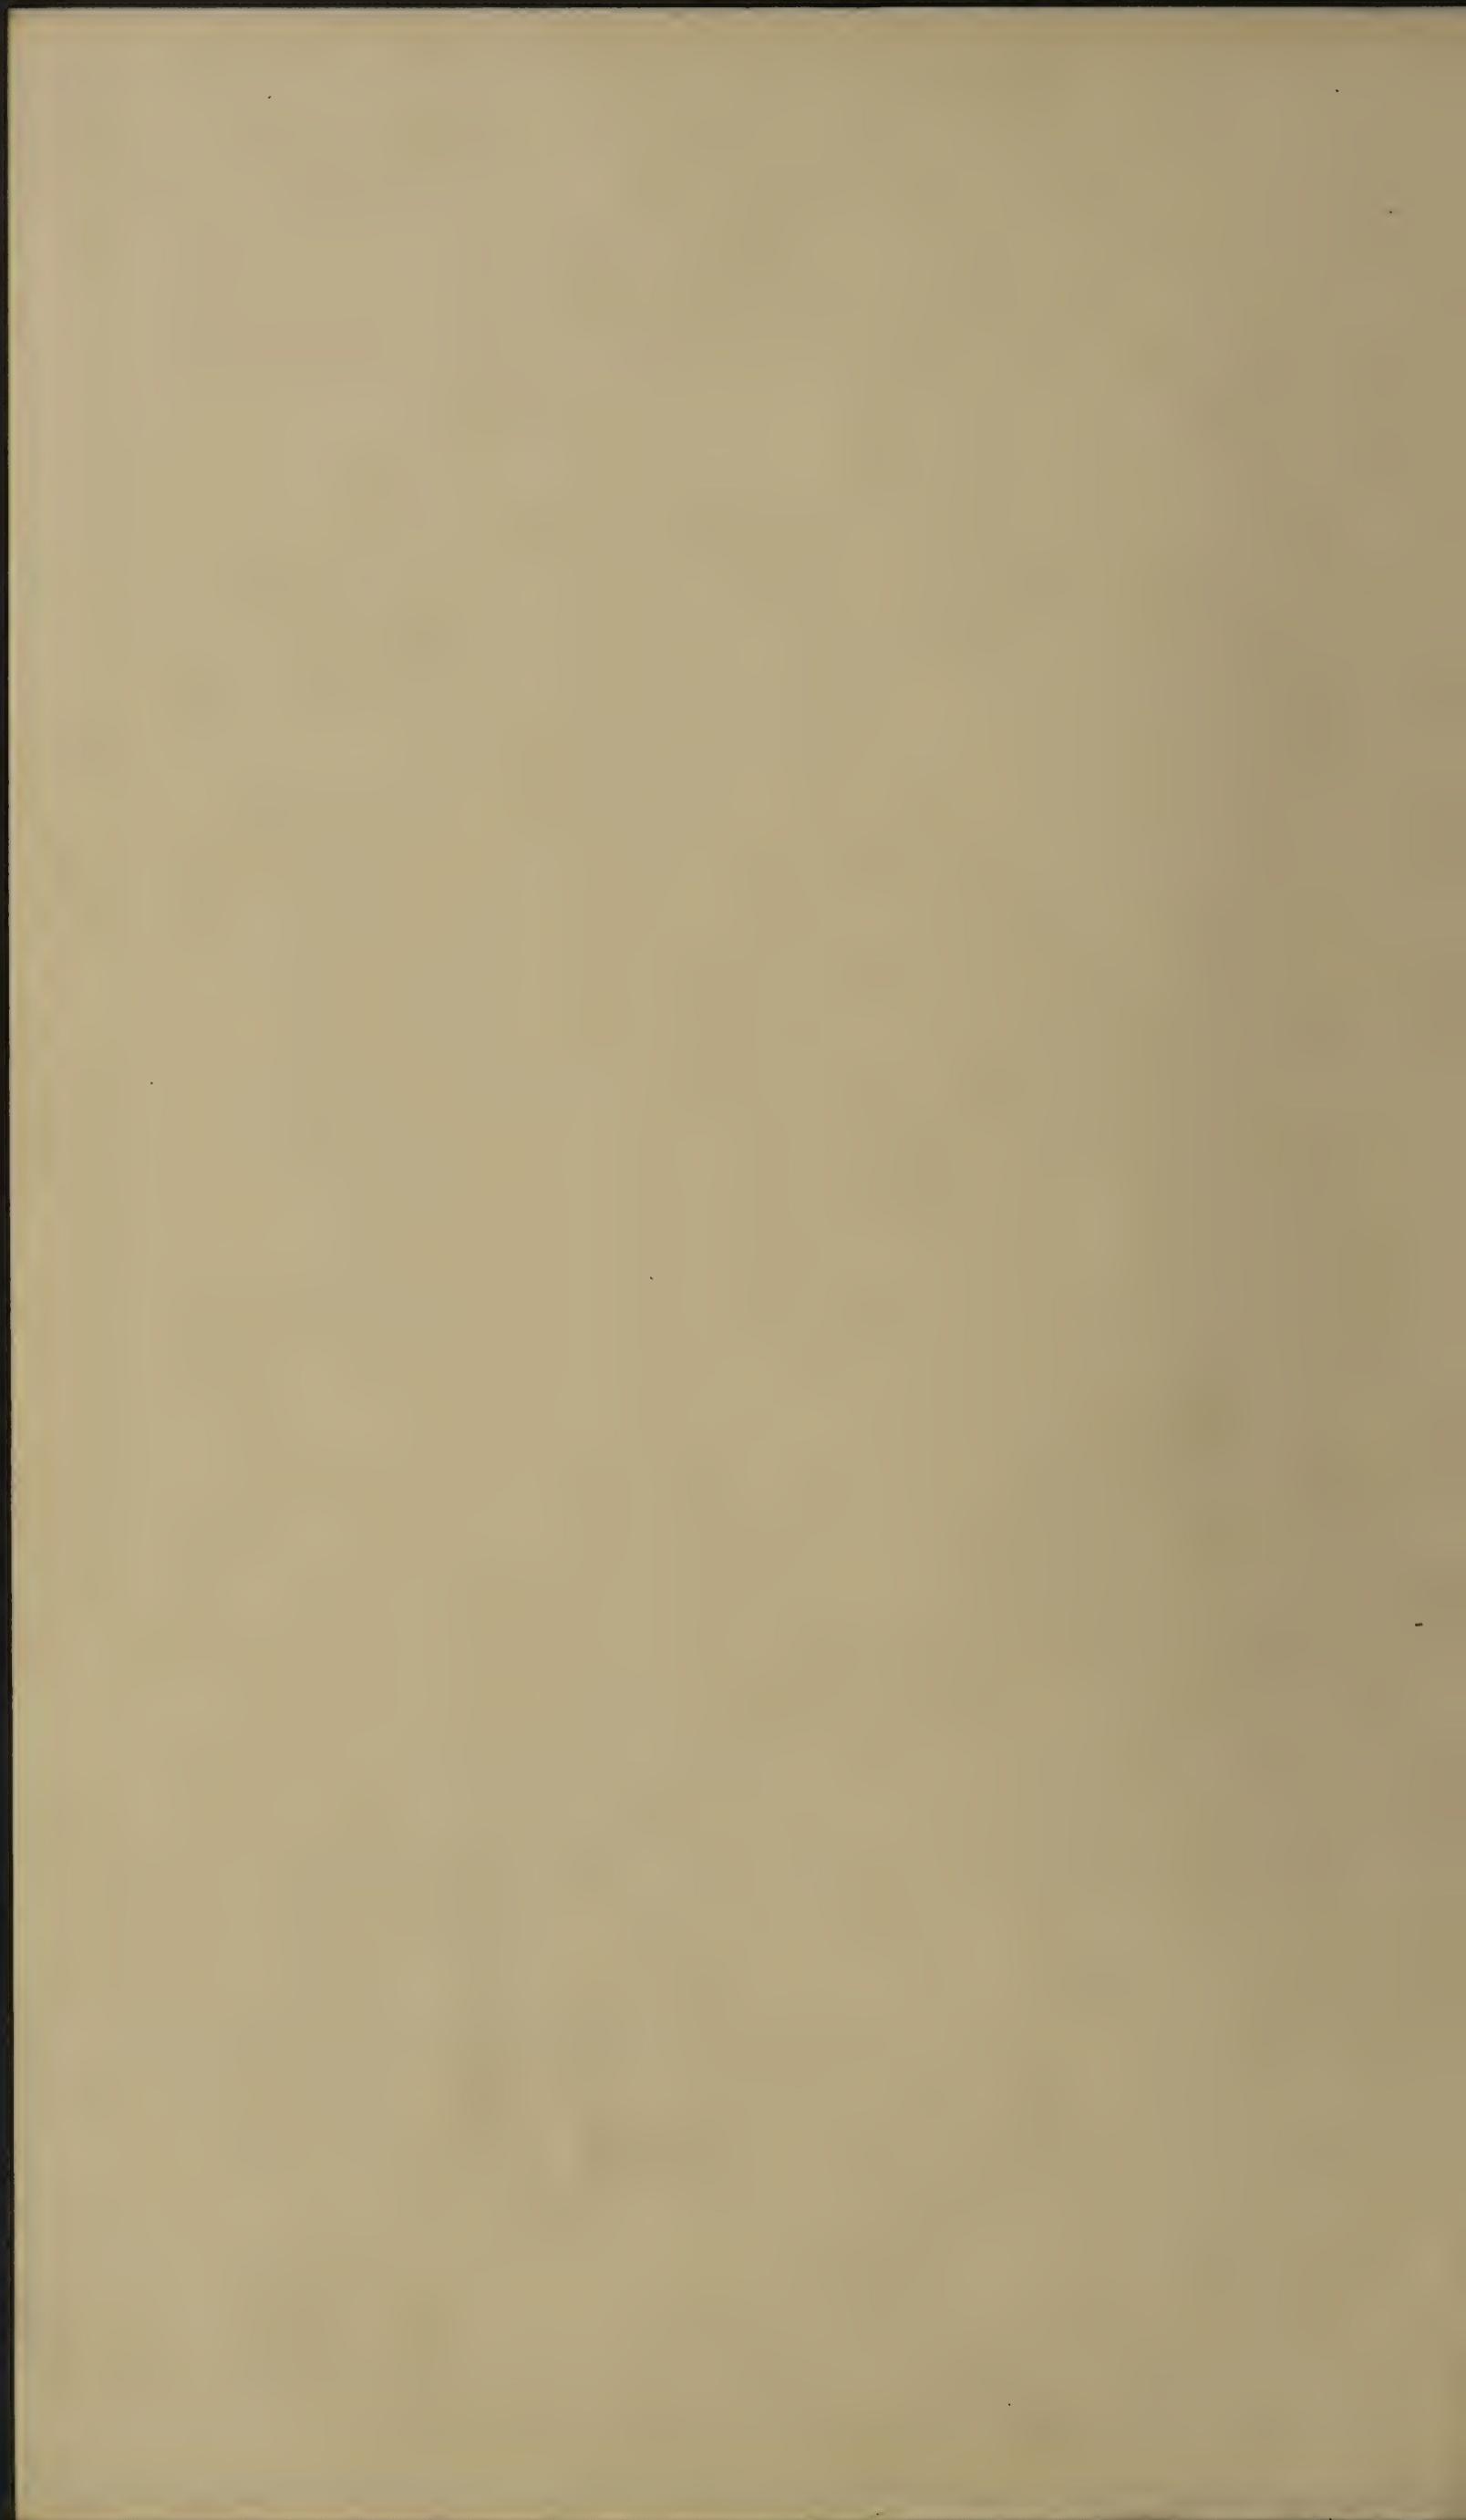

Hereas upon the Lords meeting after their late Recessse, finding that there are many Petitions depending in the House, and conceiving that many more may come in, which may occasion the repair and attendance of divers of His Majesties Subjects at this place: their Lordships have thought fit, and accordingly have ordered it, That because of the danger of Infection, and because there are many publike busynesses of great importance in agitation, which concern the safety and weale of the Kingdom, that all private busynesses be deferred and put off till the thirtieth of November next. Whereof their Lordships do hereby give publike notice to the whole Kingdom, to prevent the charge and trouble which otherwise the Petitioners might be put unto in repairing hither.

¶ Imprinted at London by Robert Barker, Printer
to the Kings most Excellent Majestie: And by the Assignes of John Bill. 1641

orlab 21 41

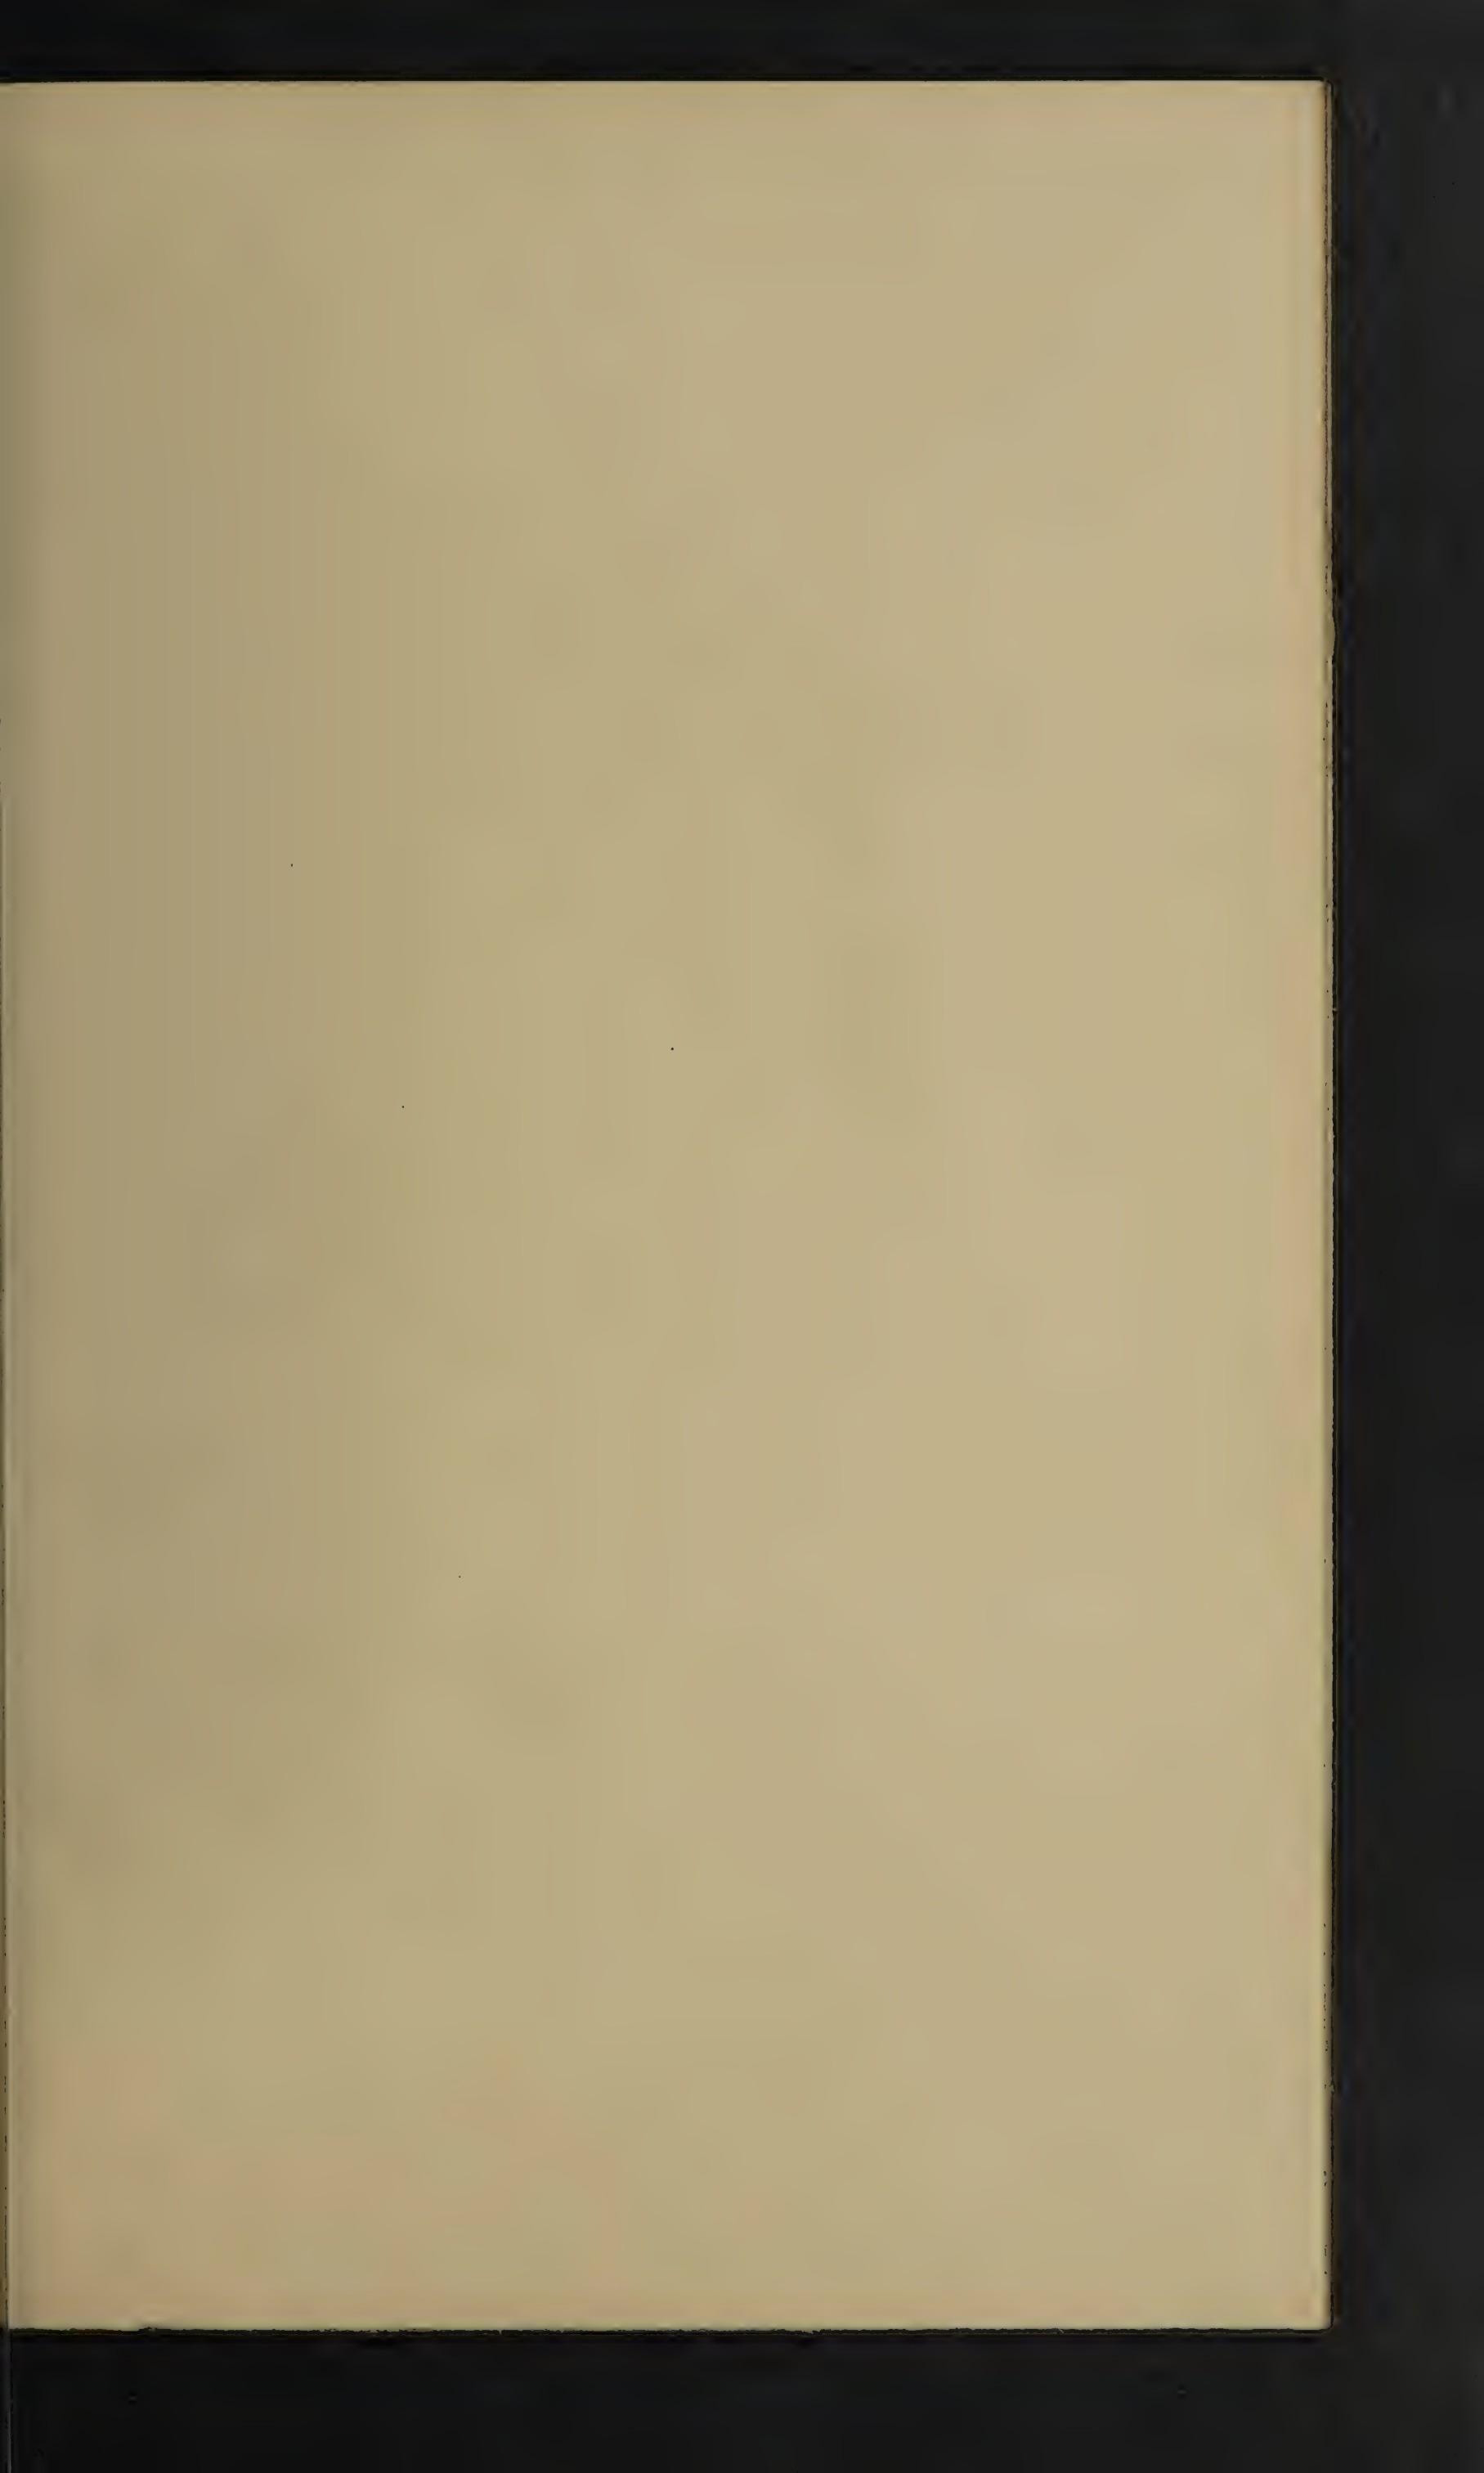

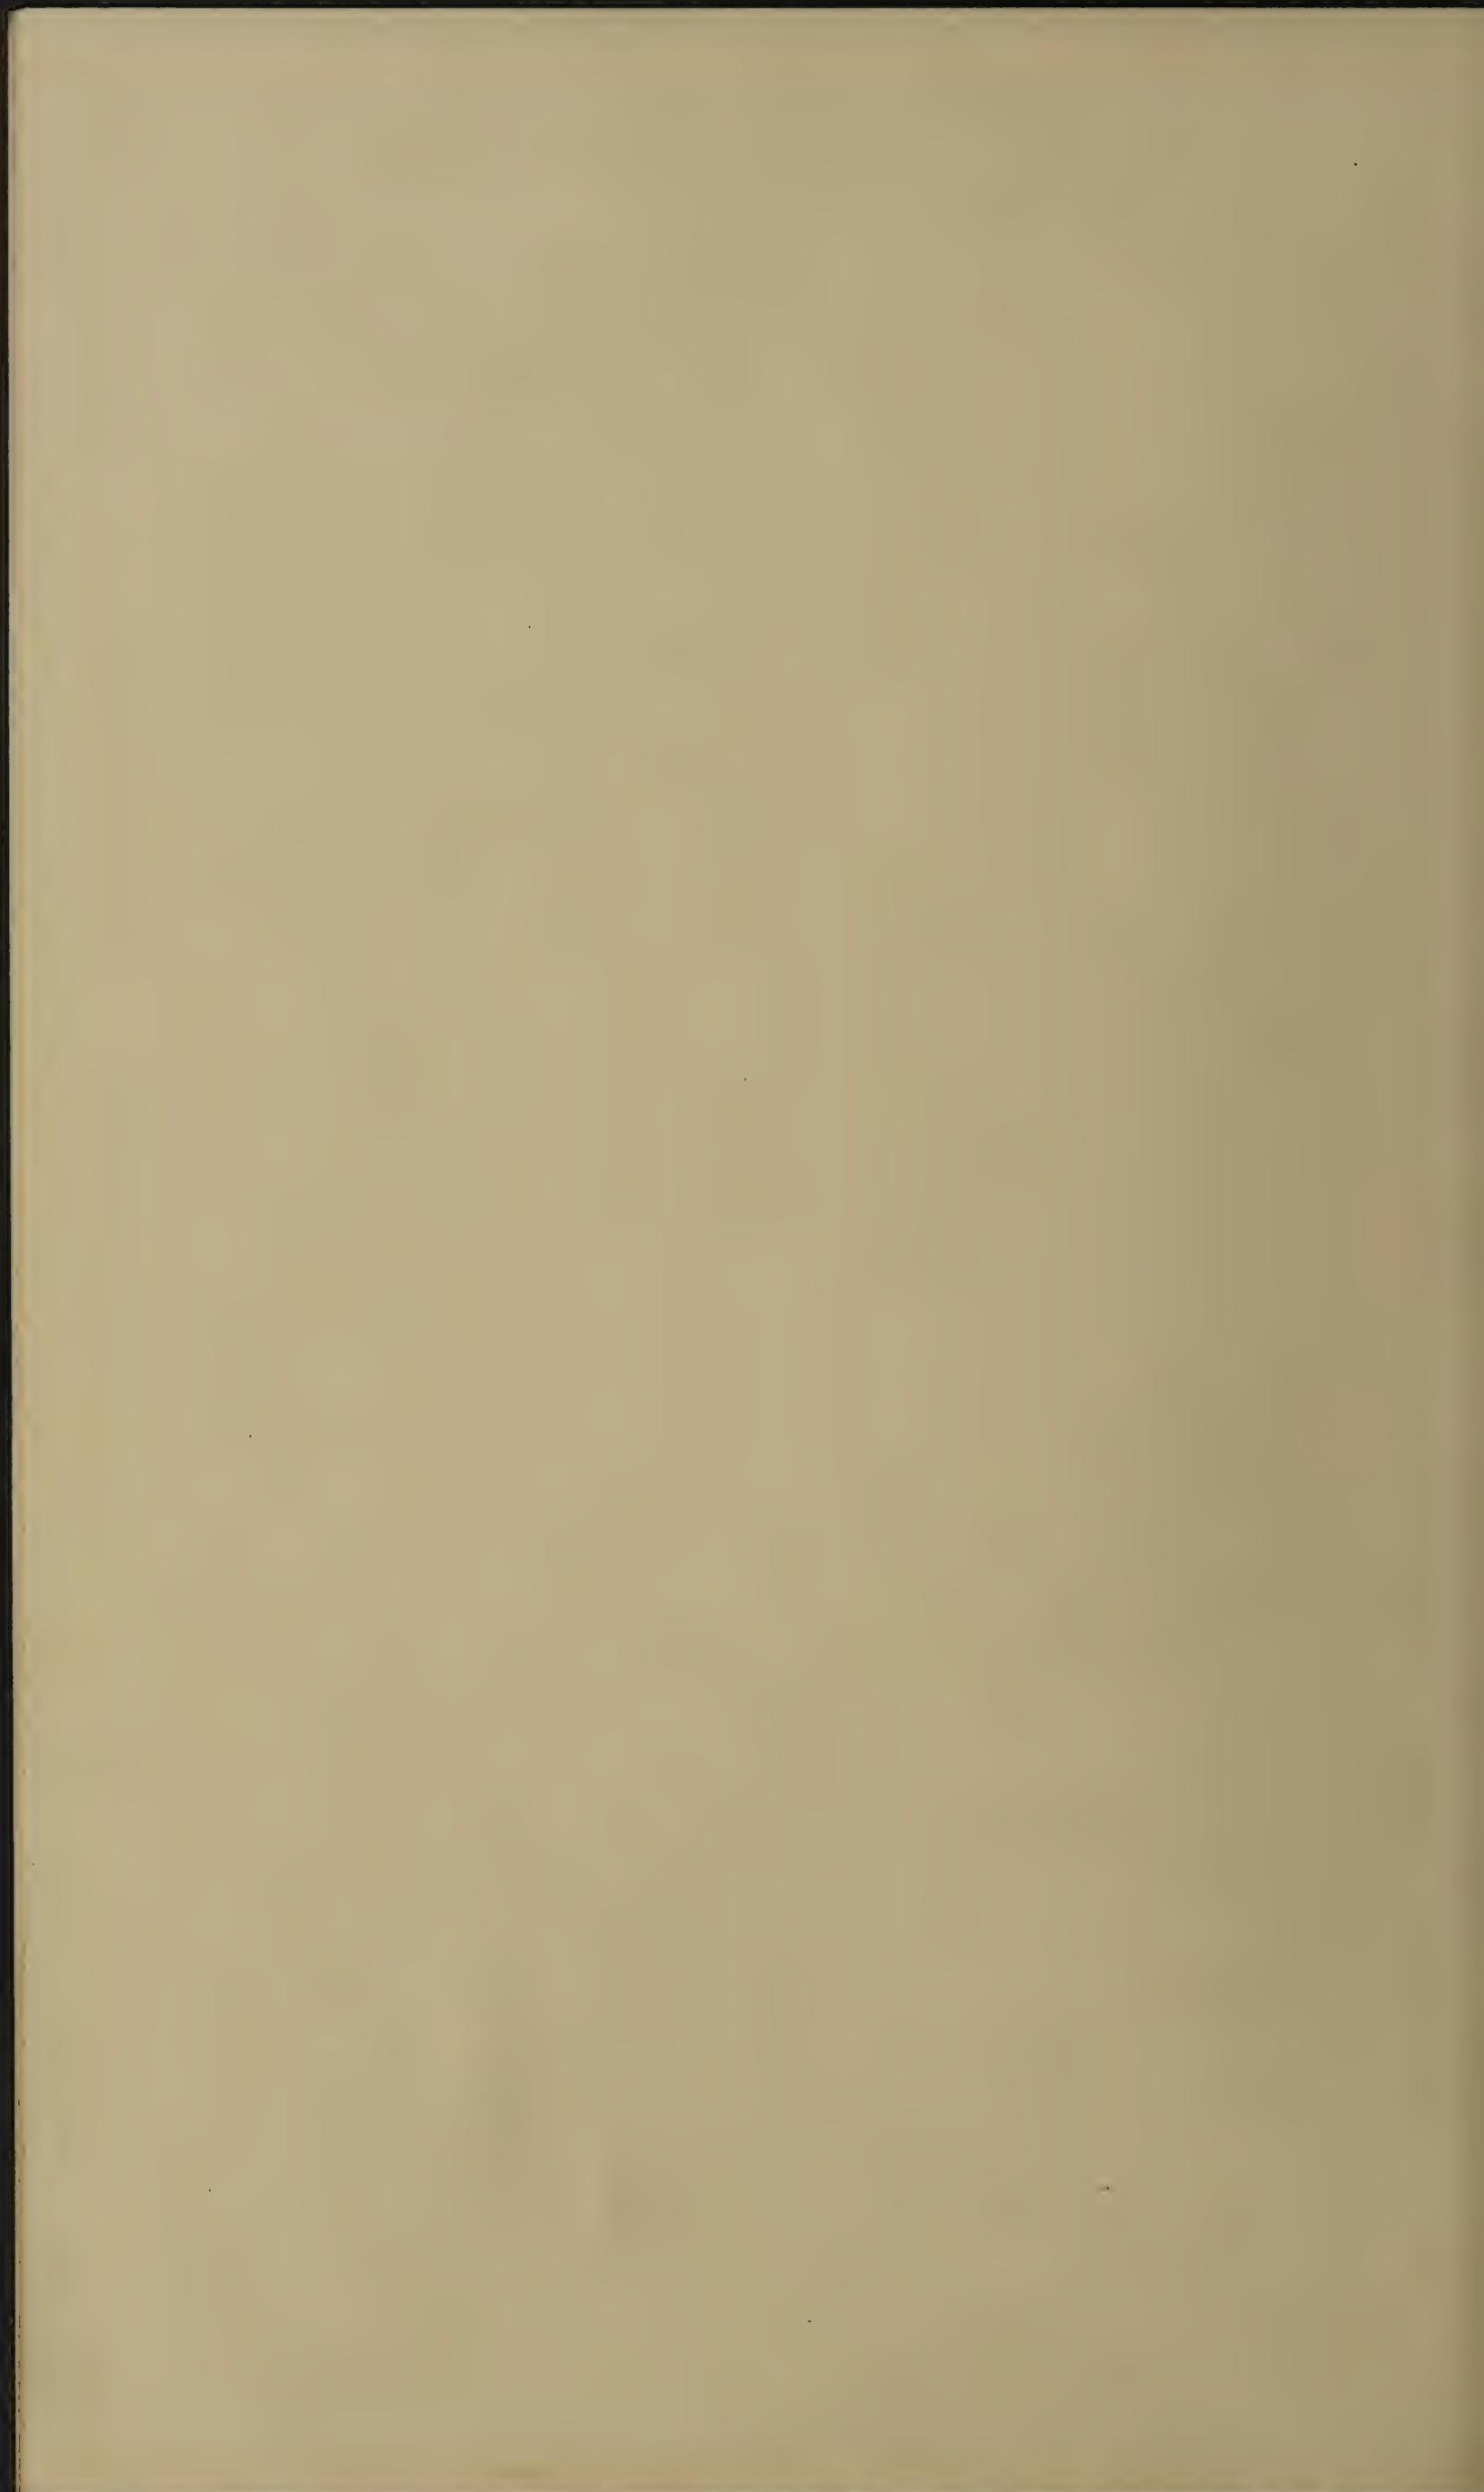

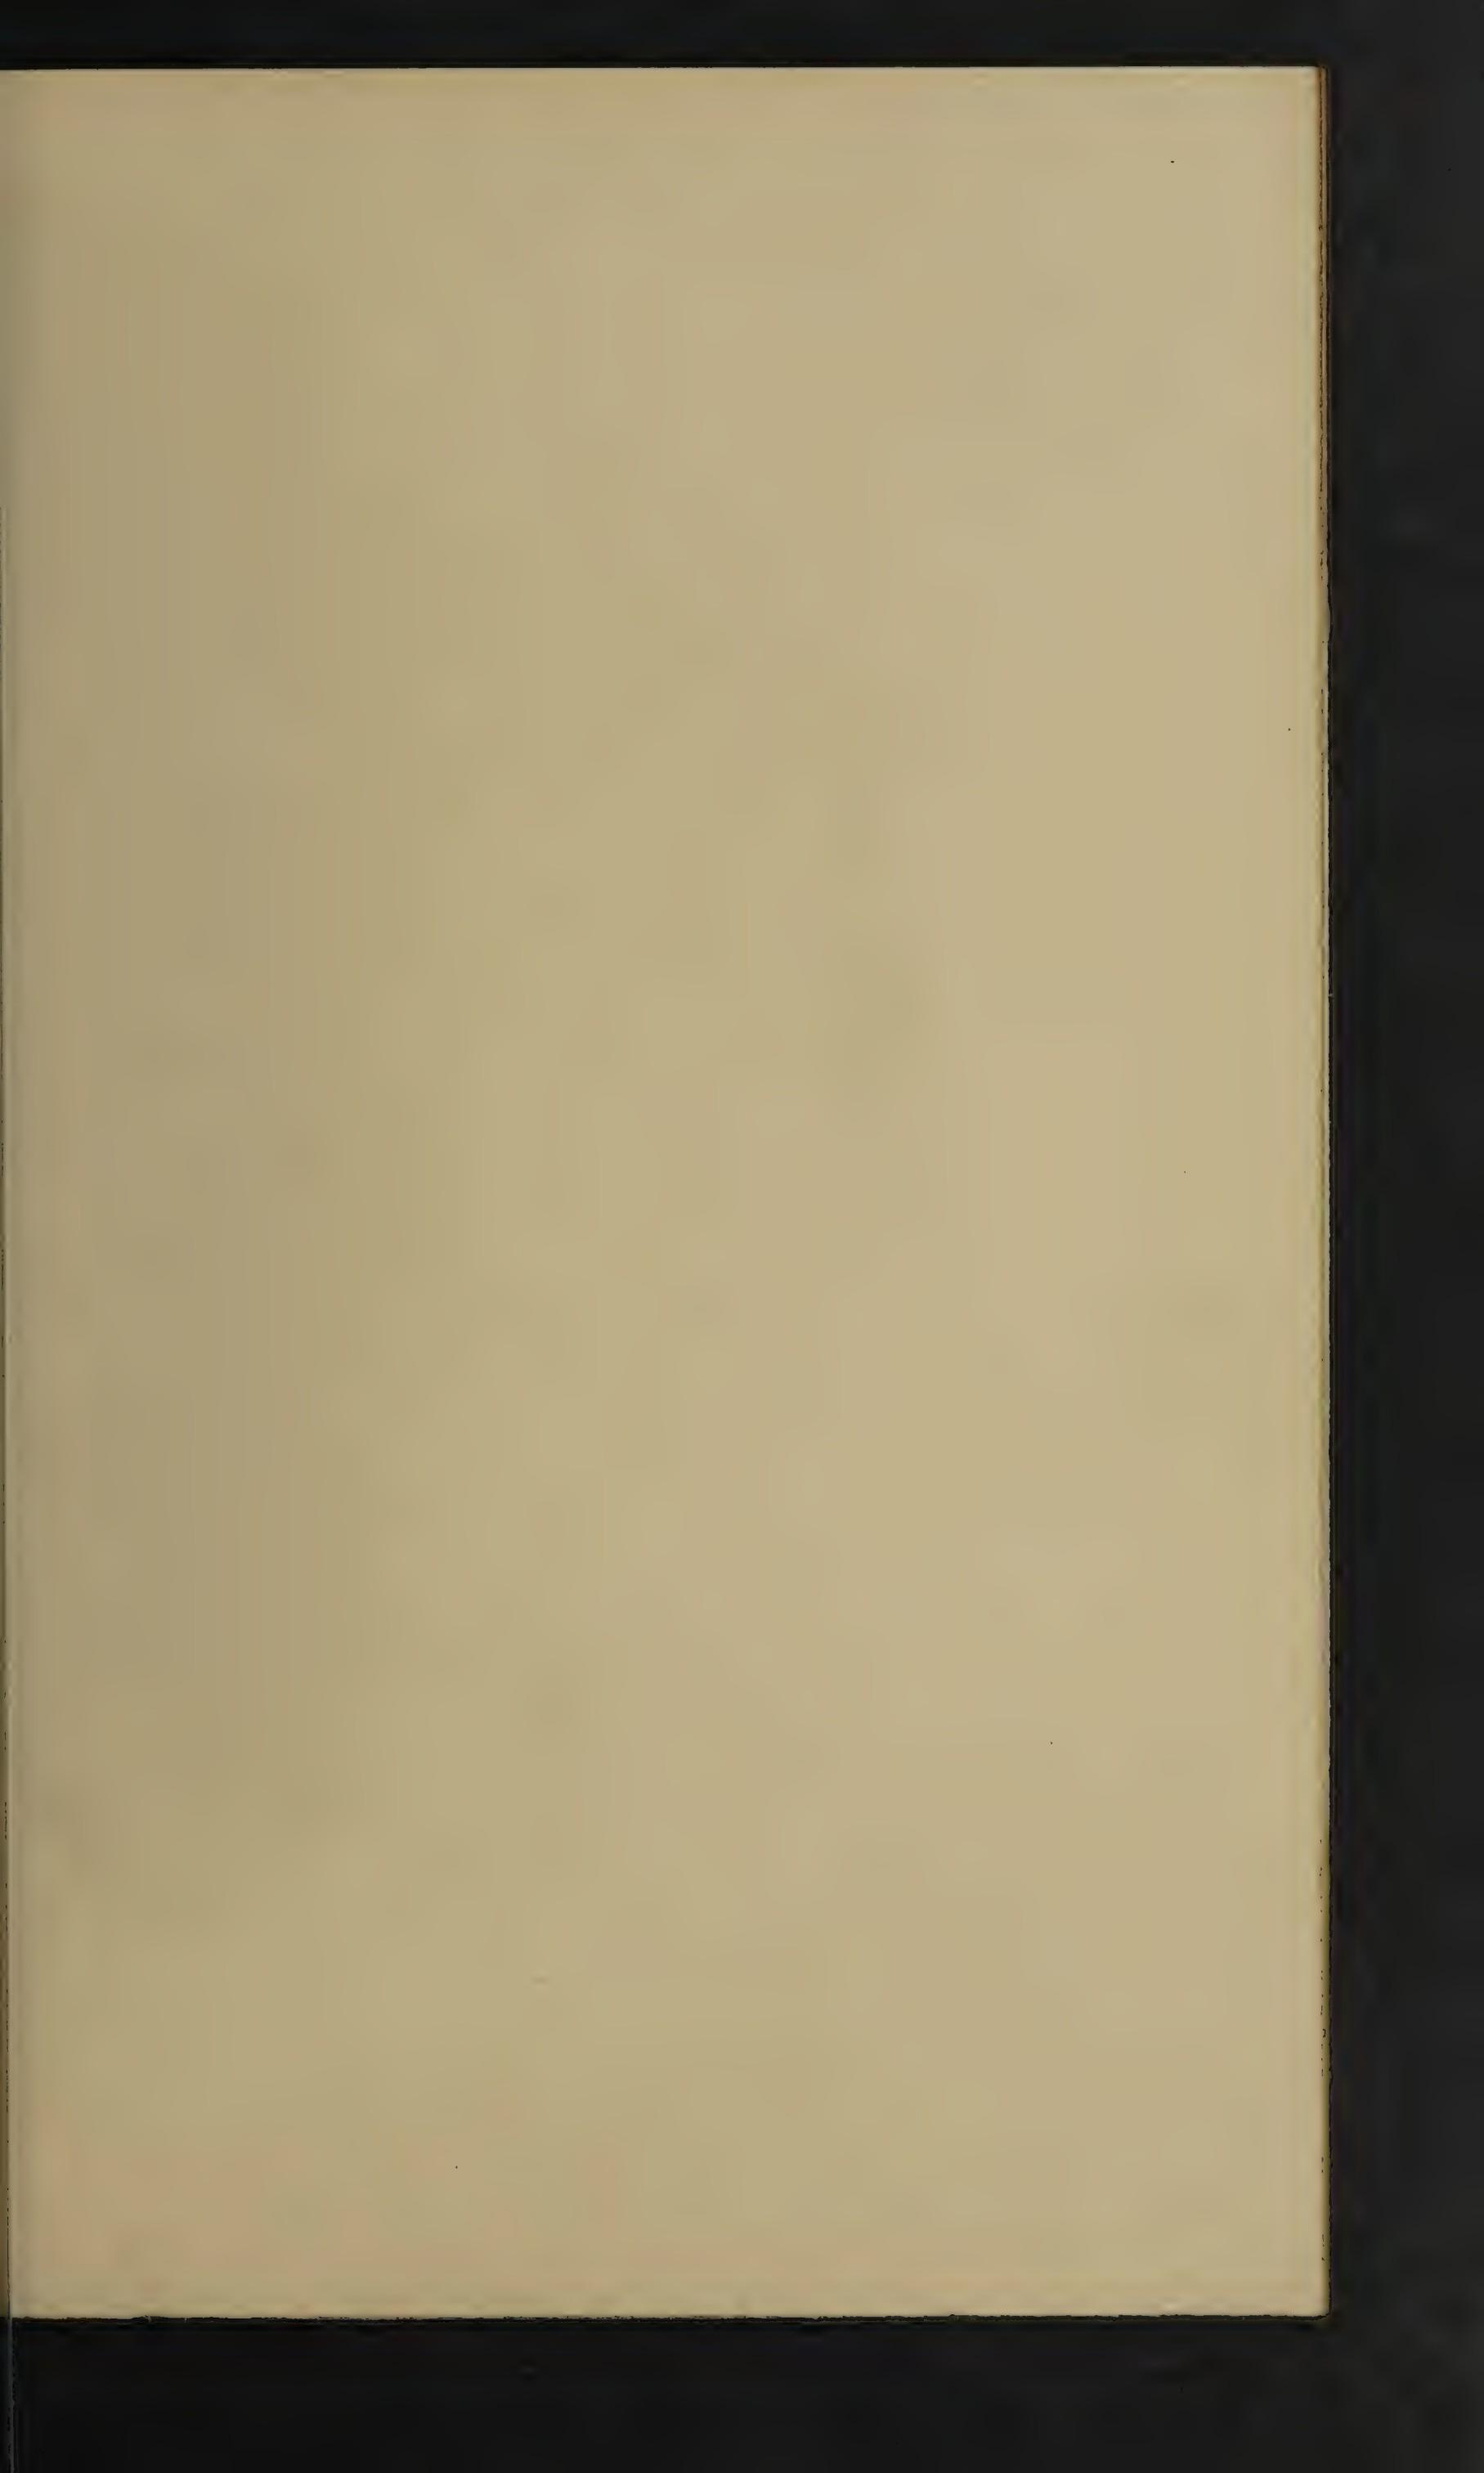

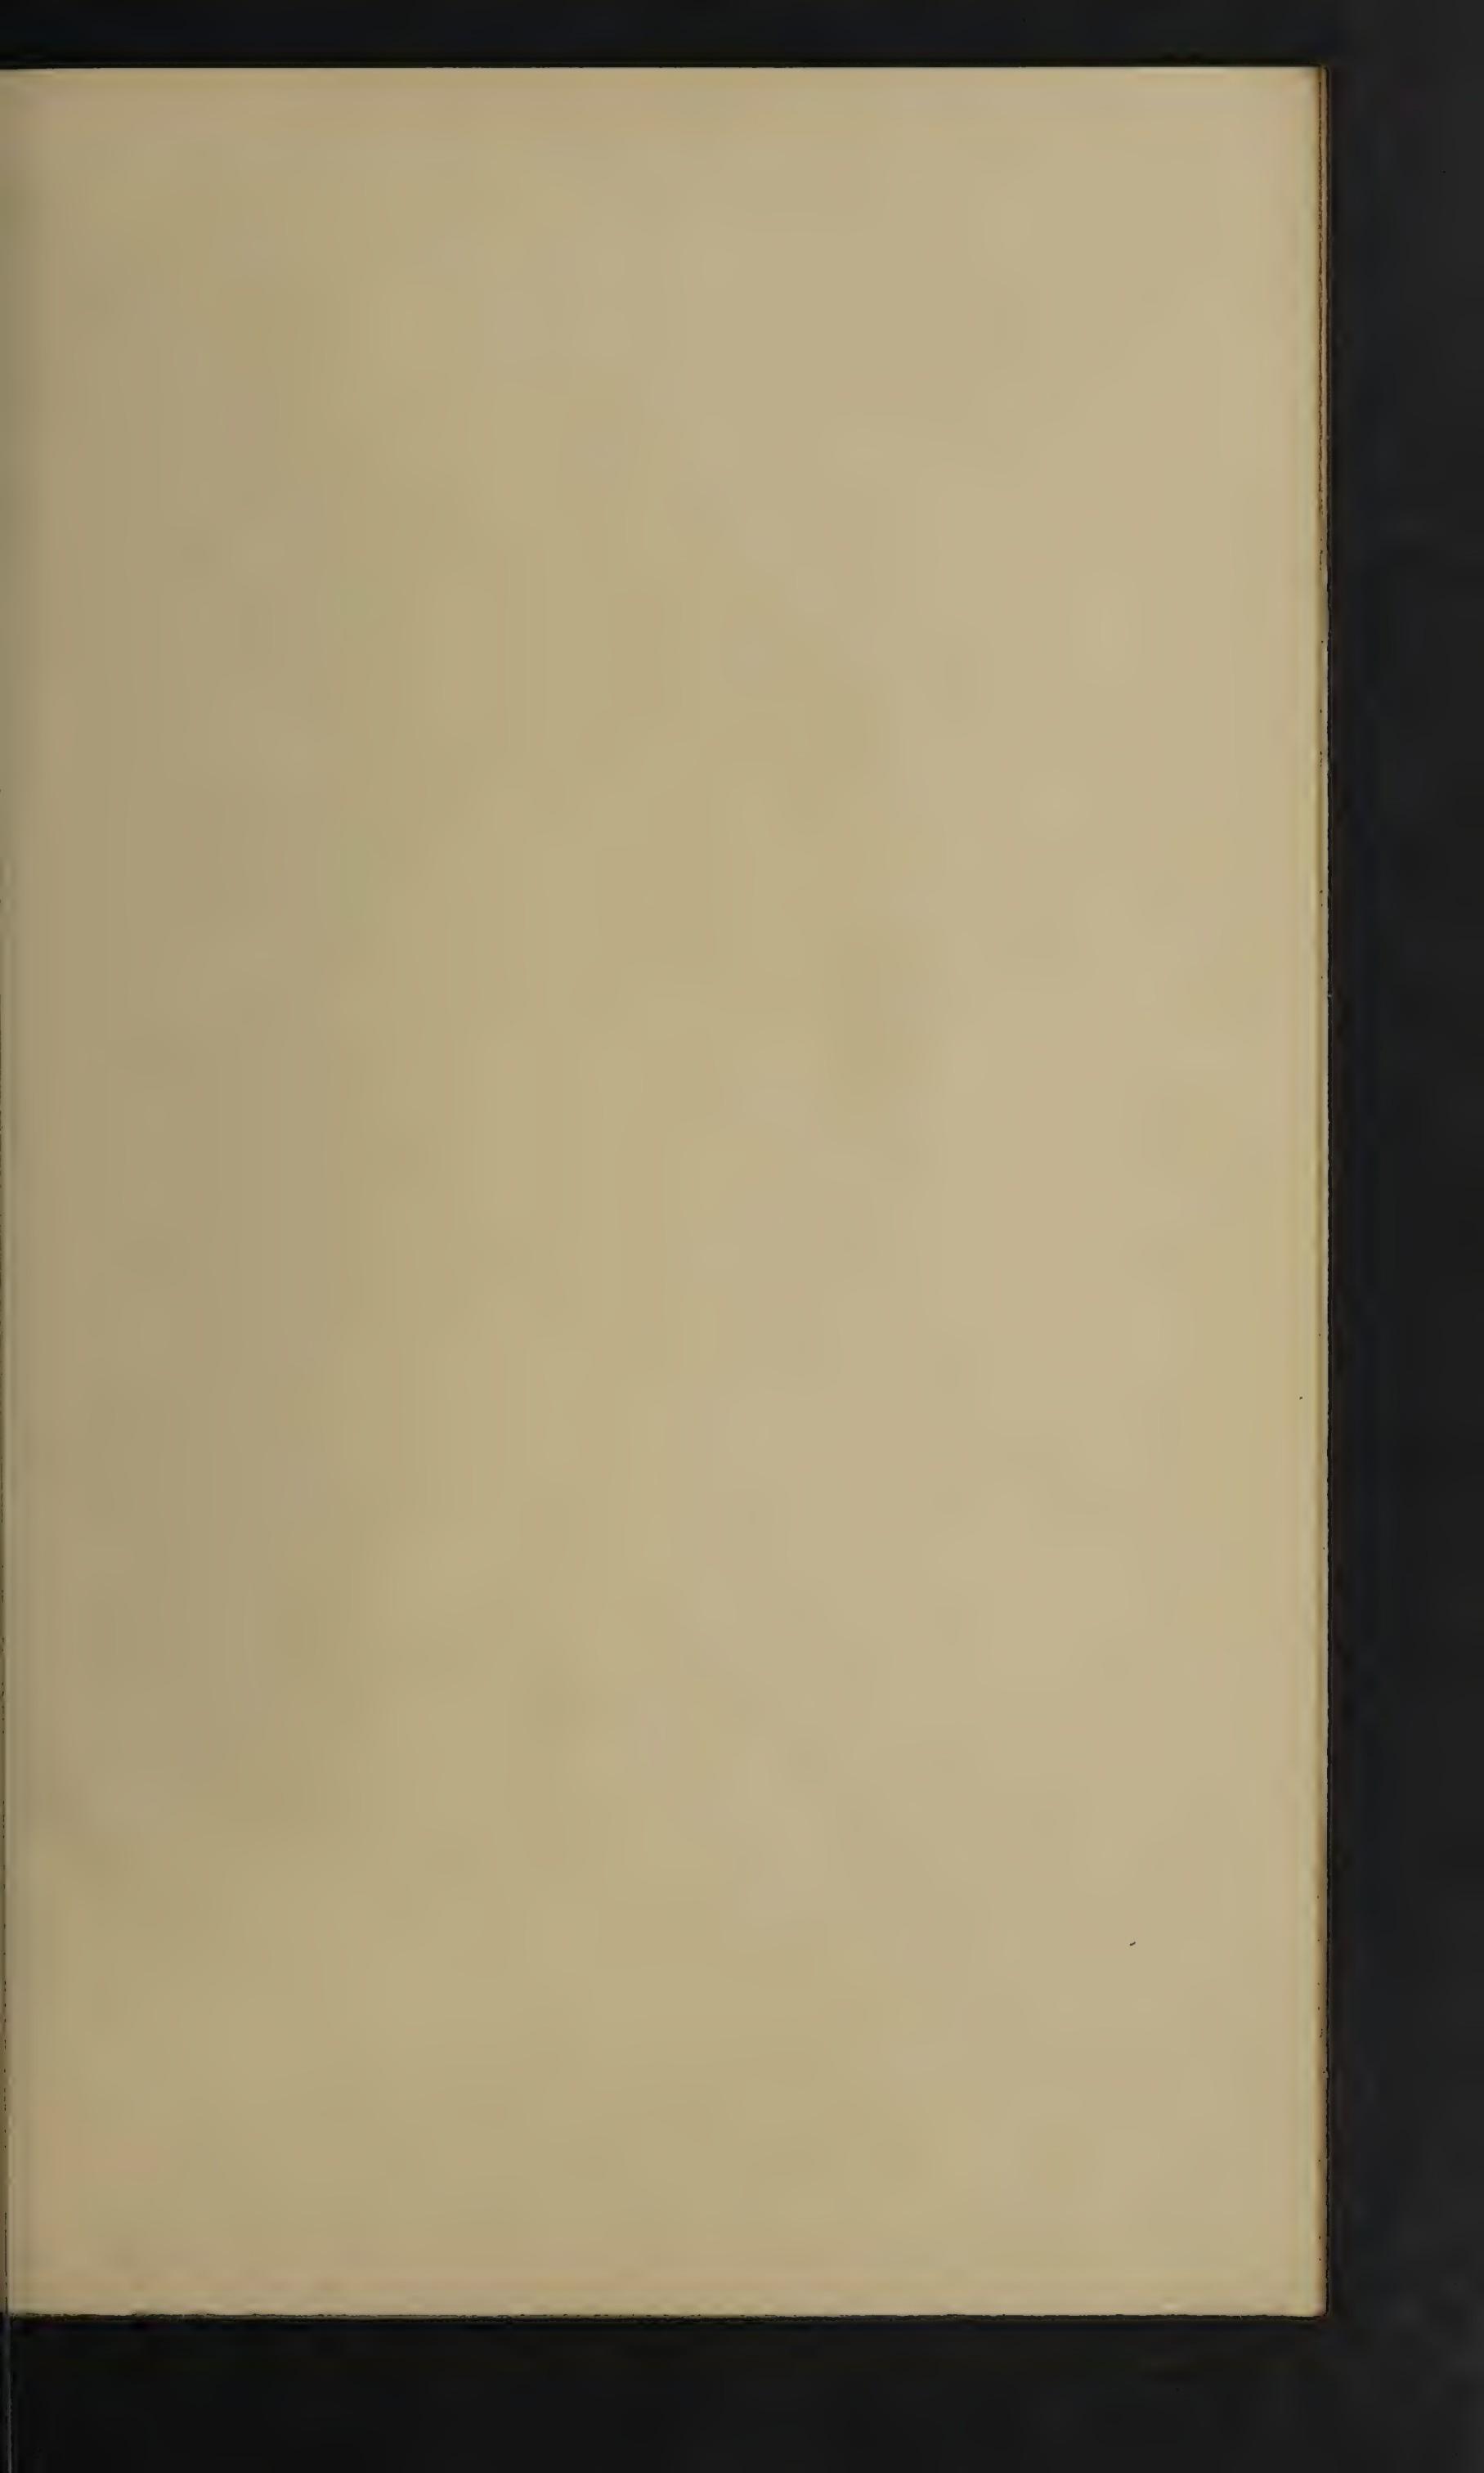

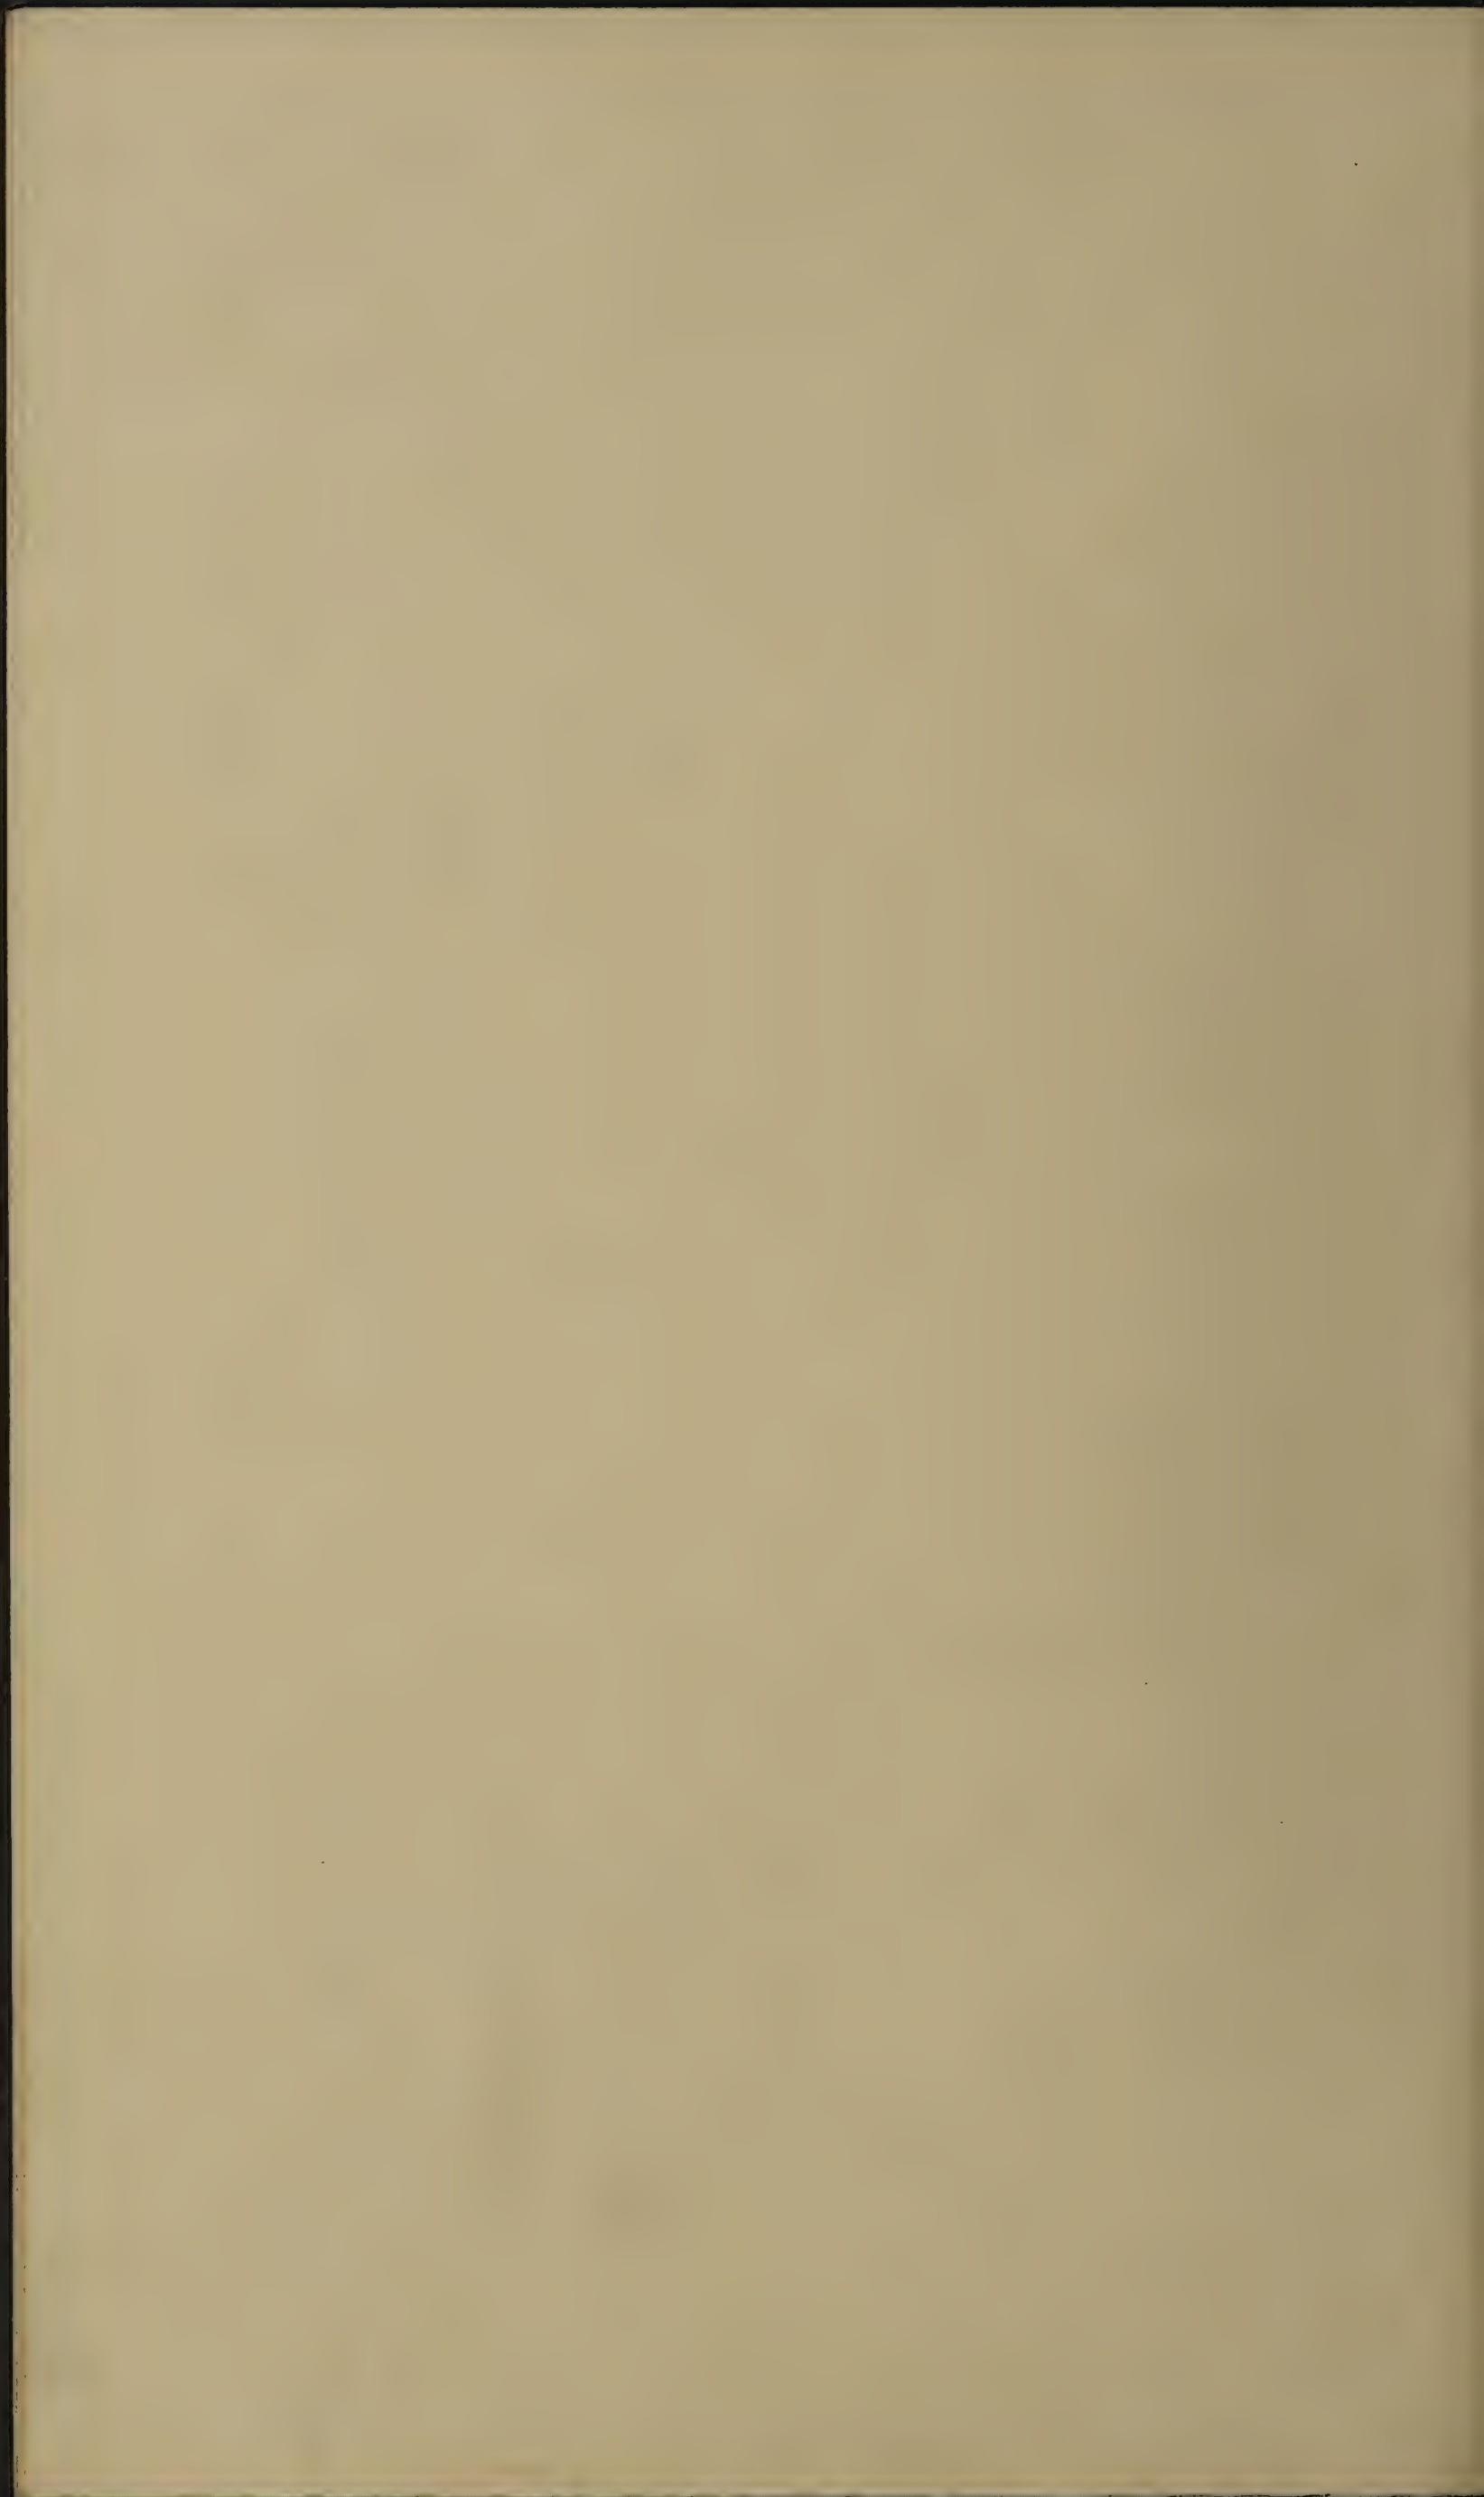

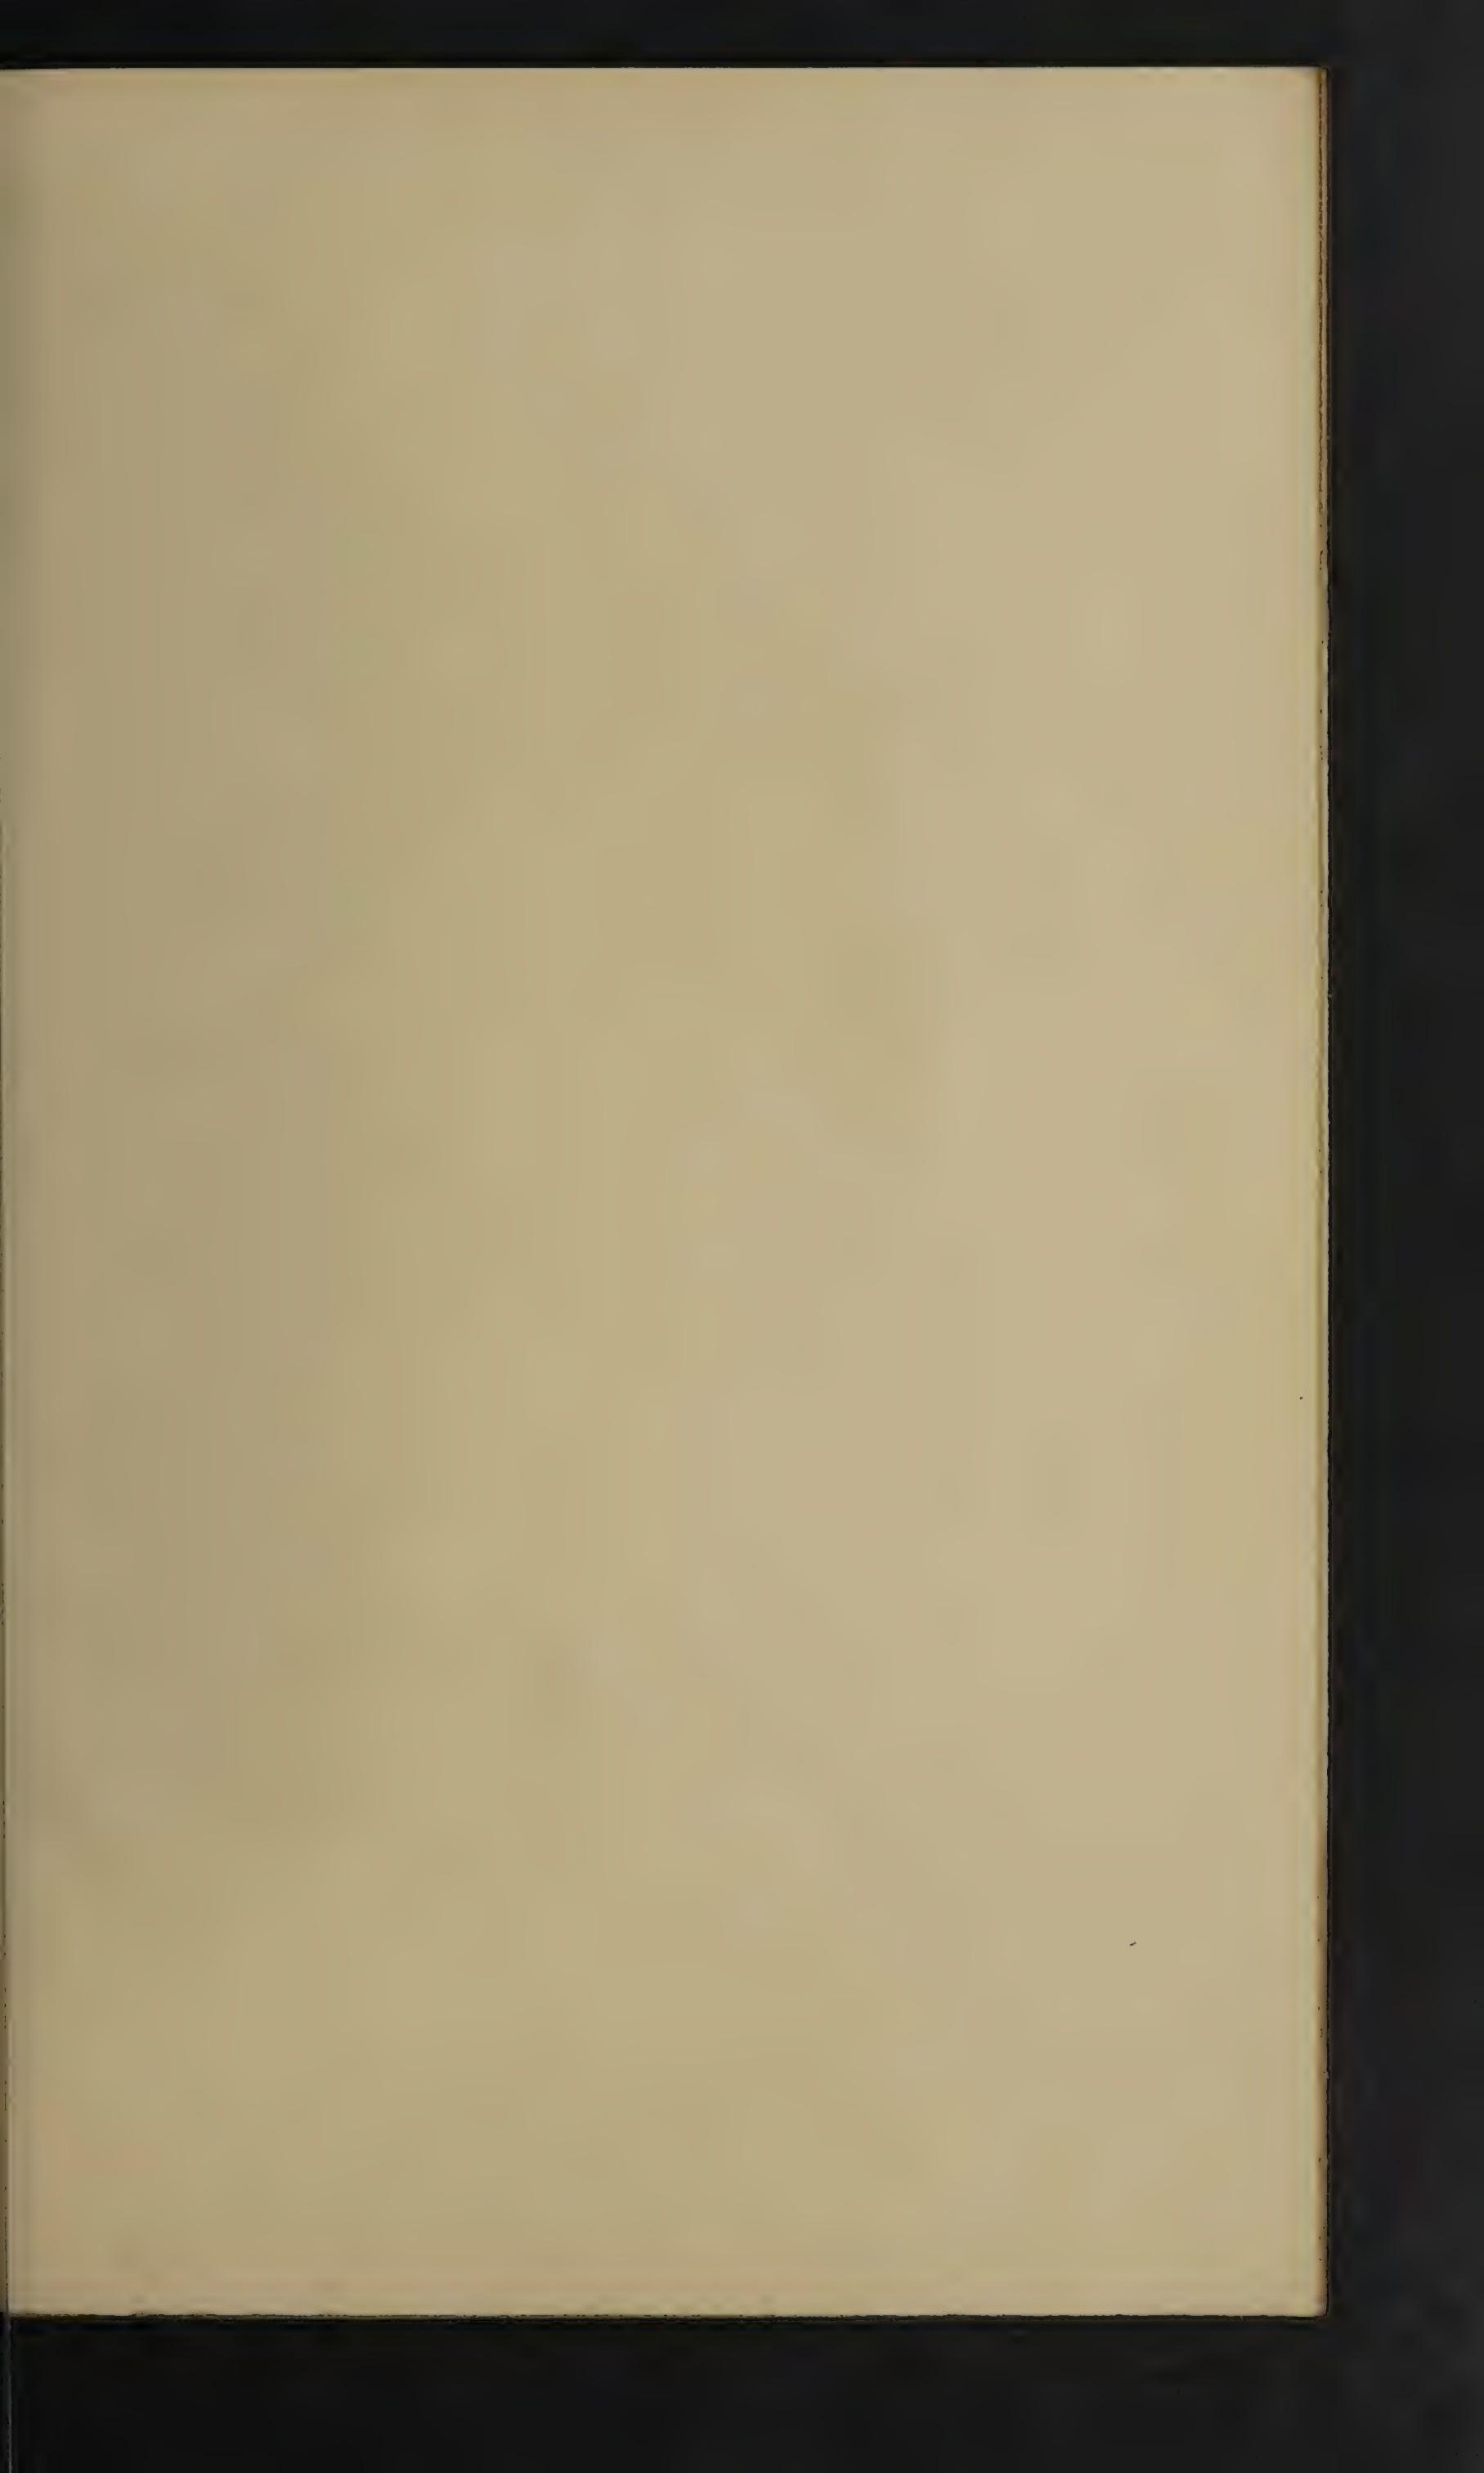

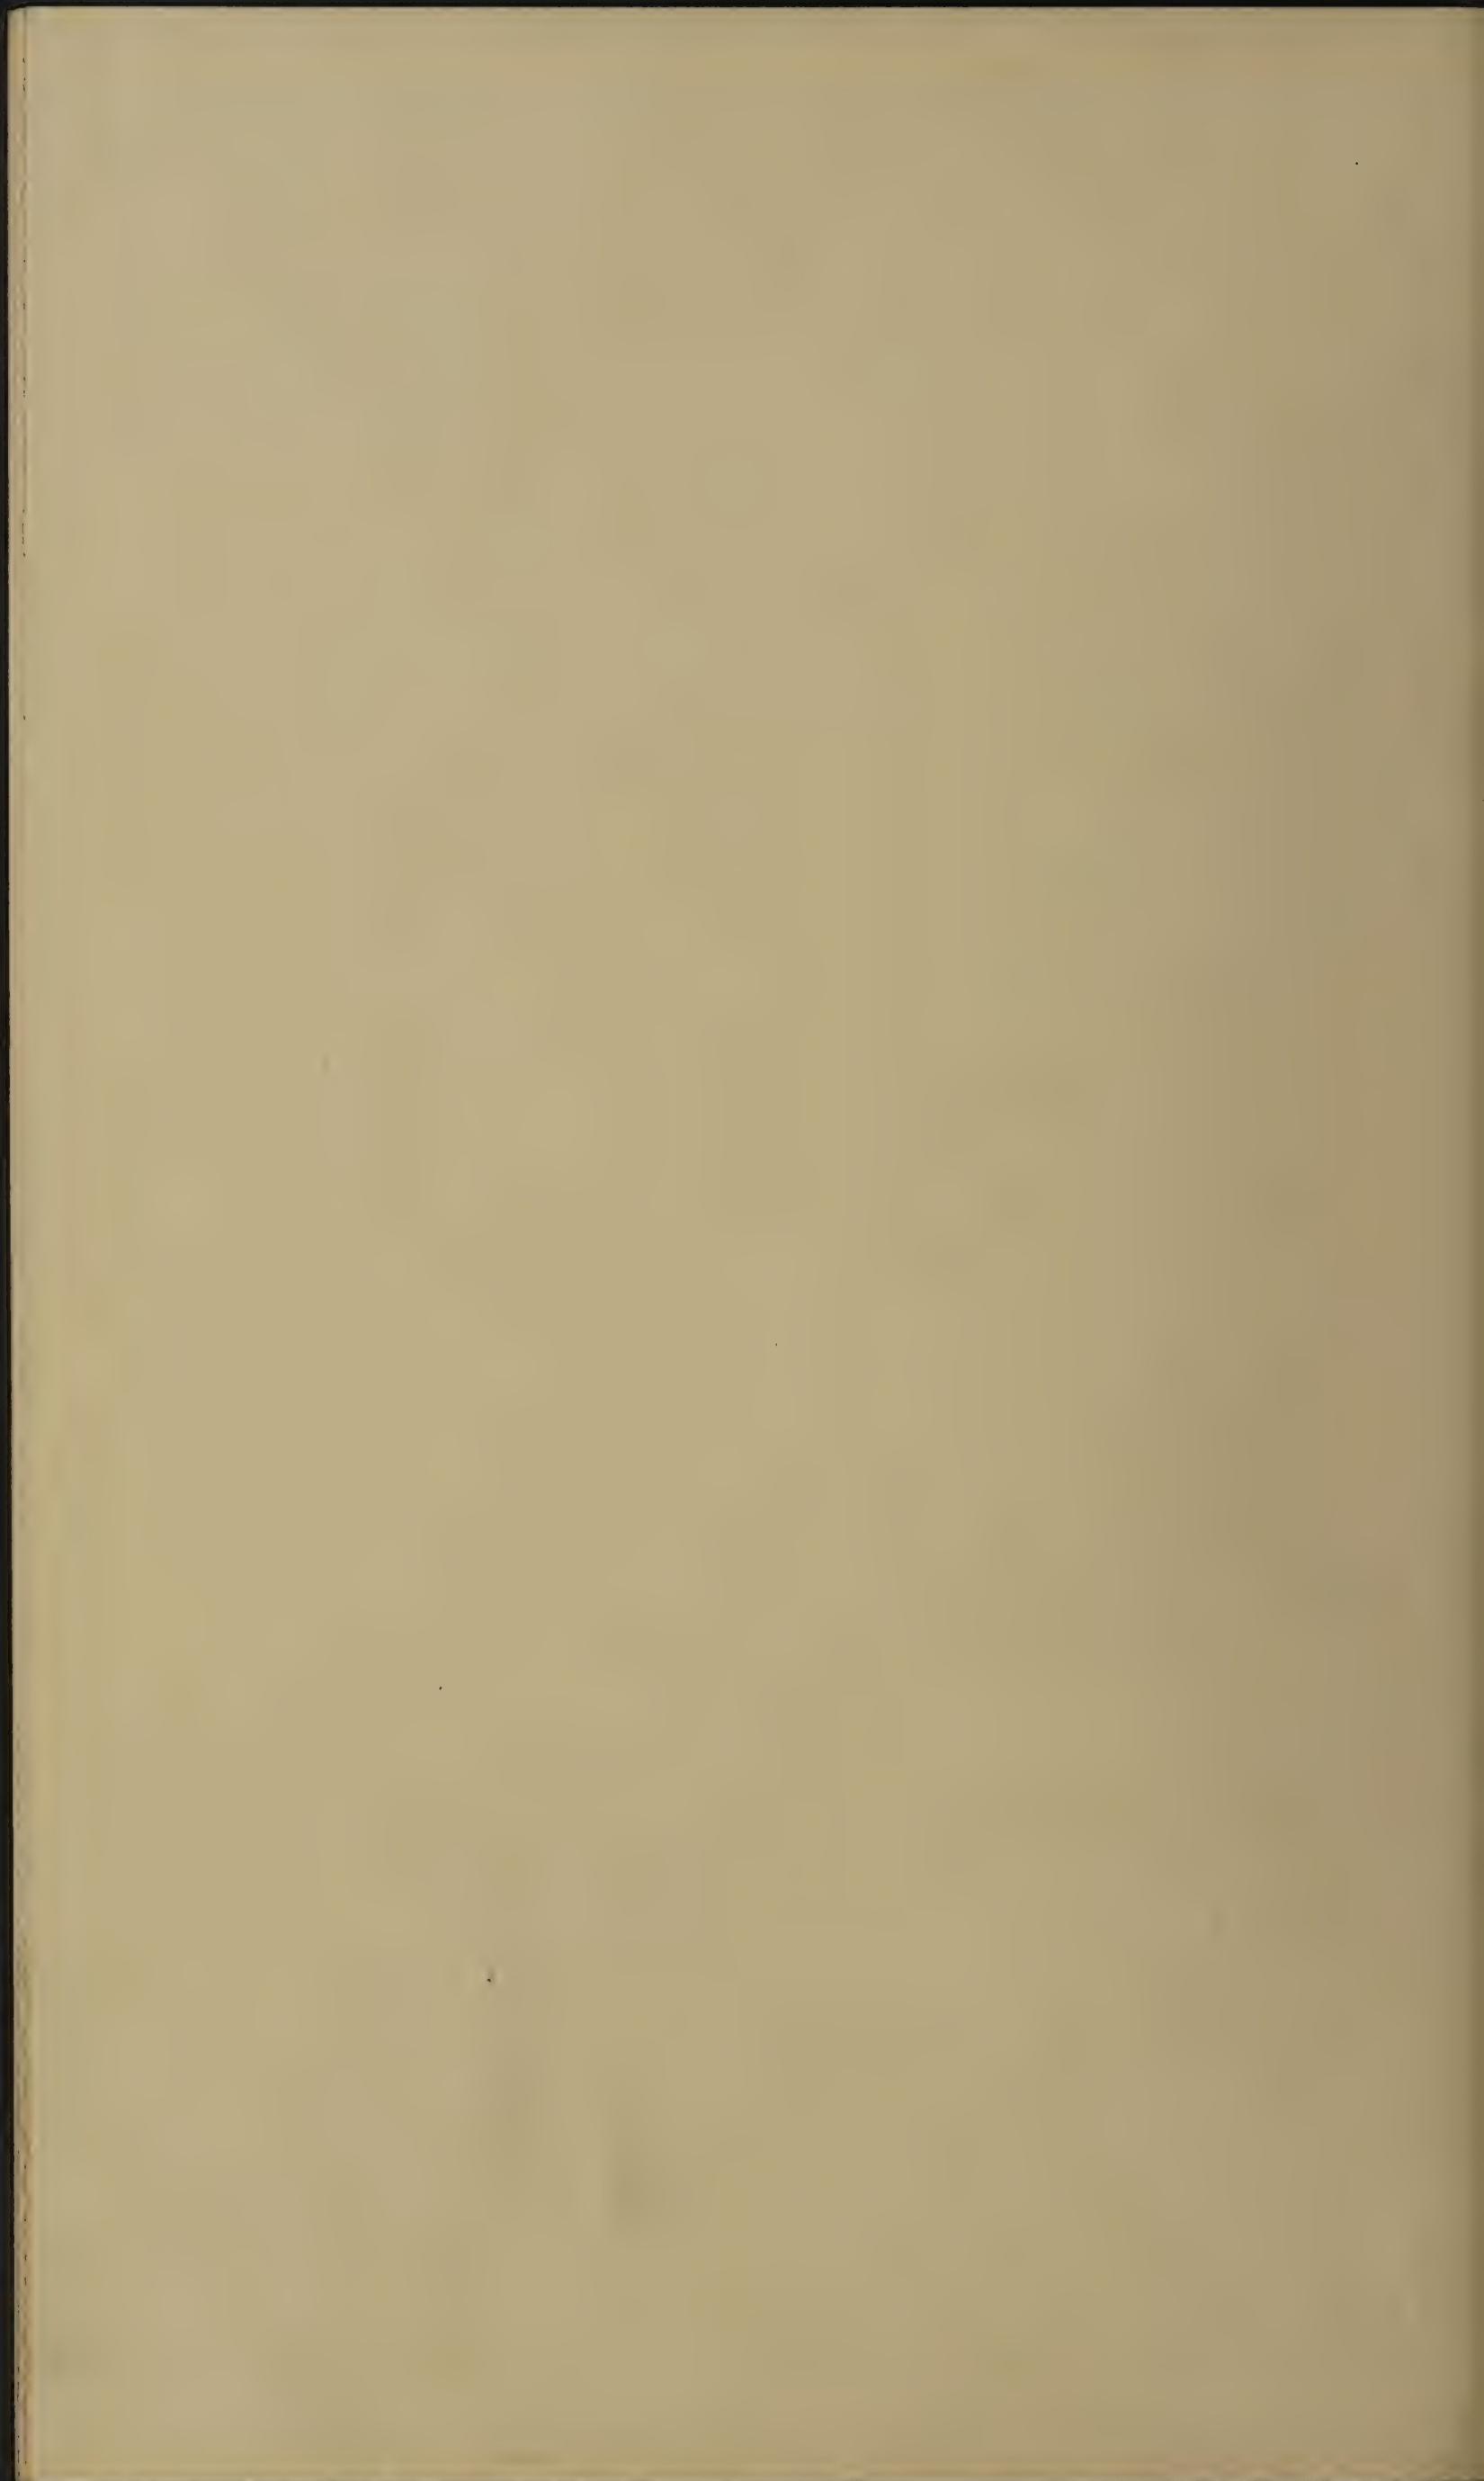

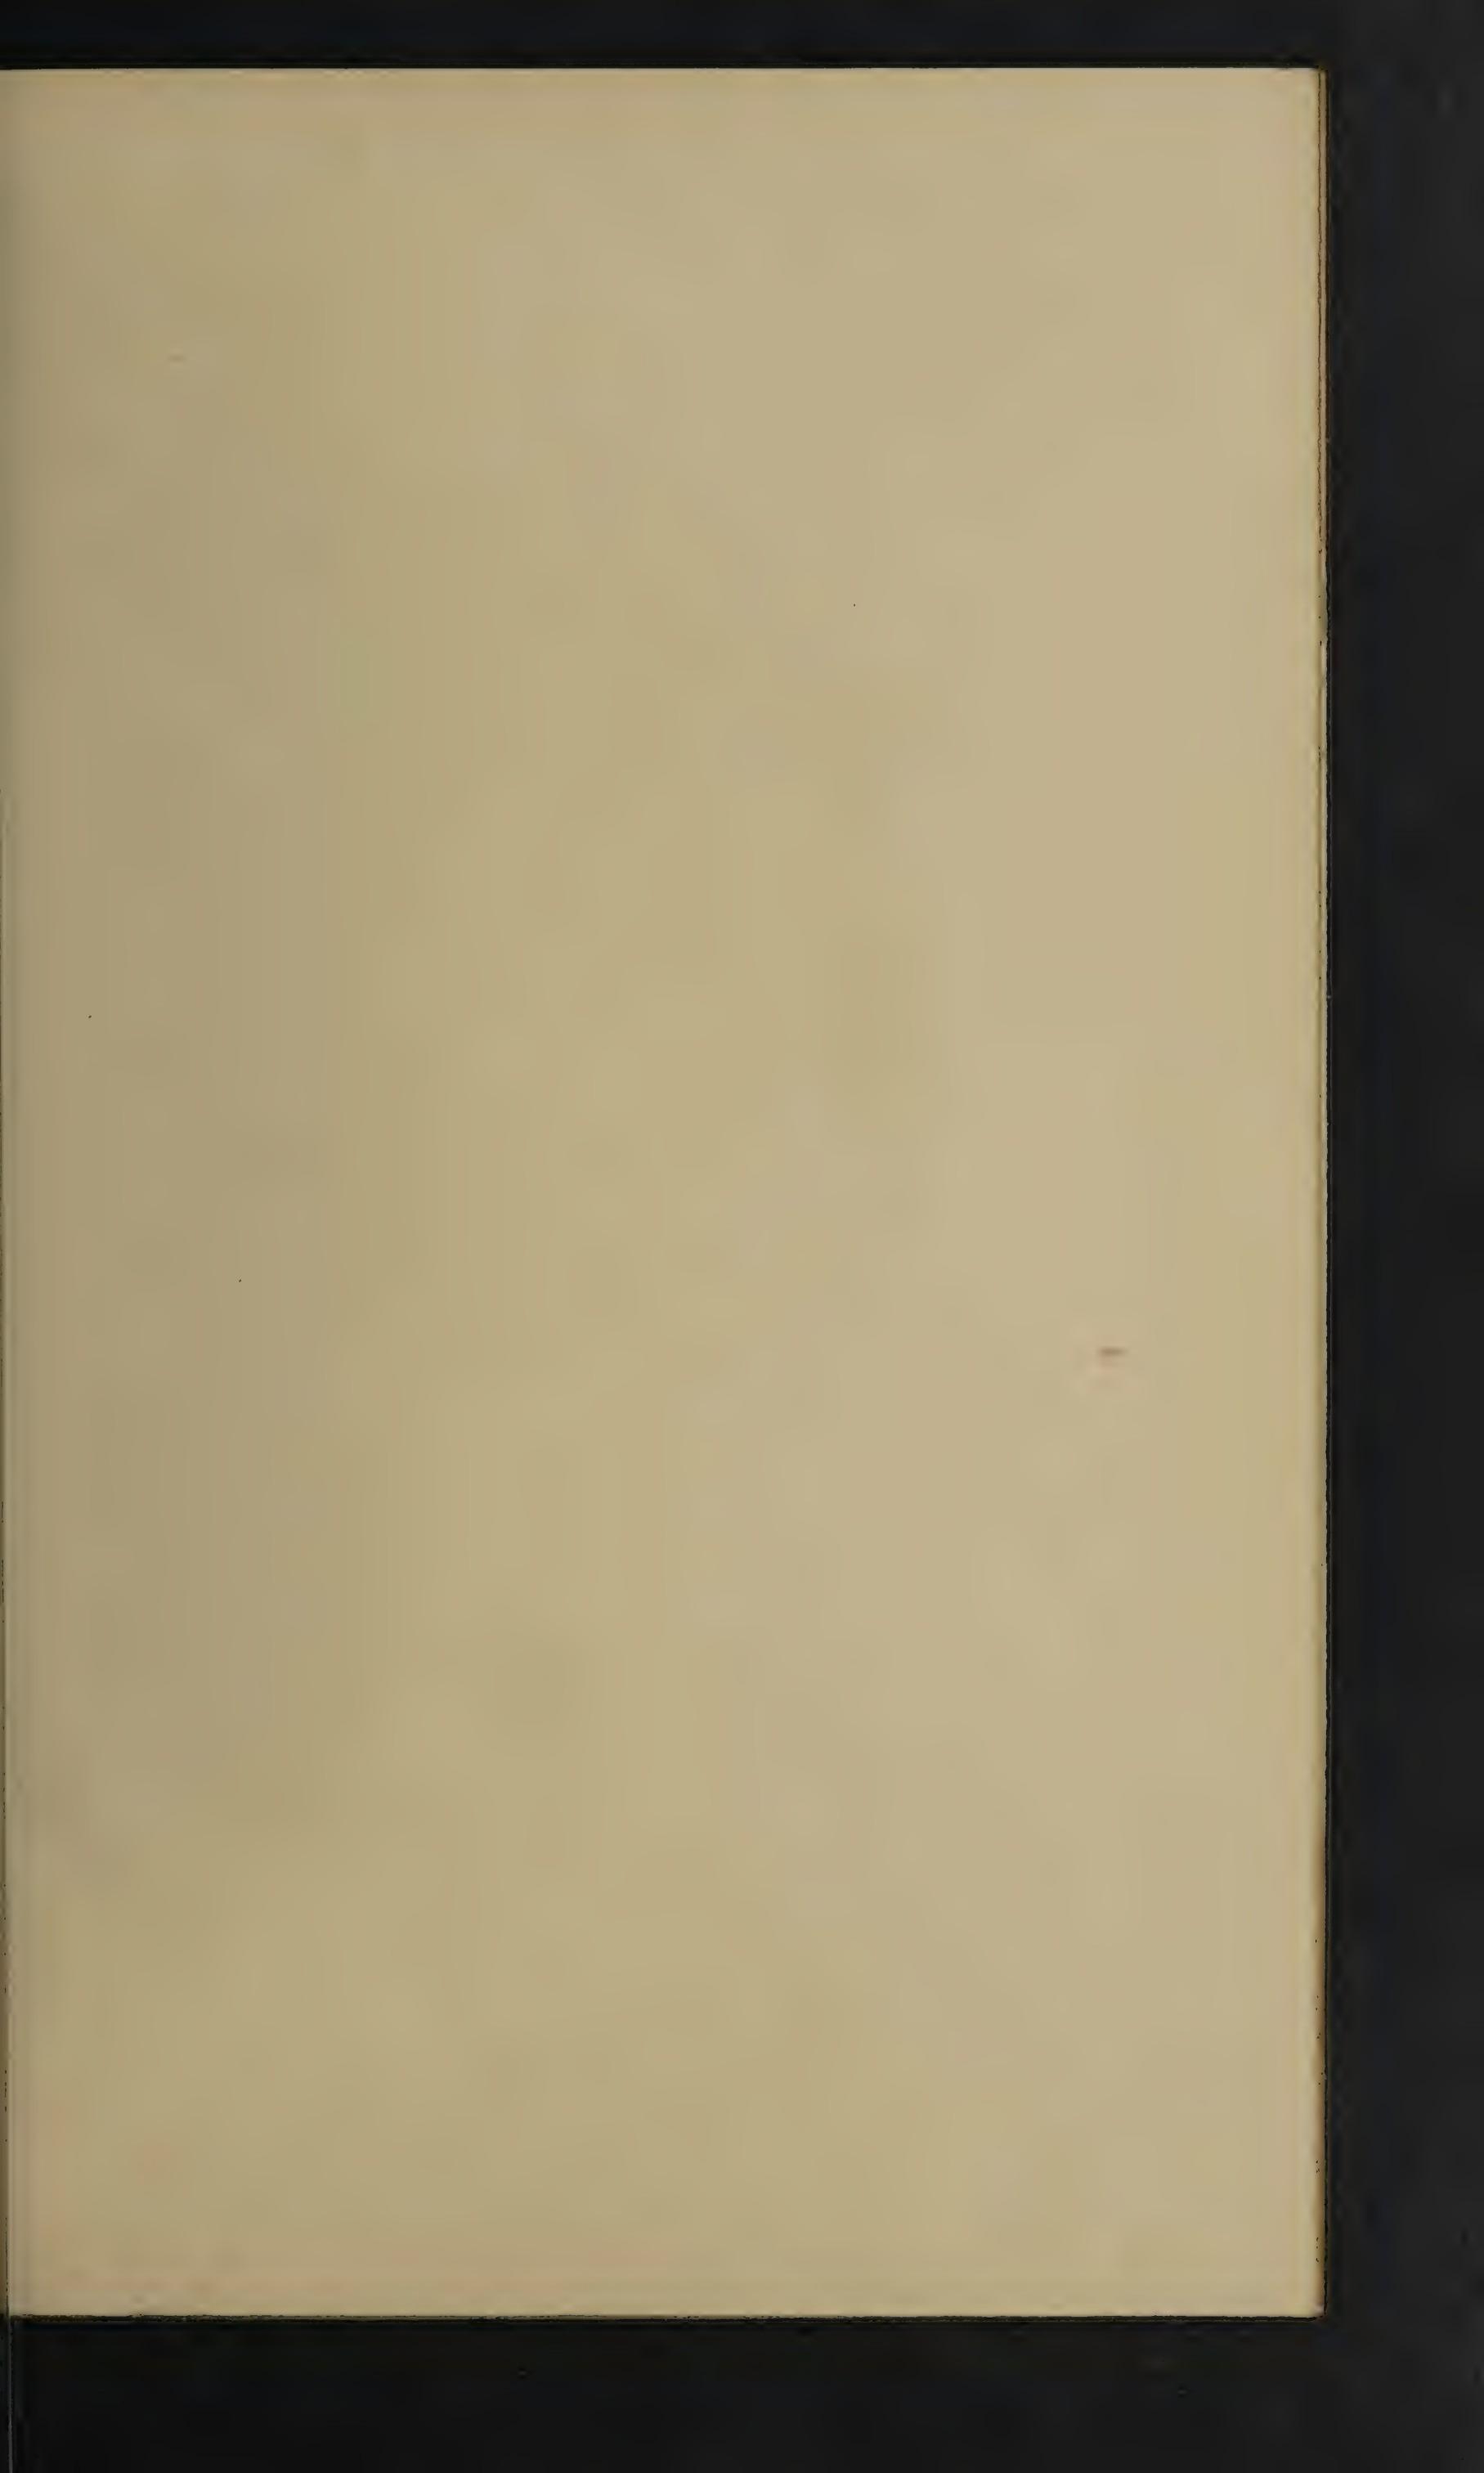

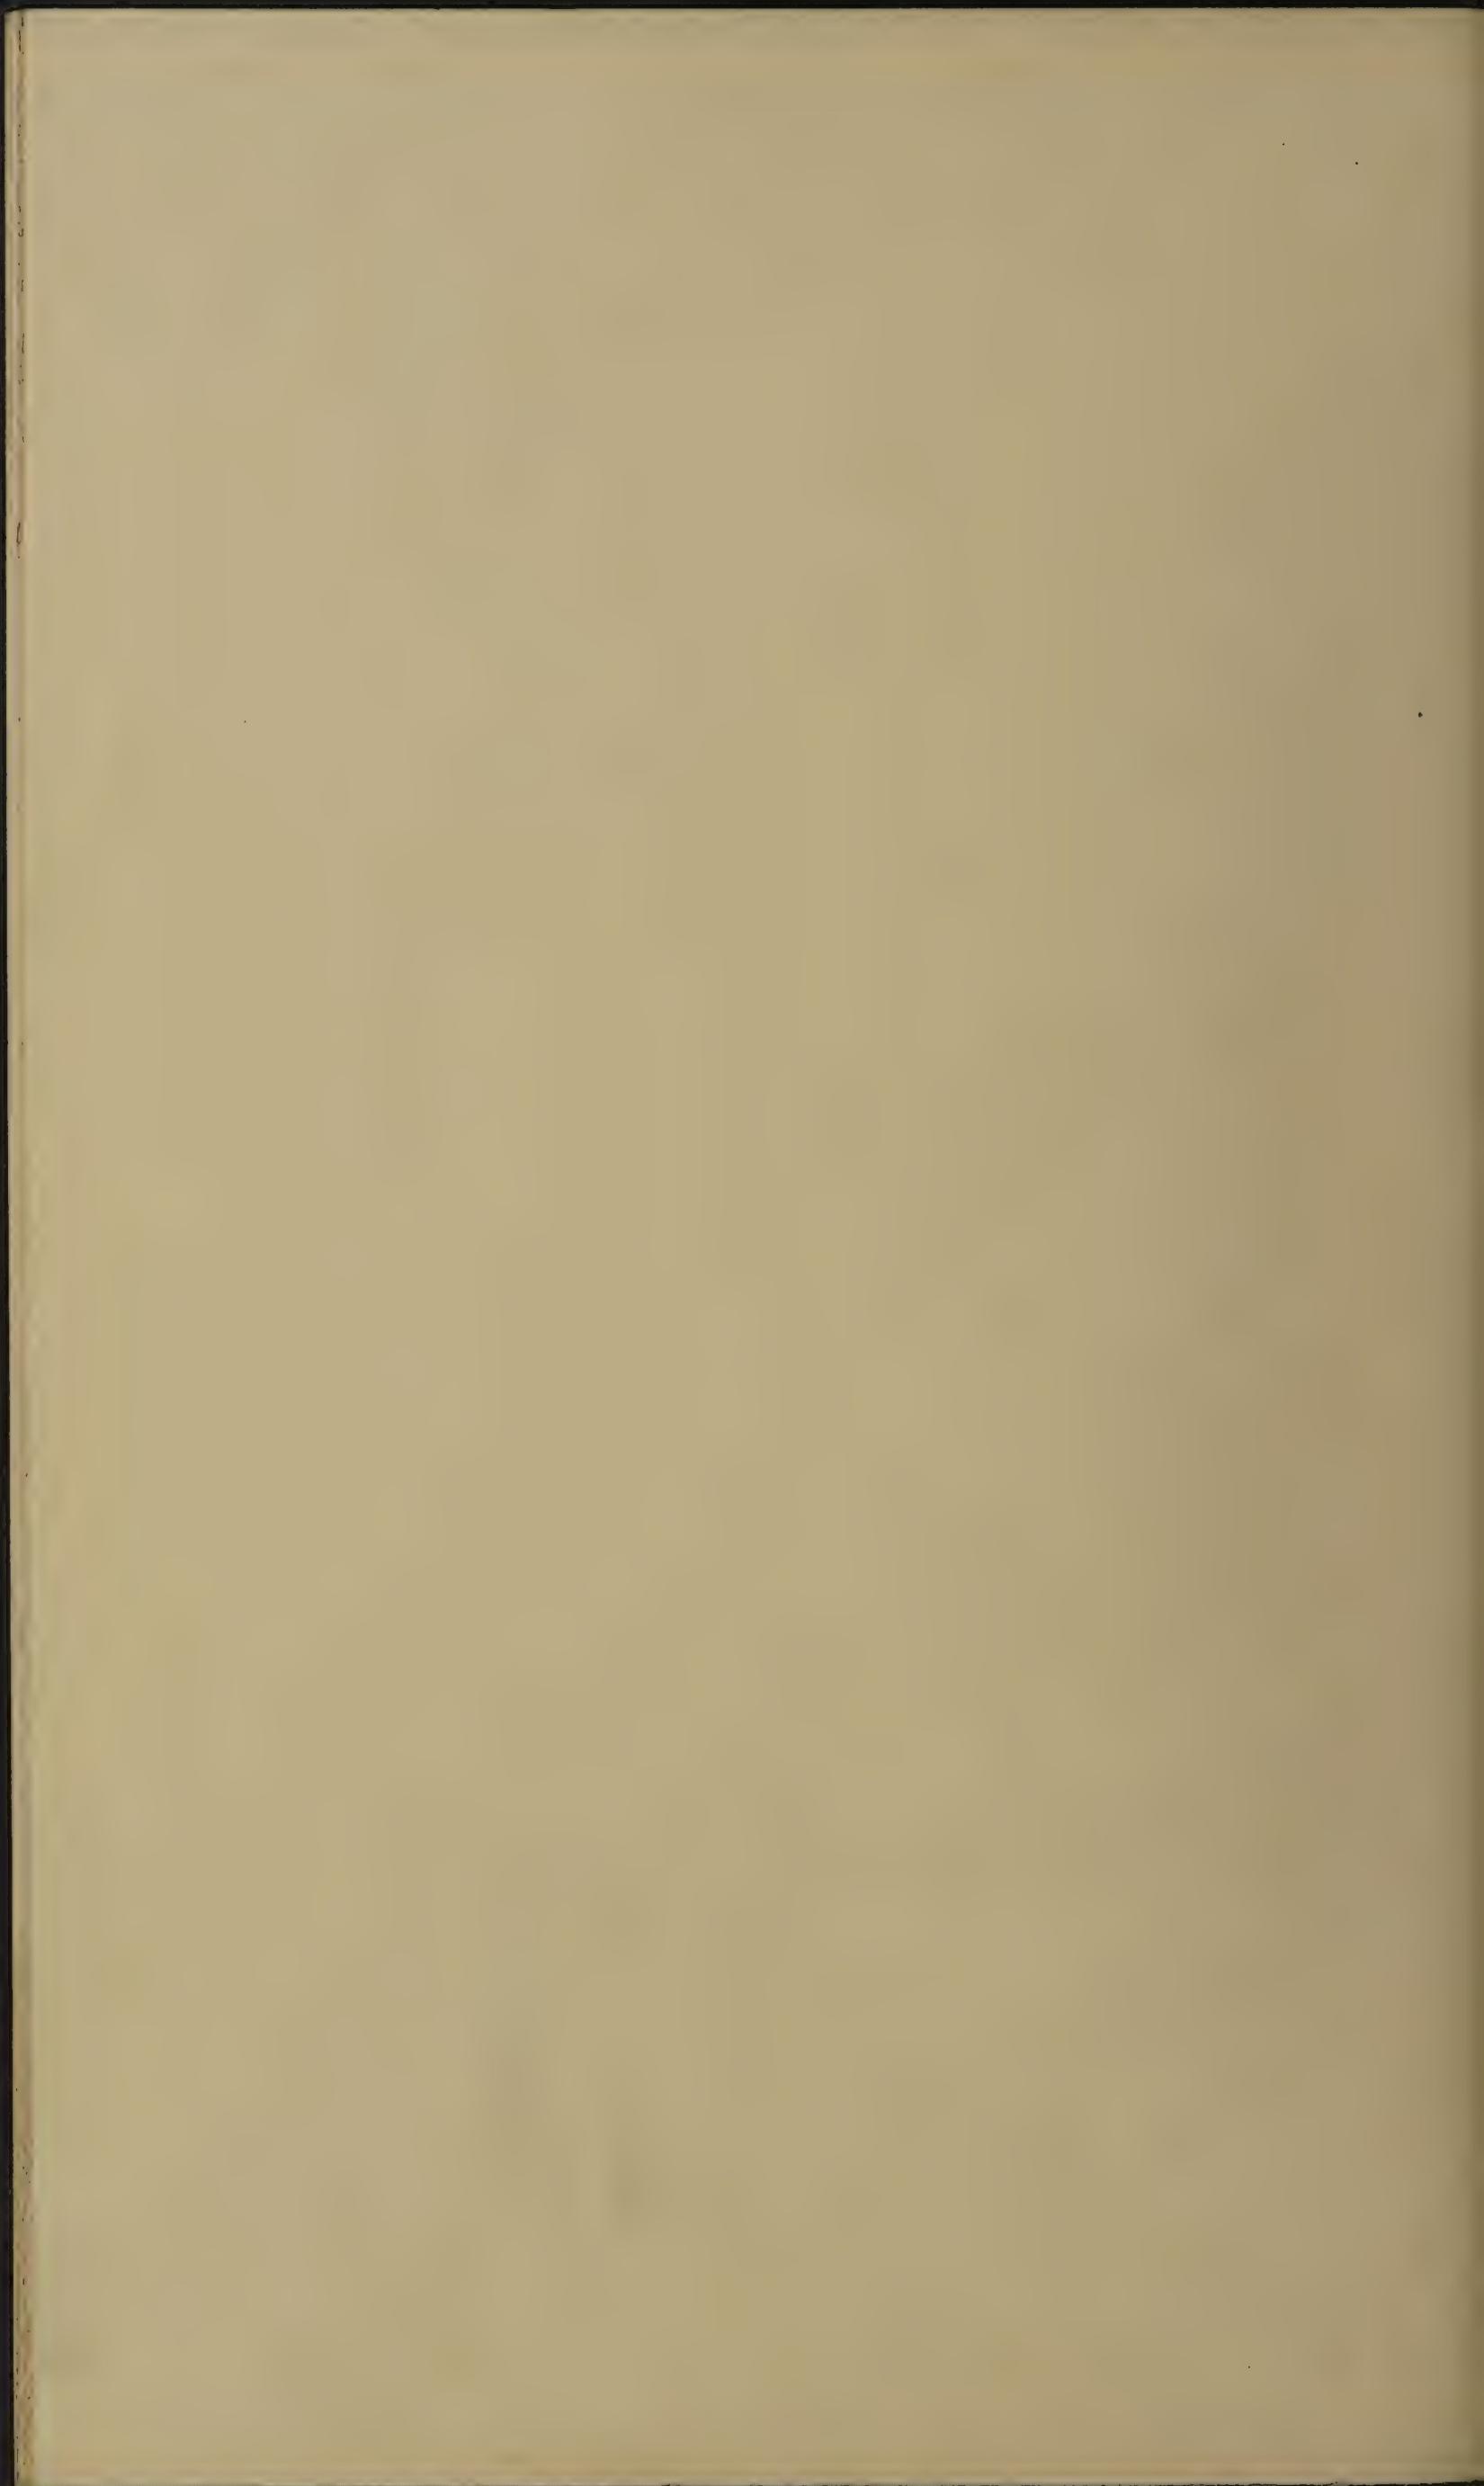

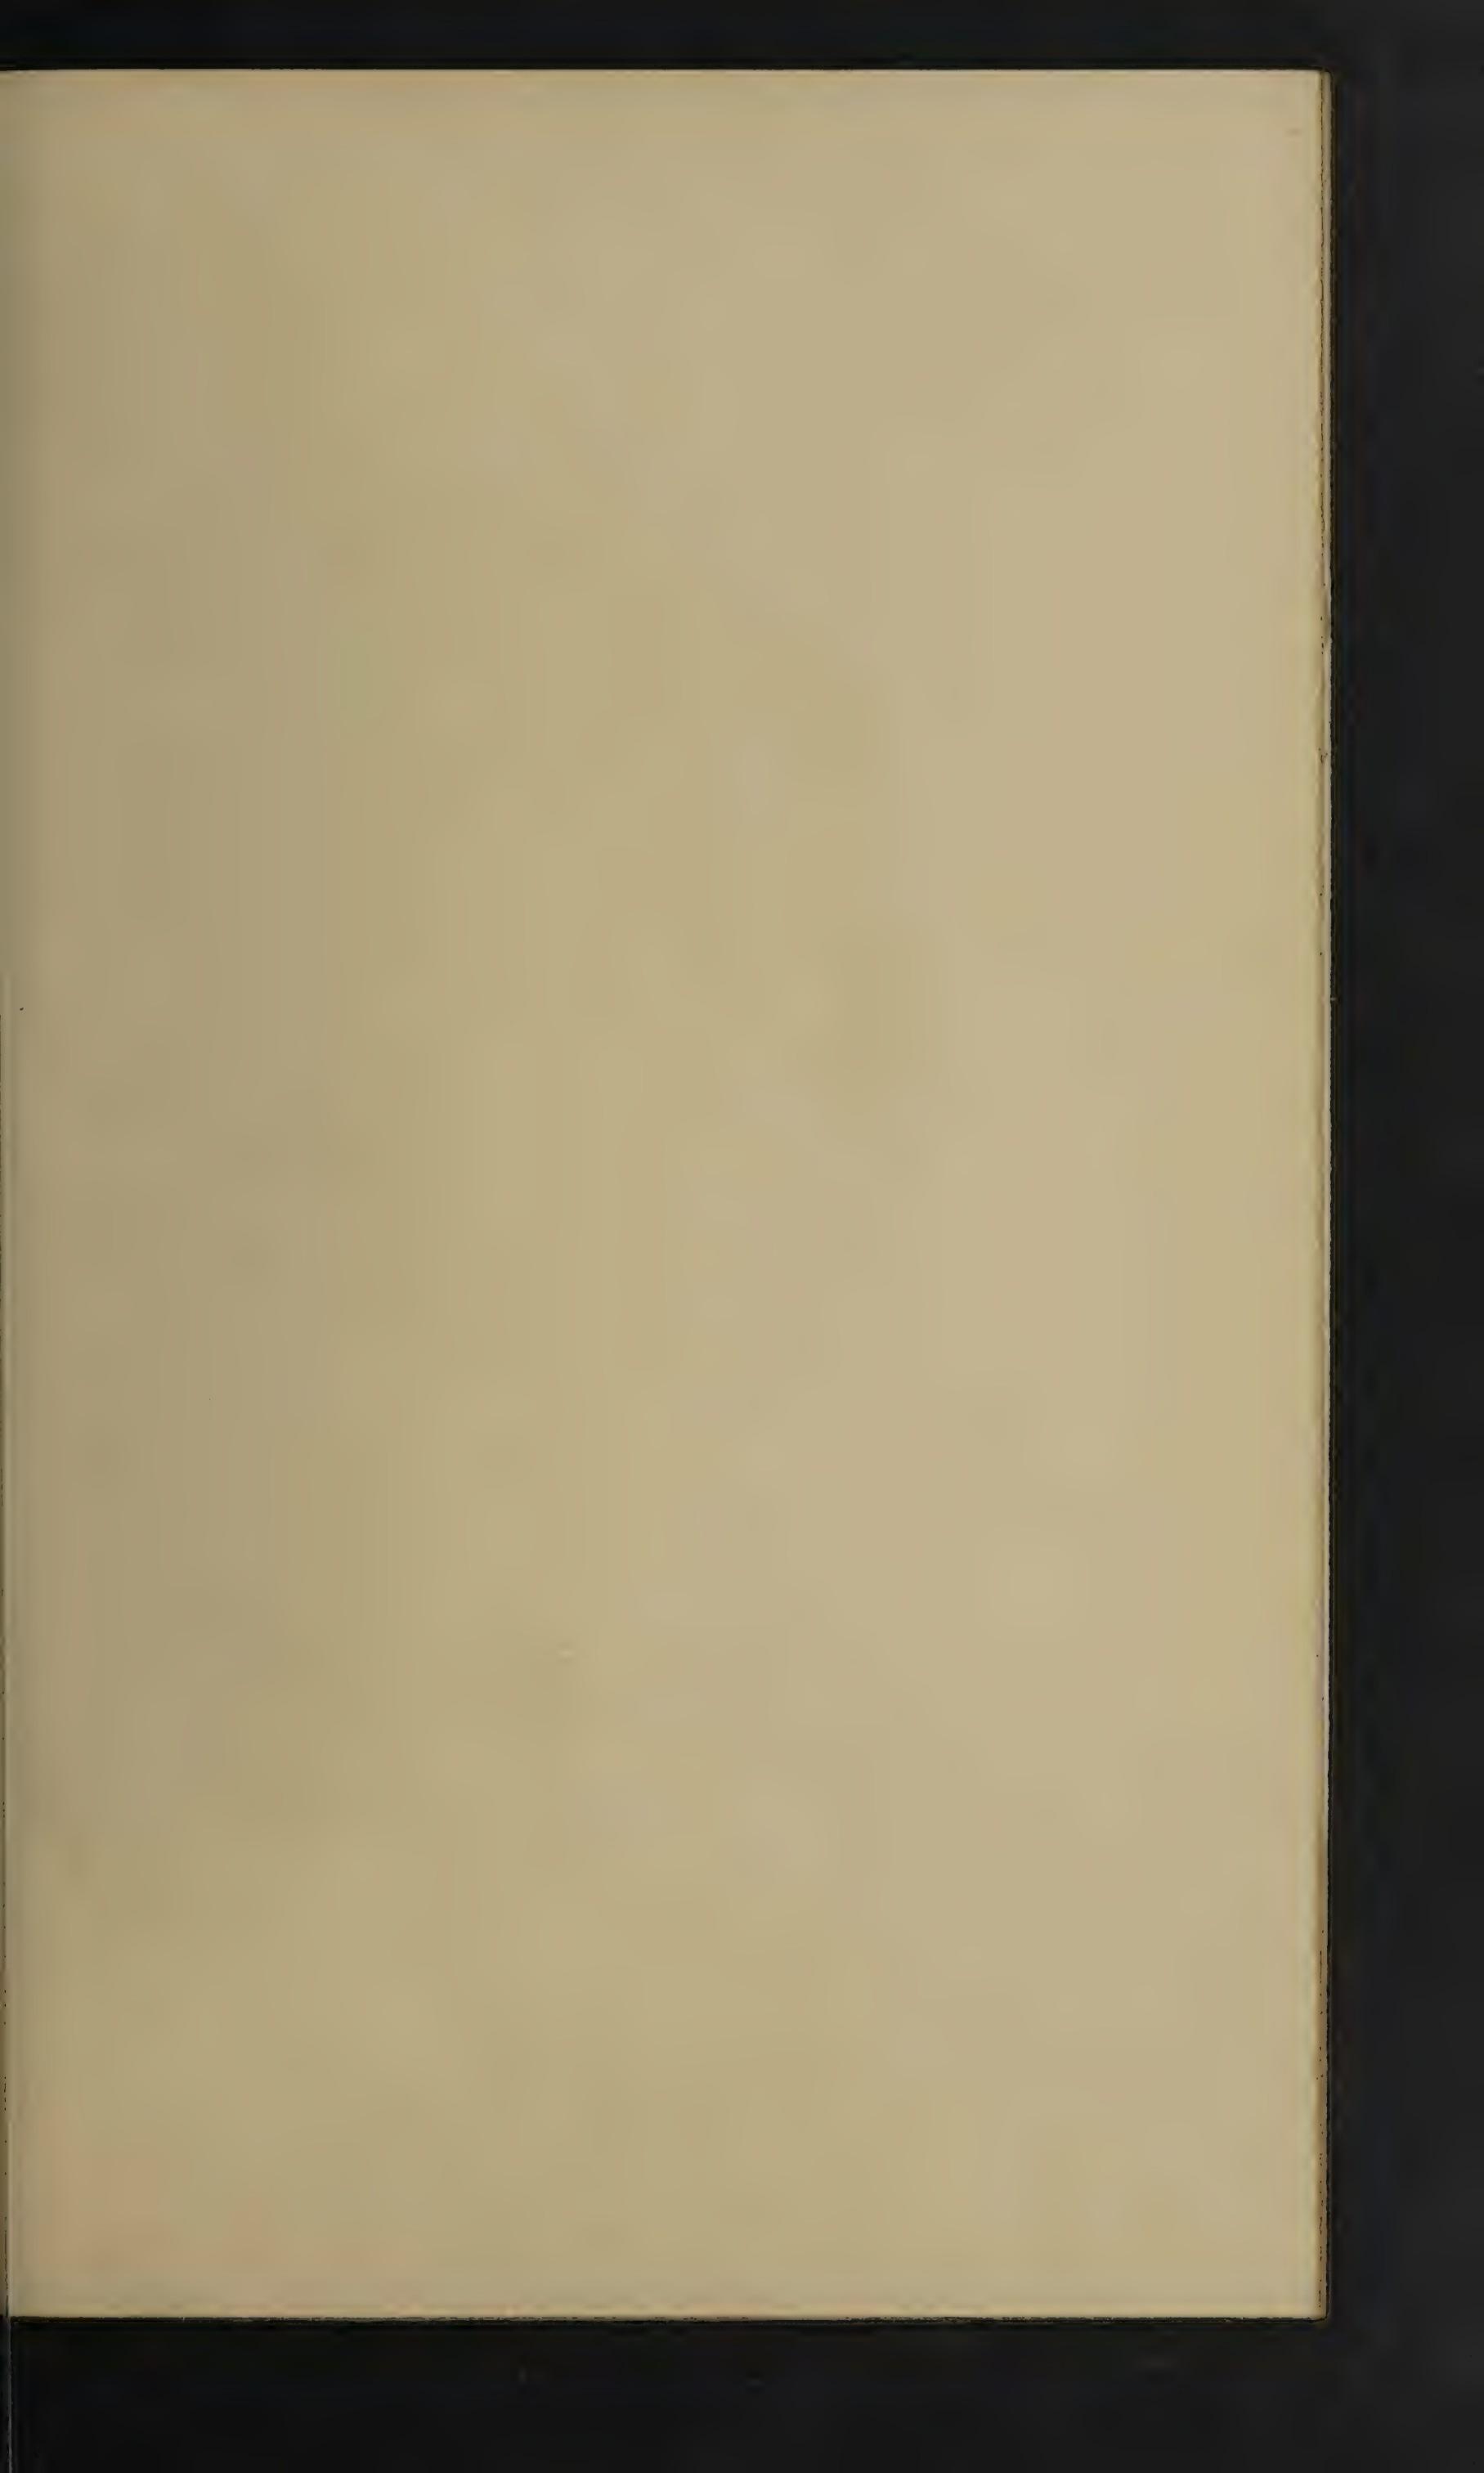

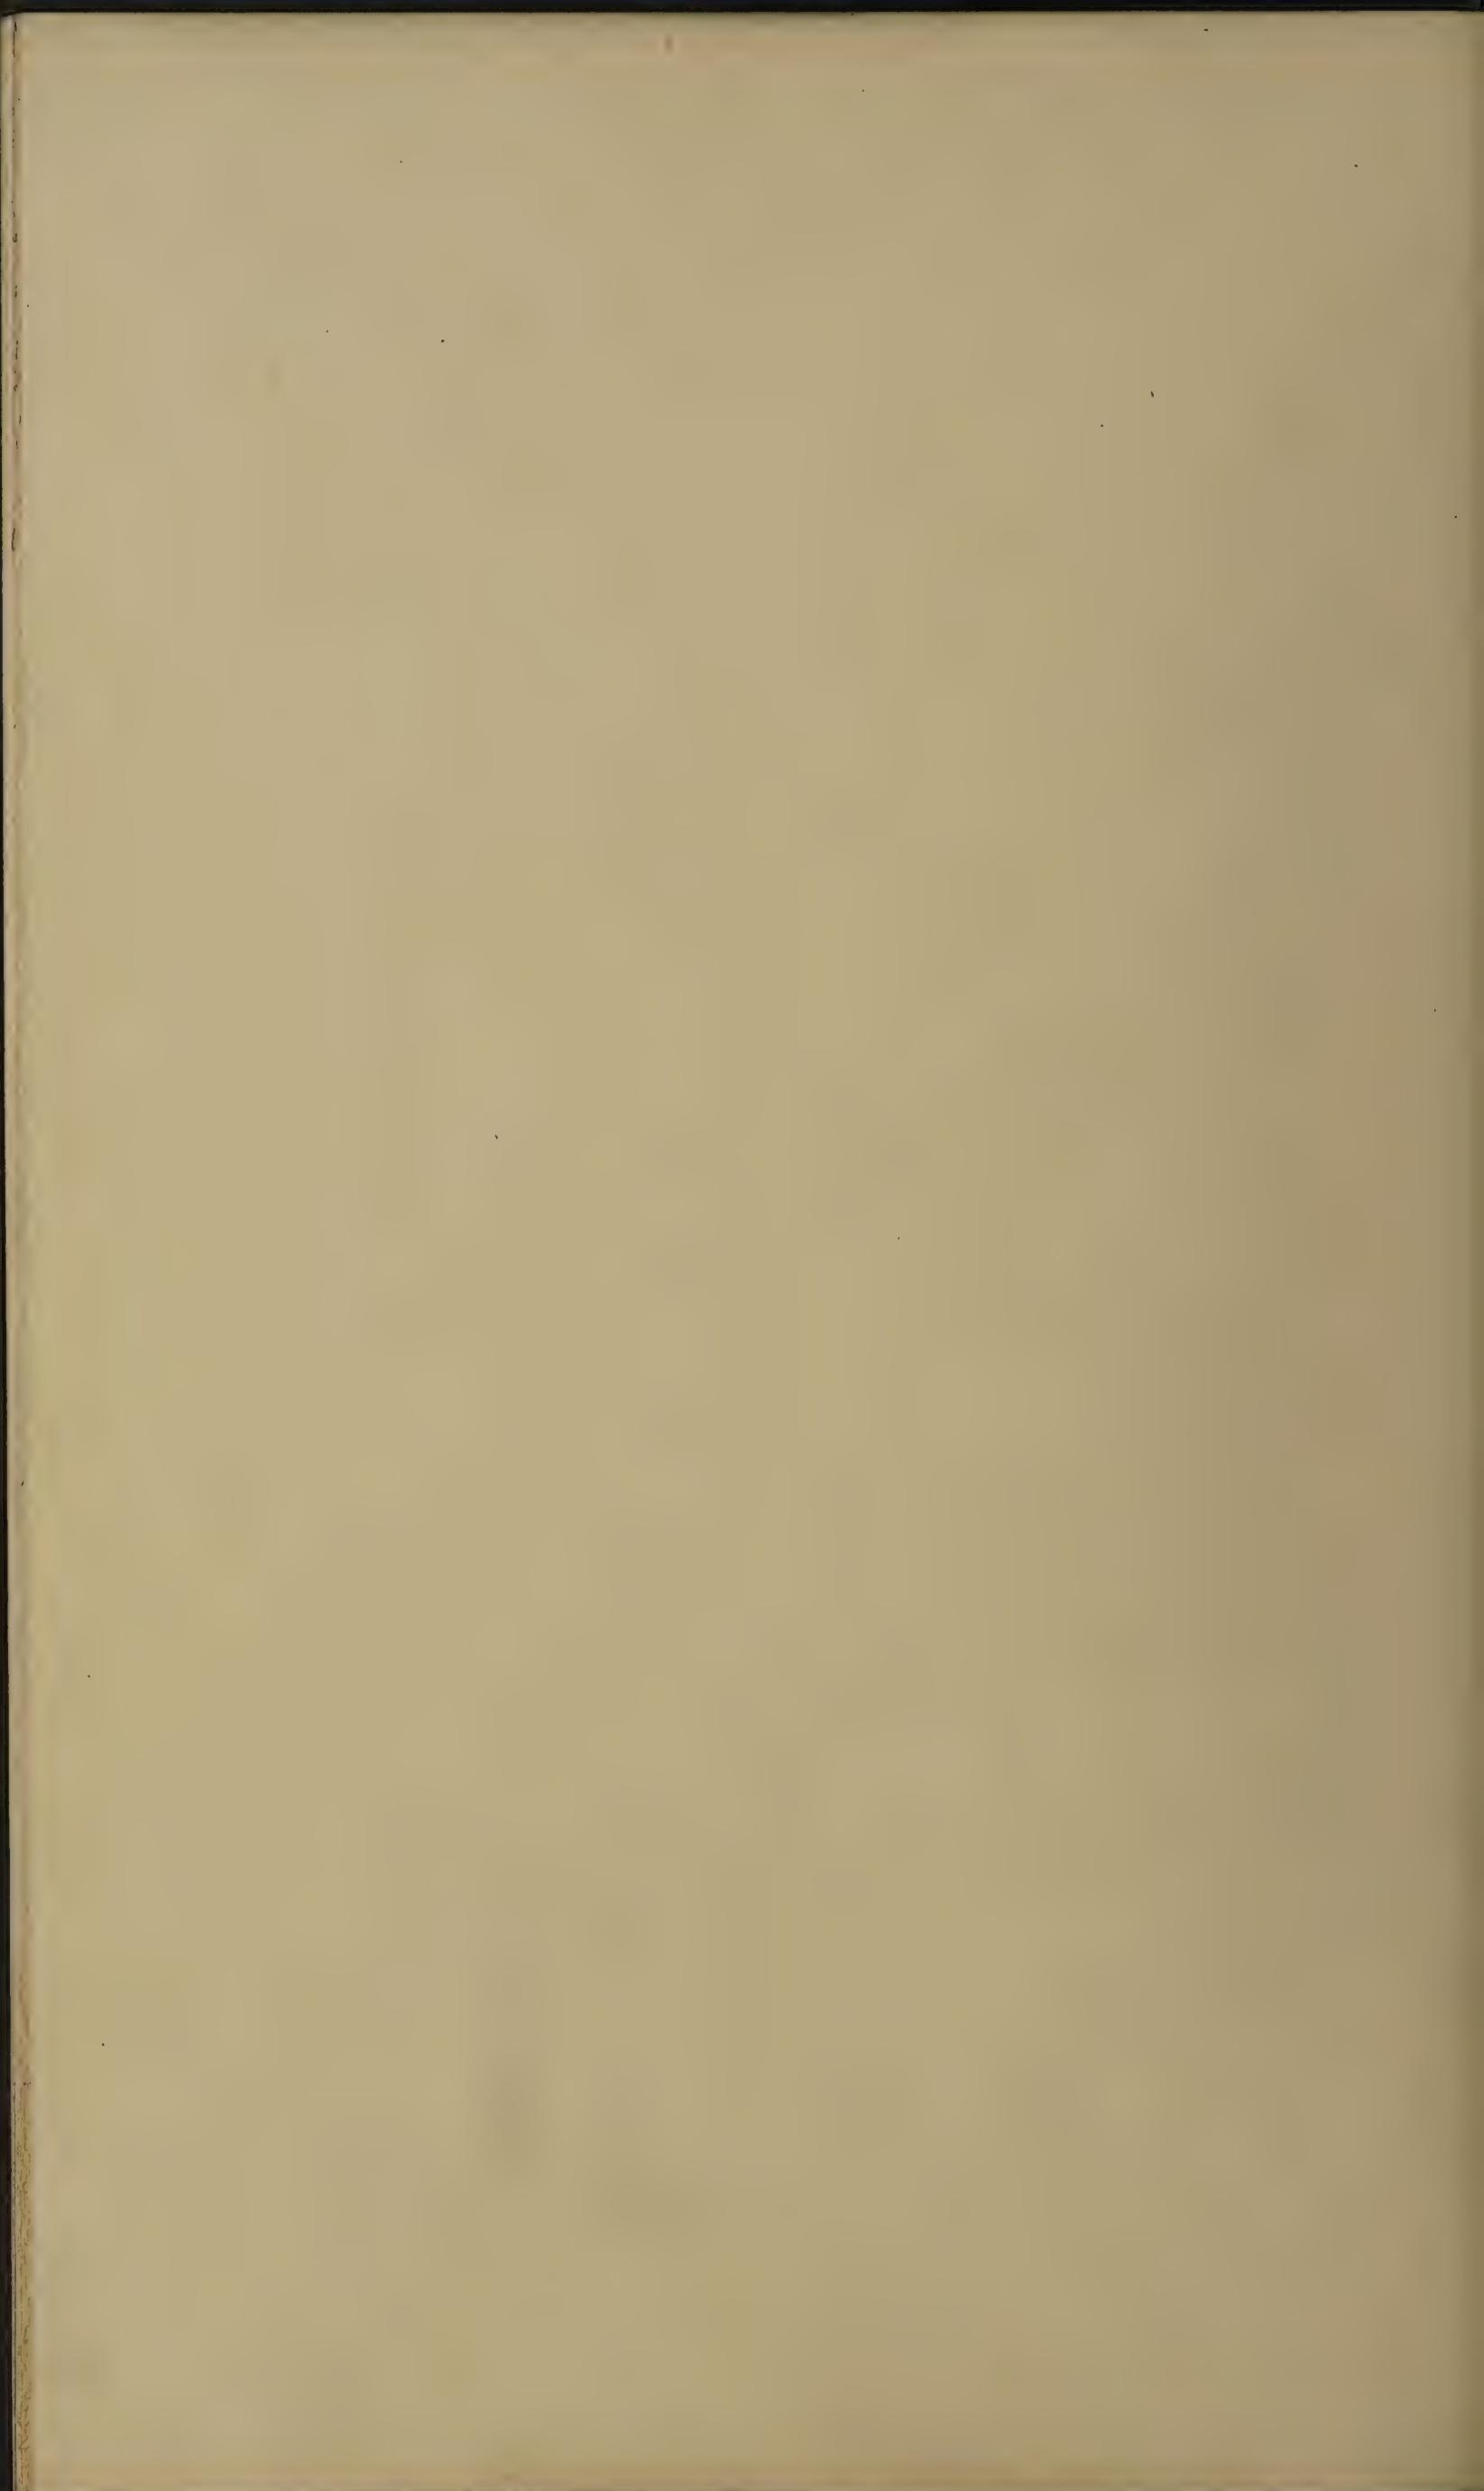

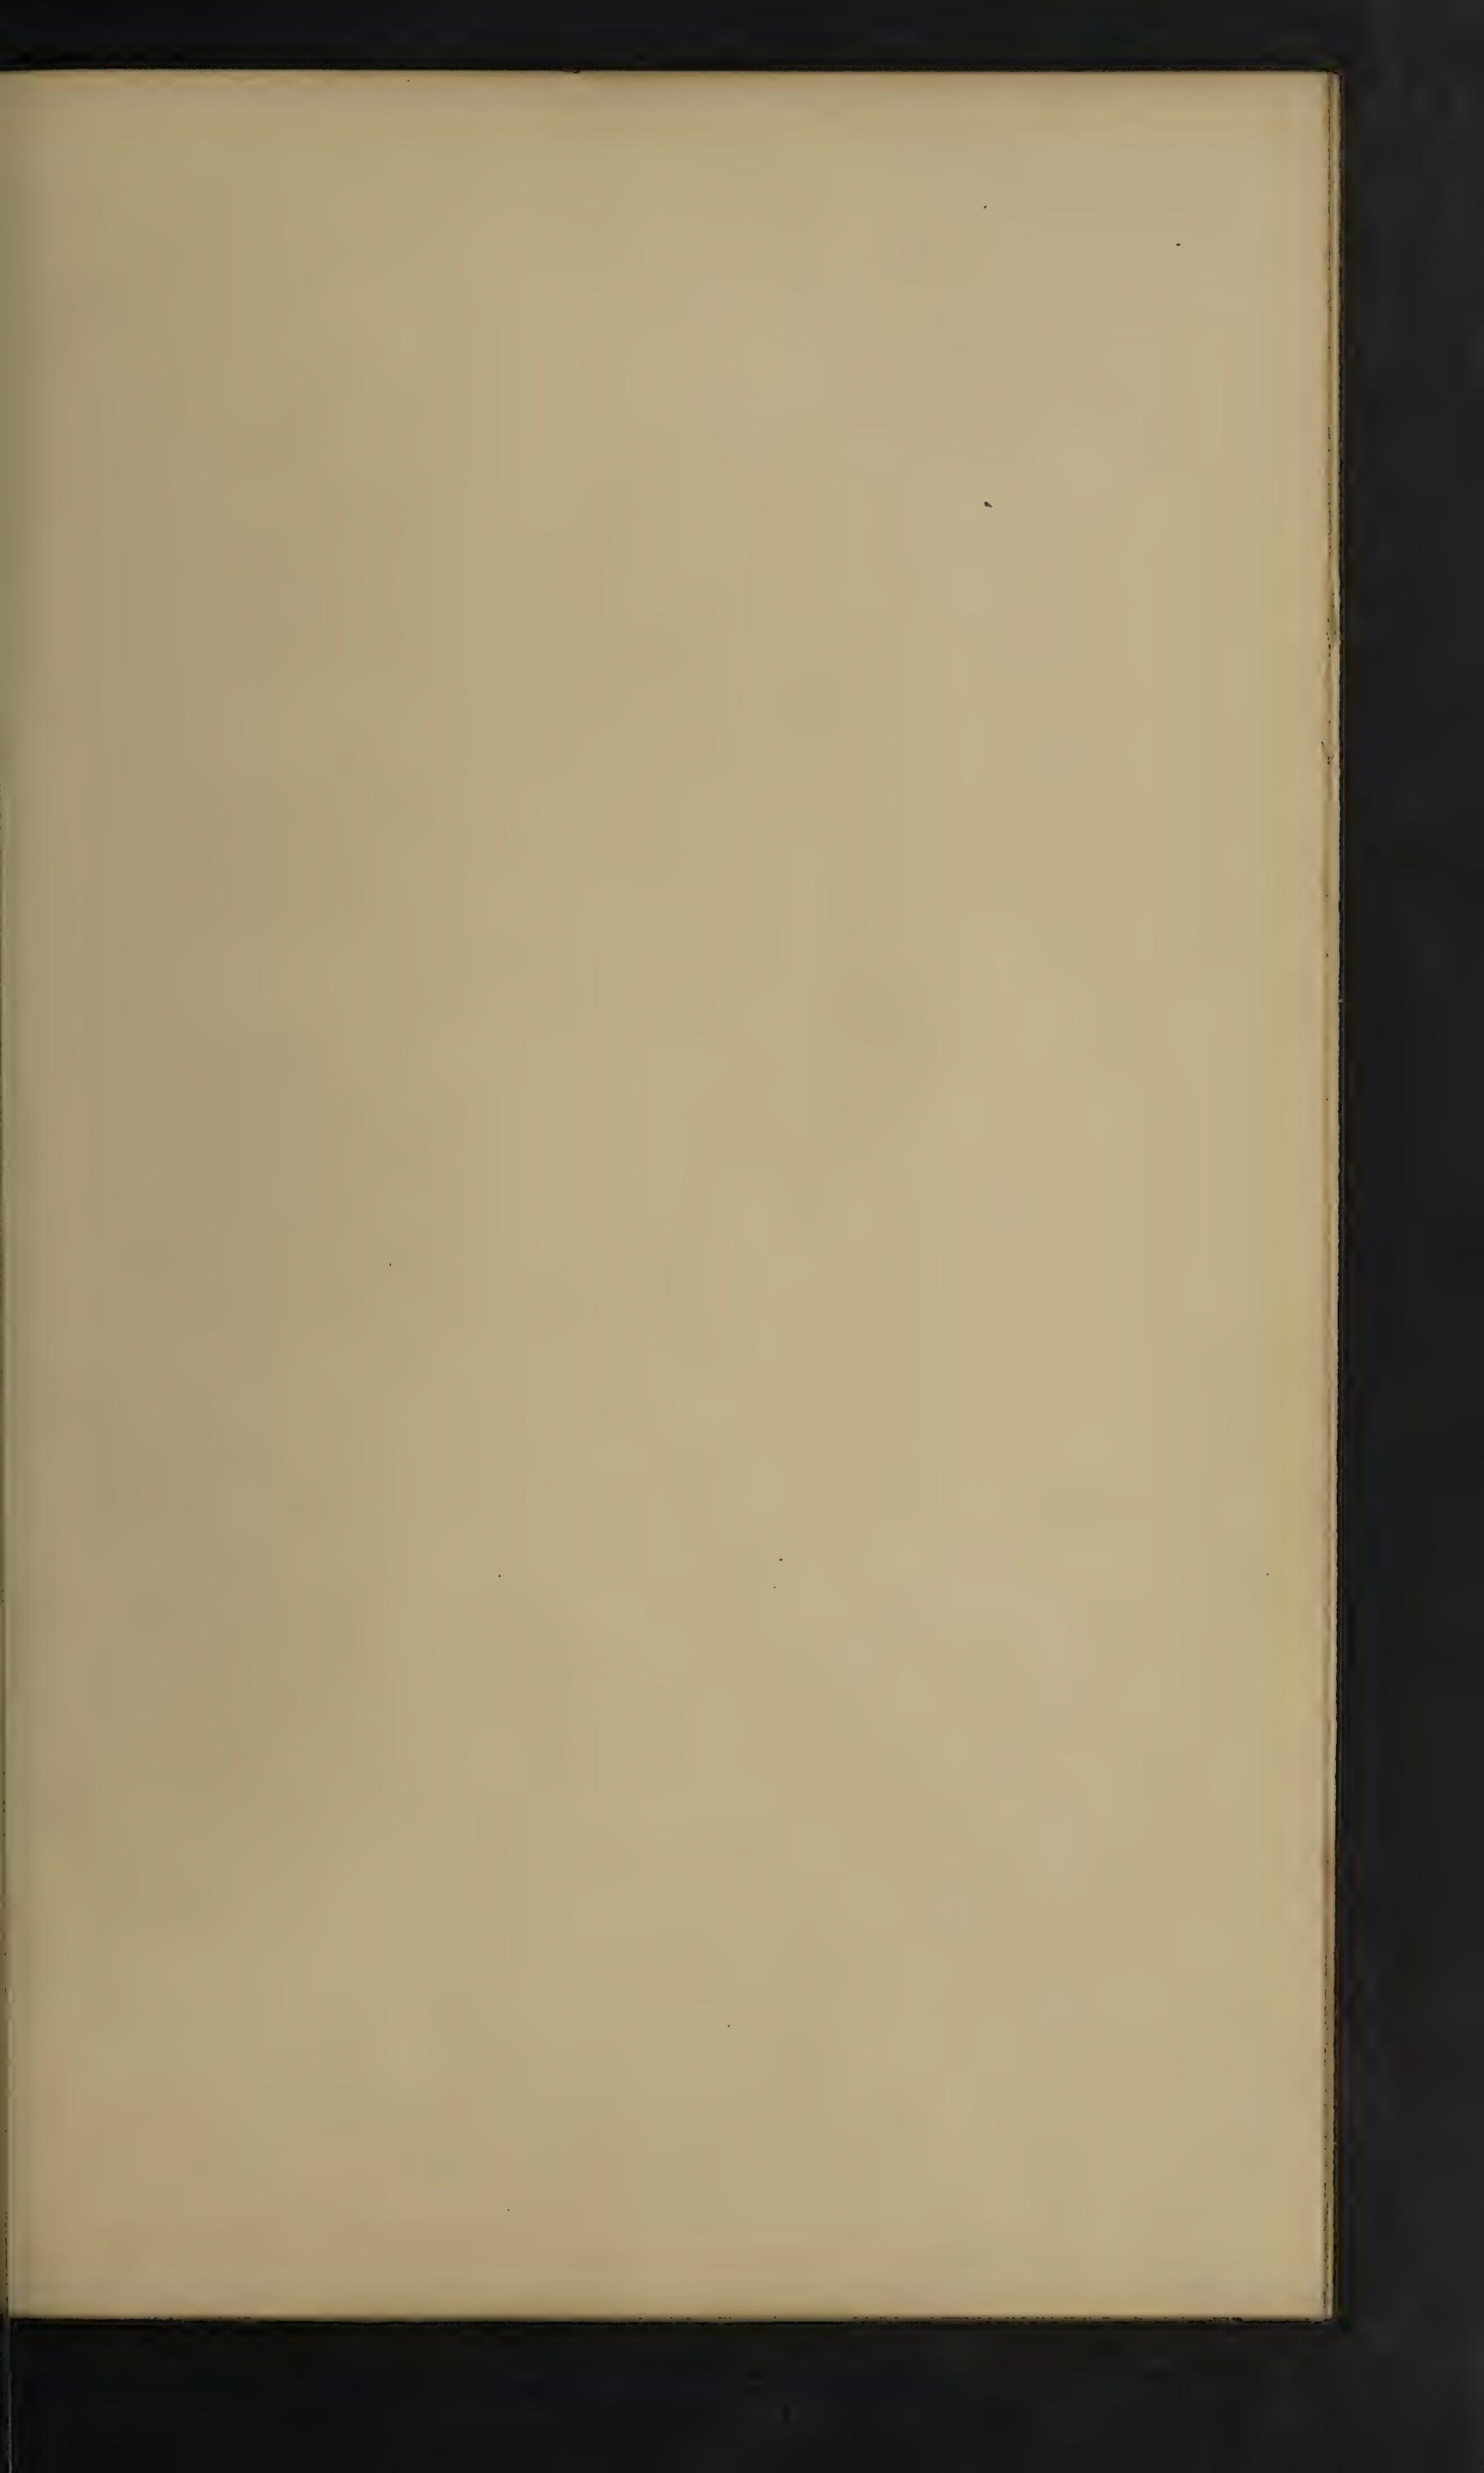

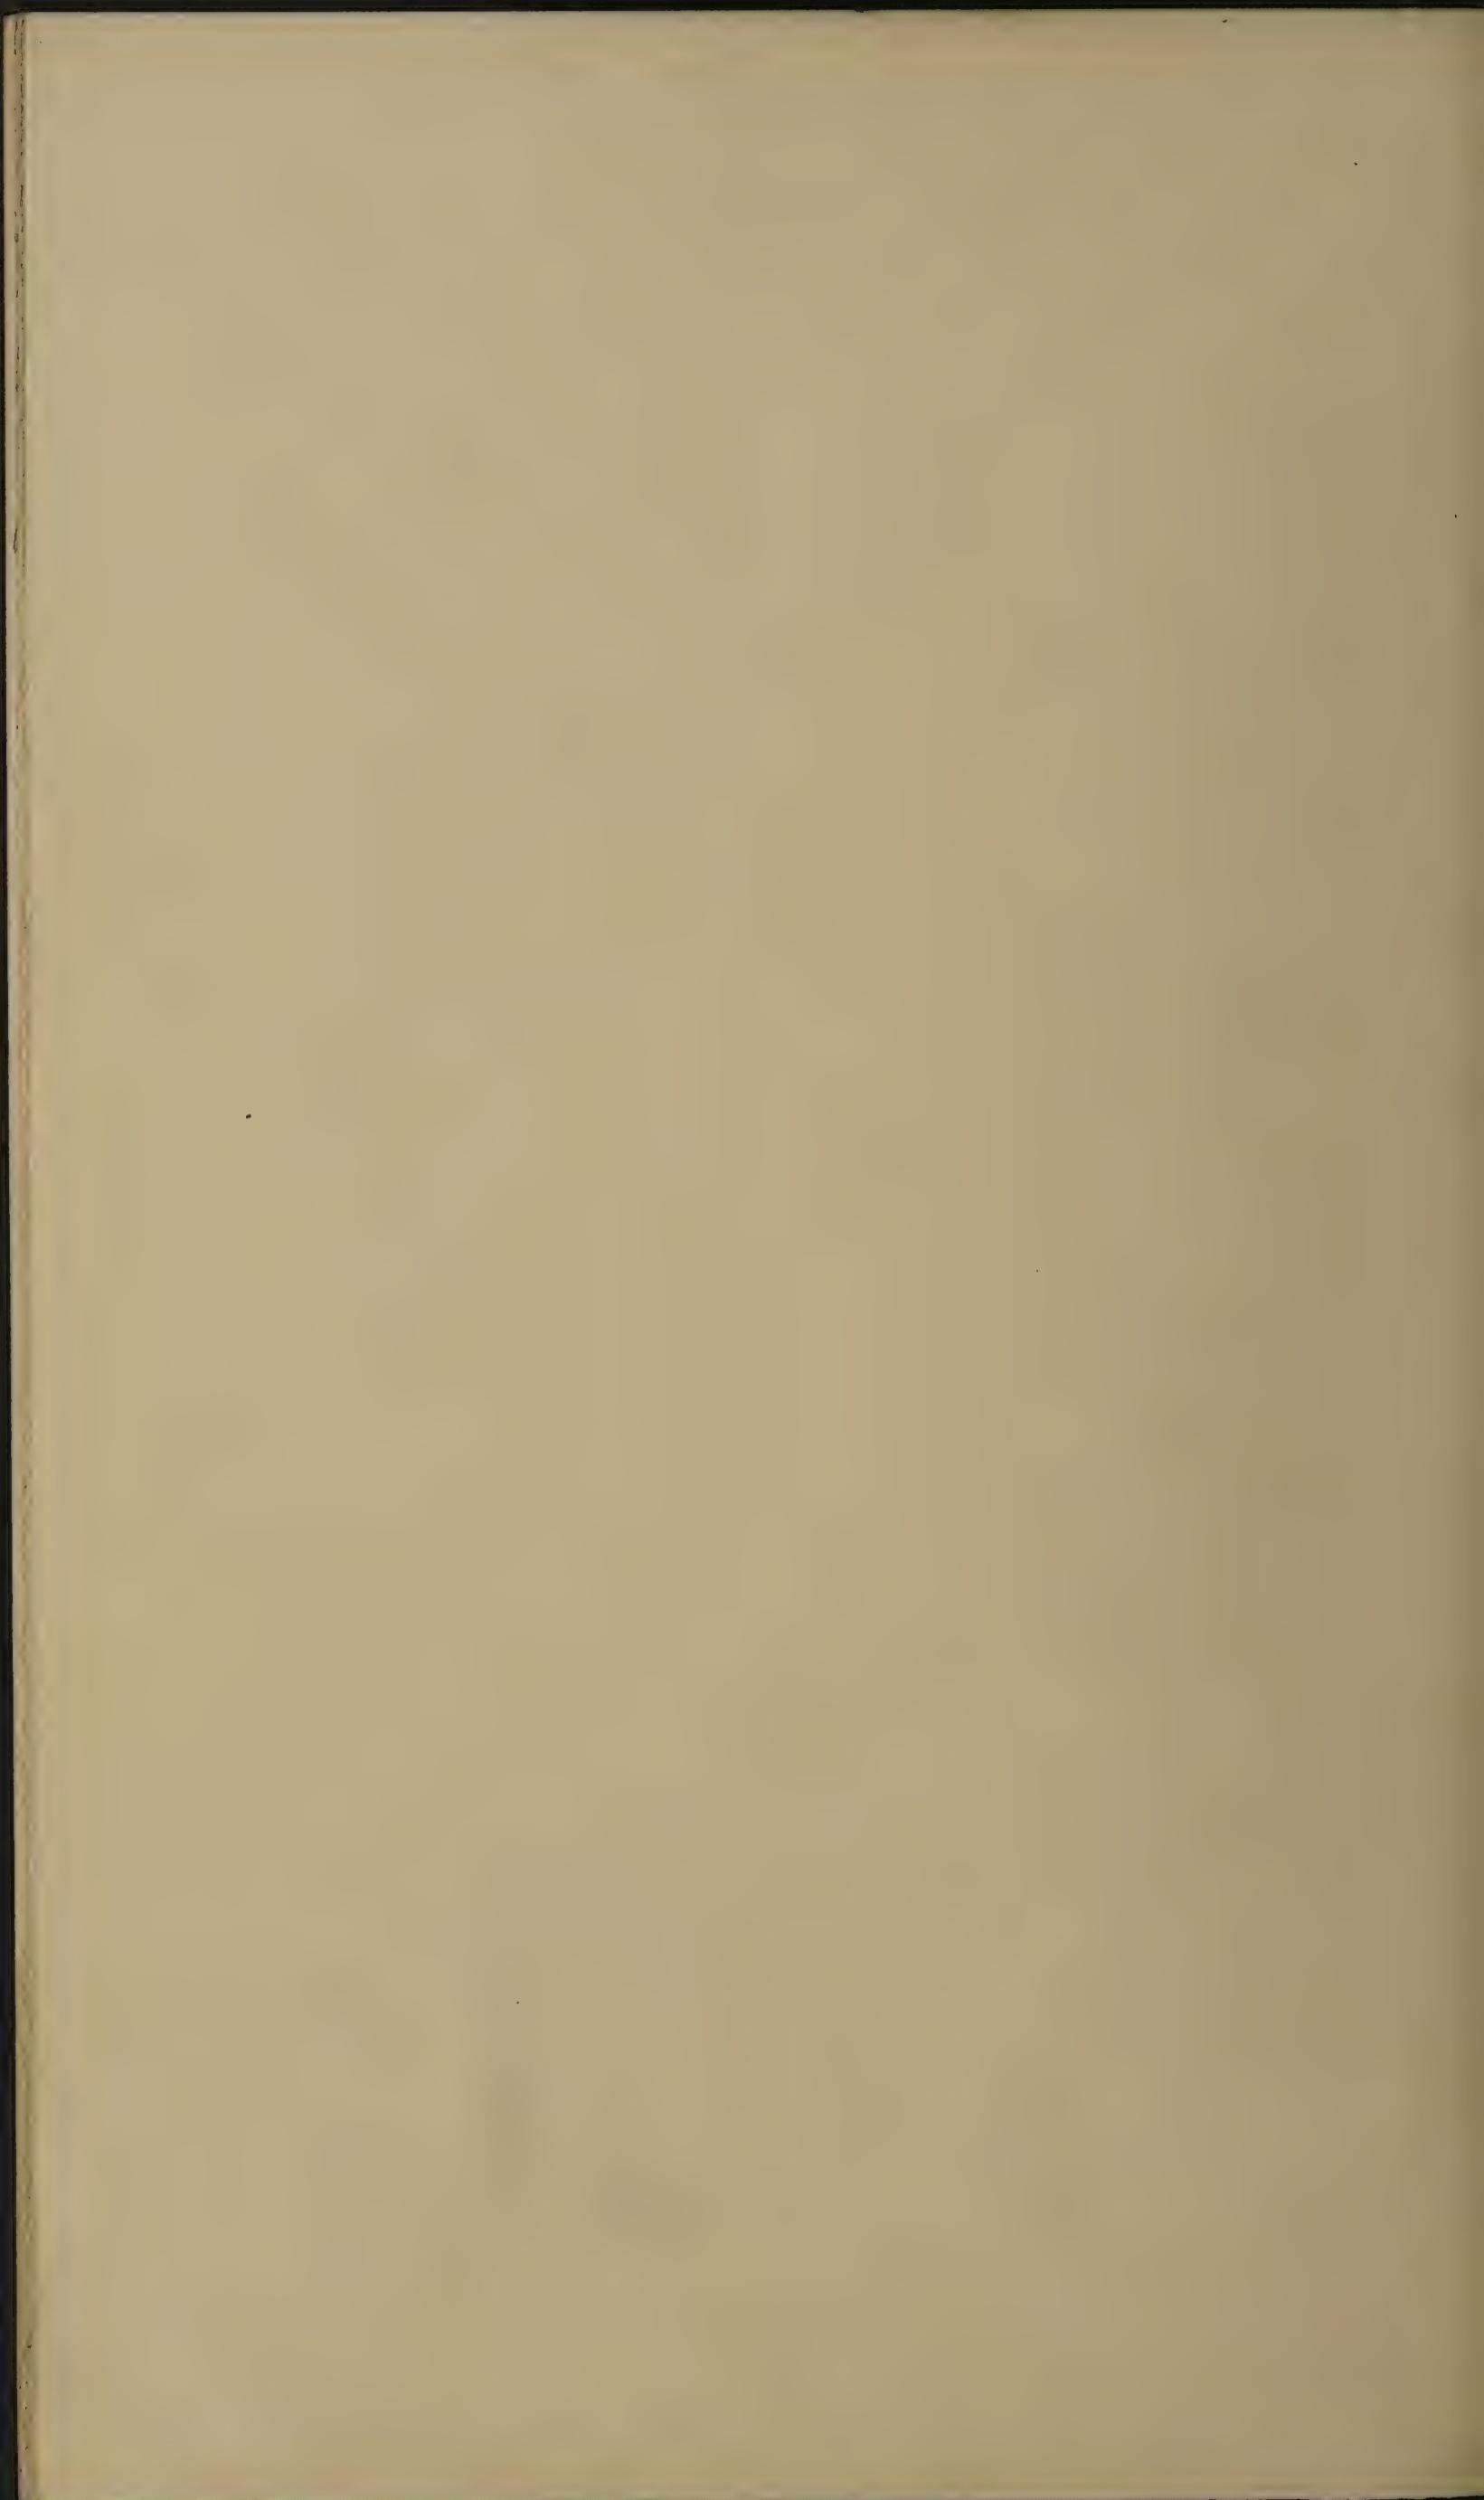

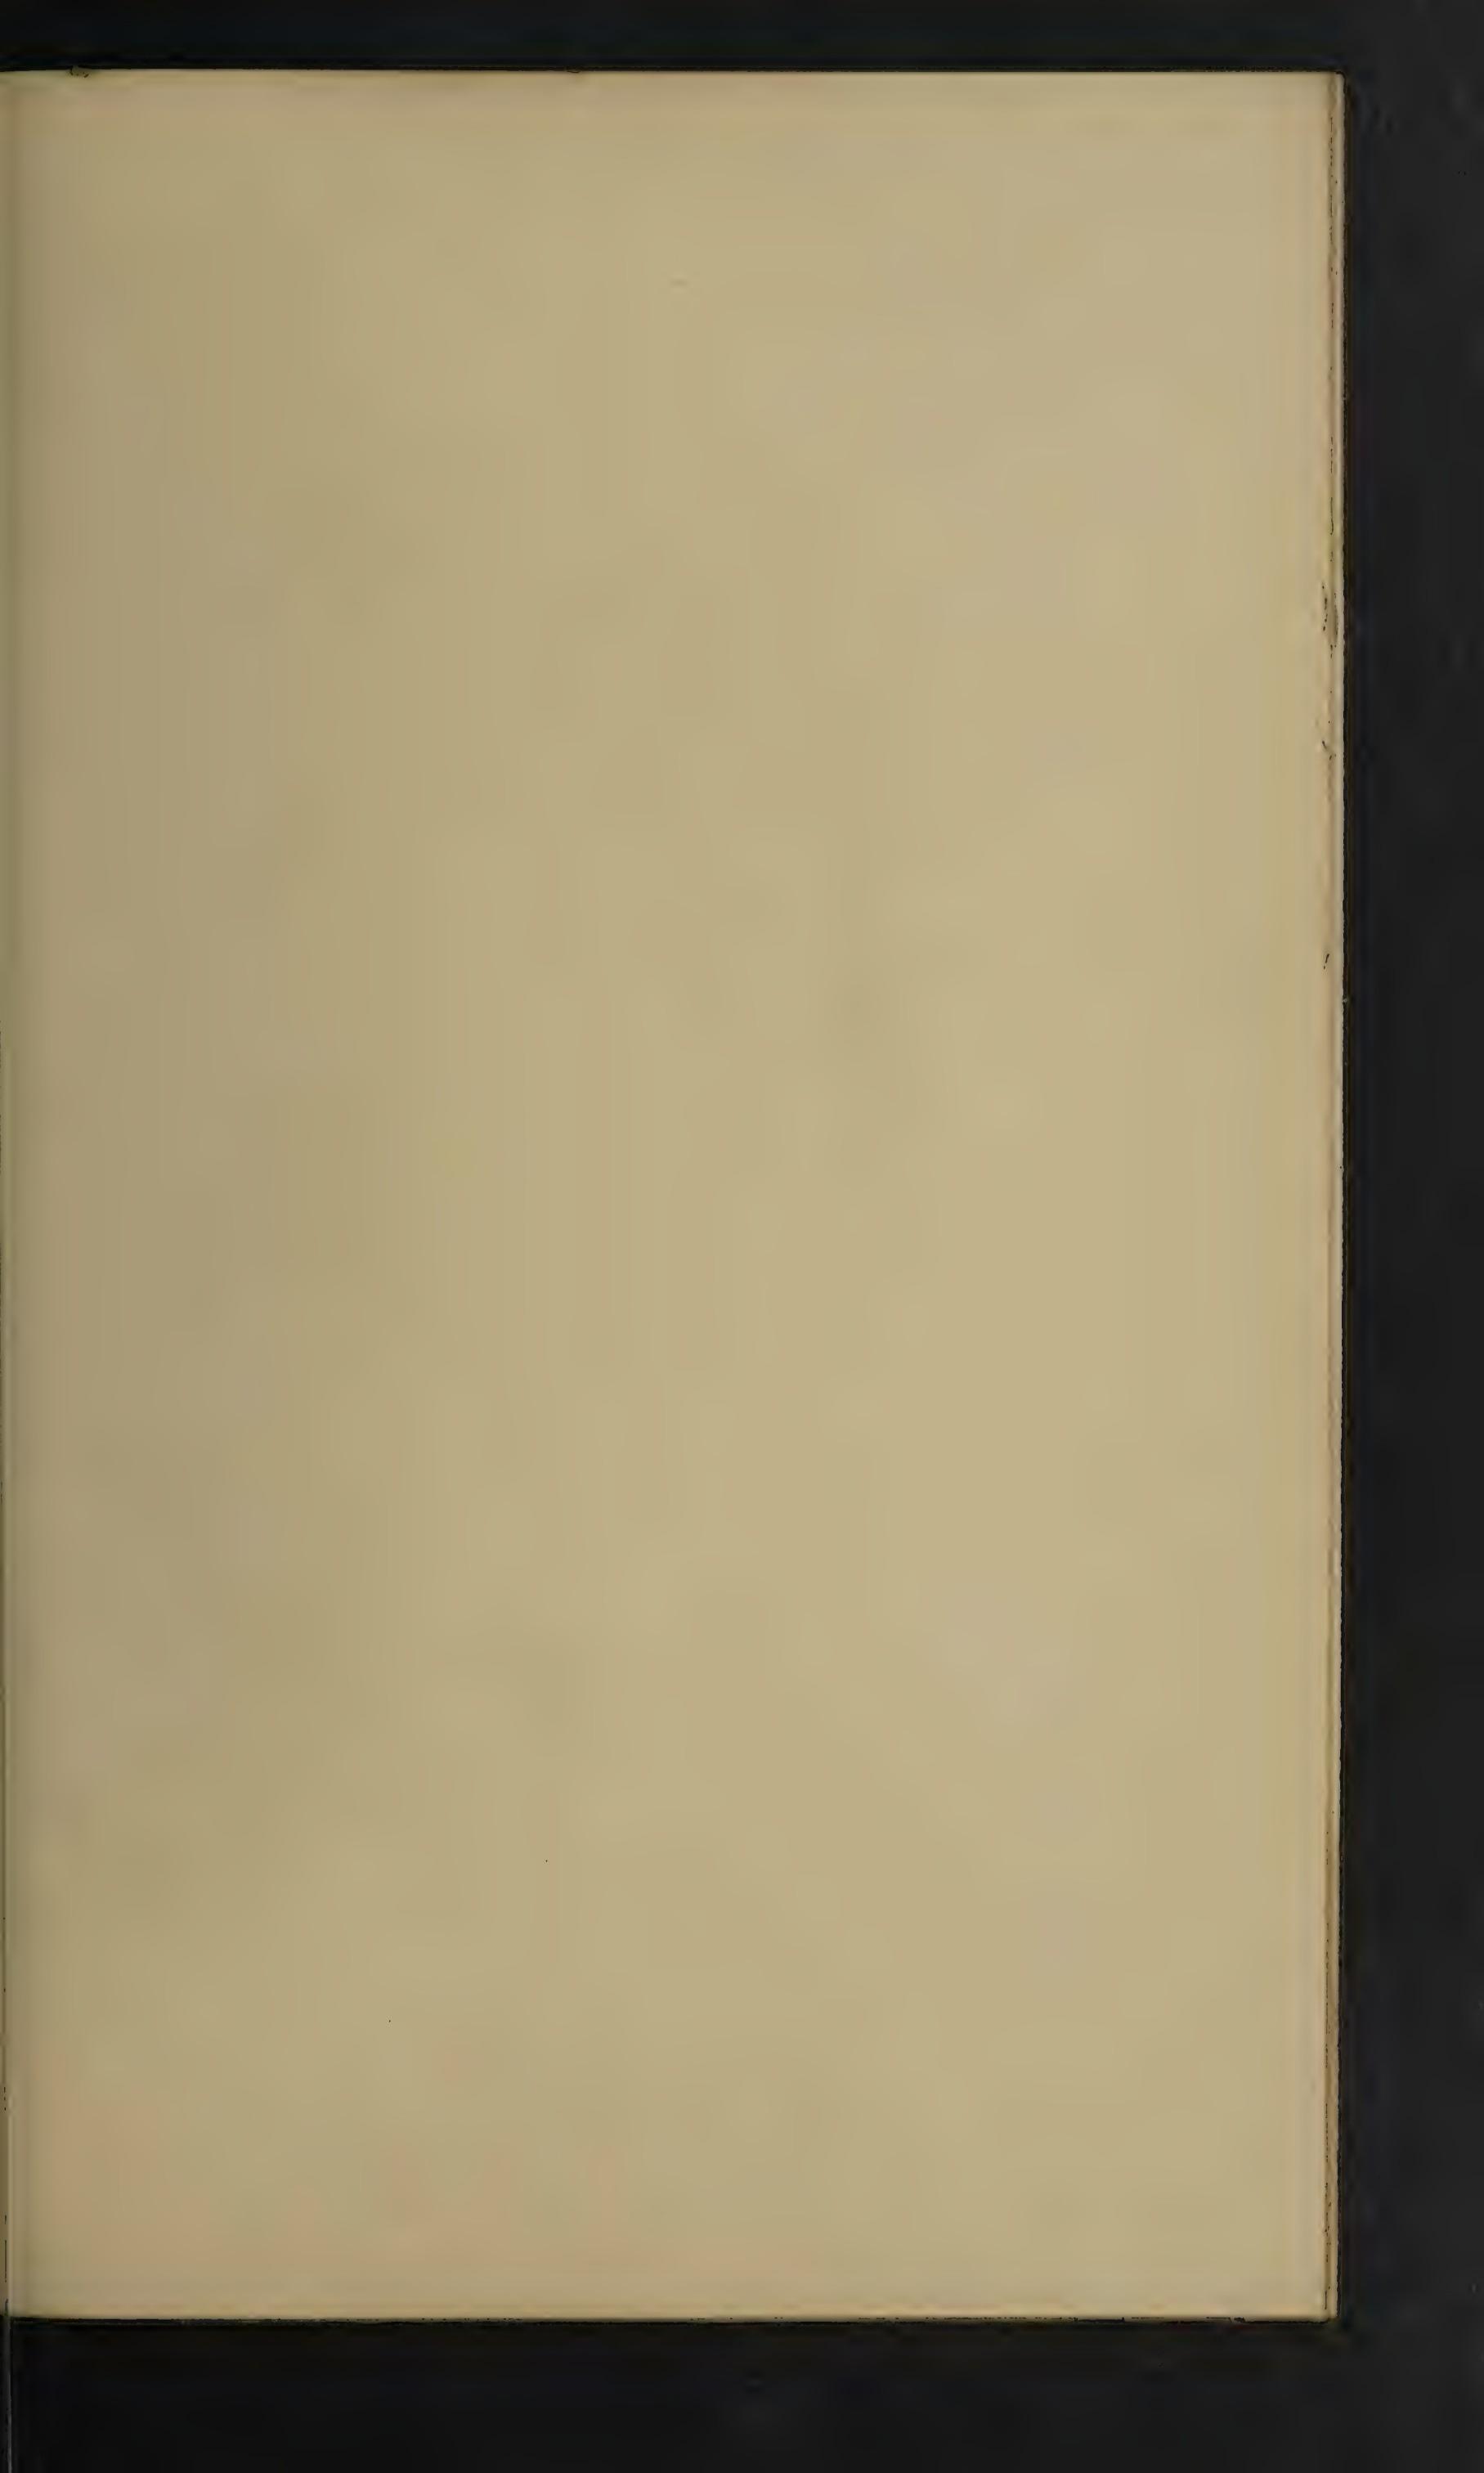

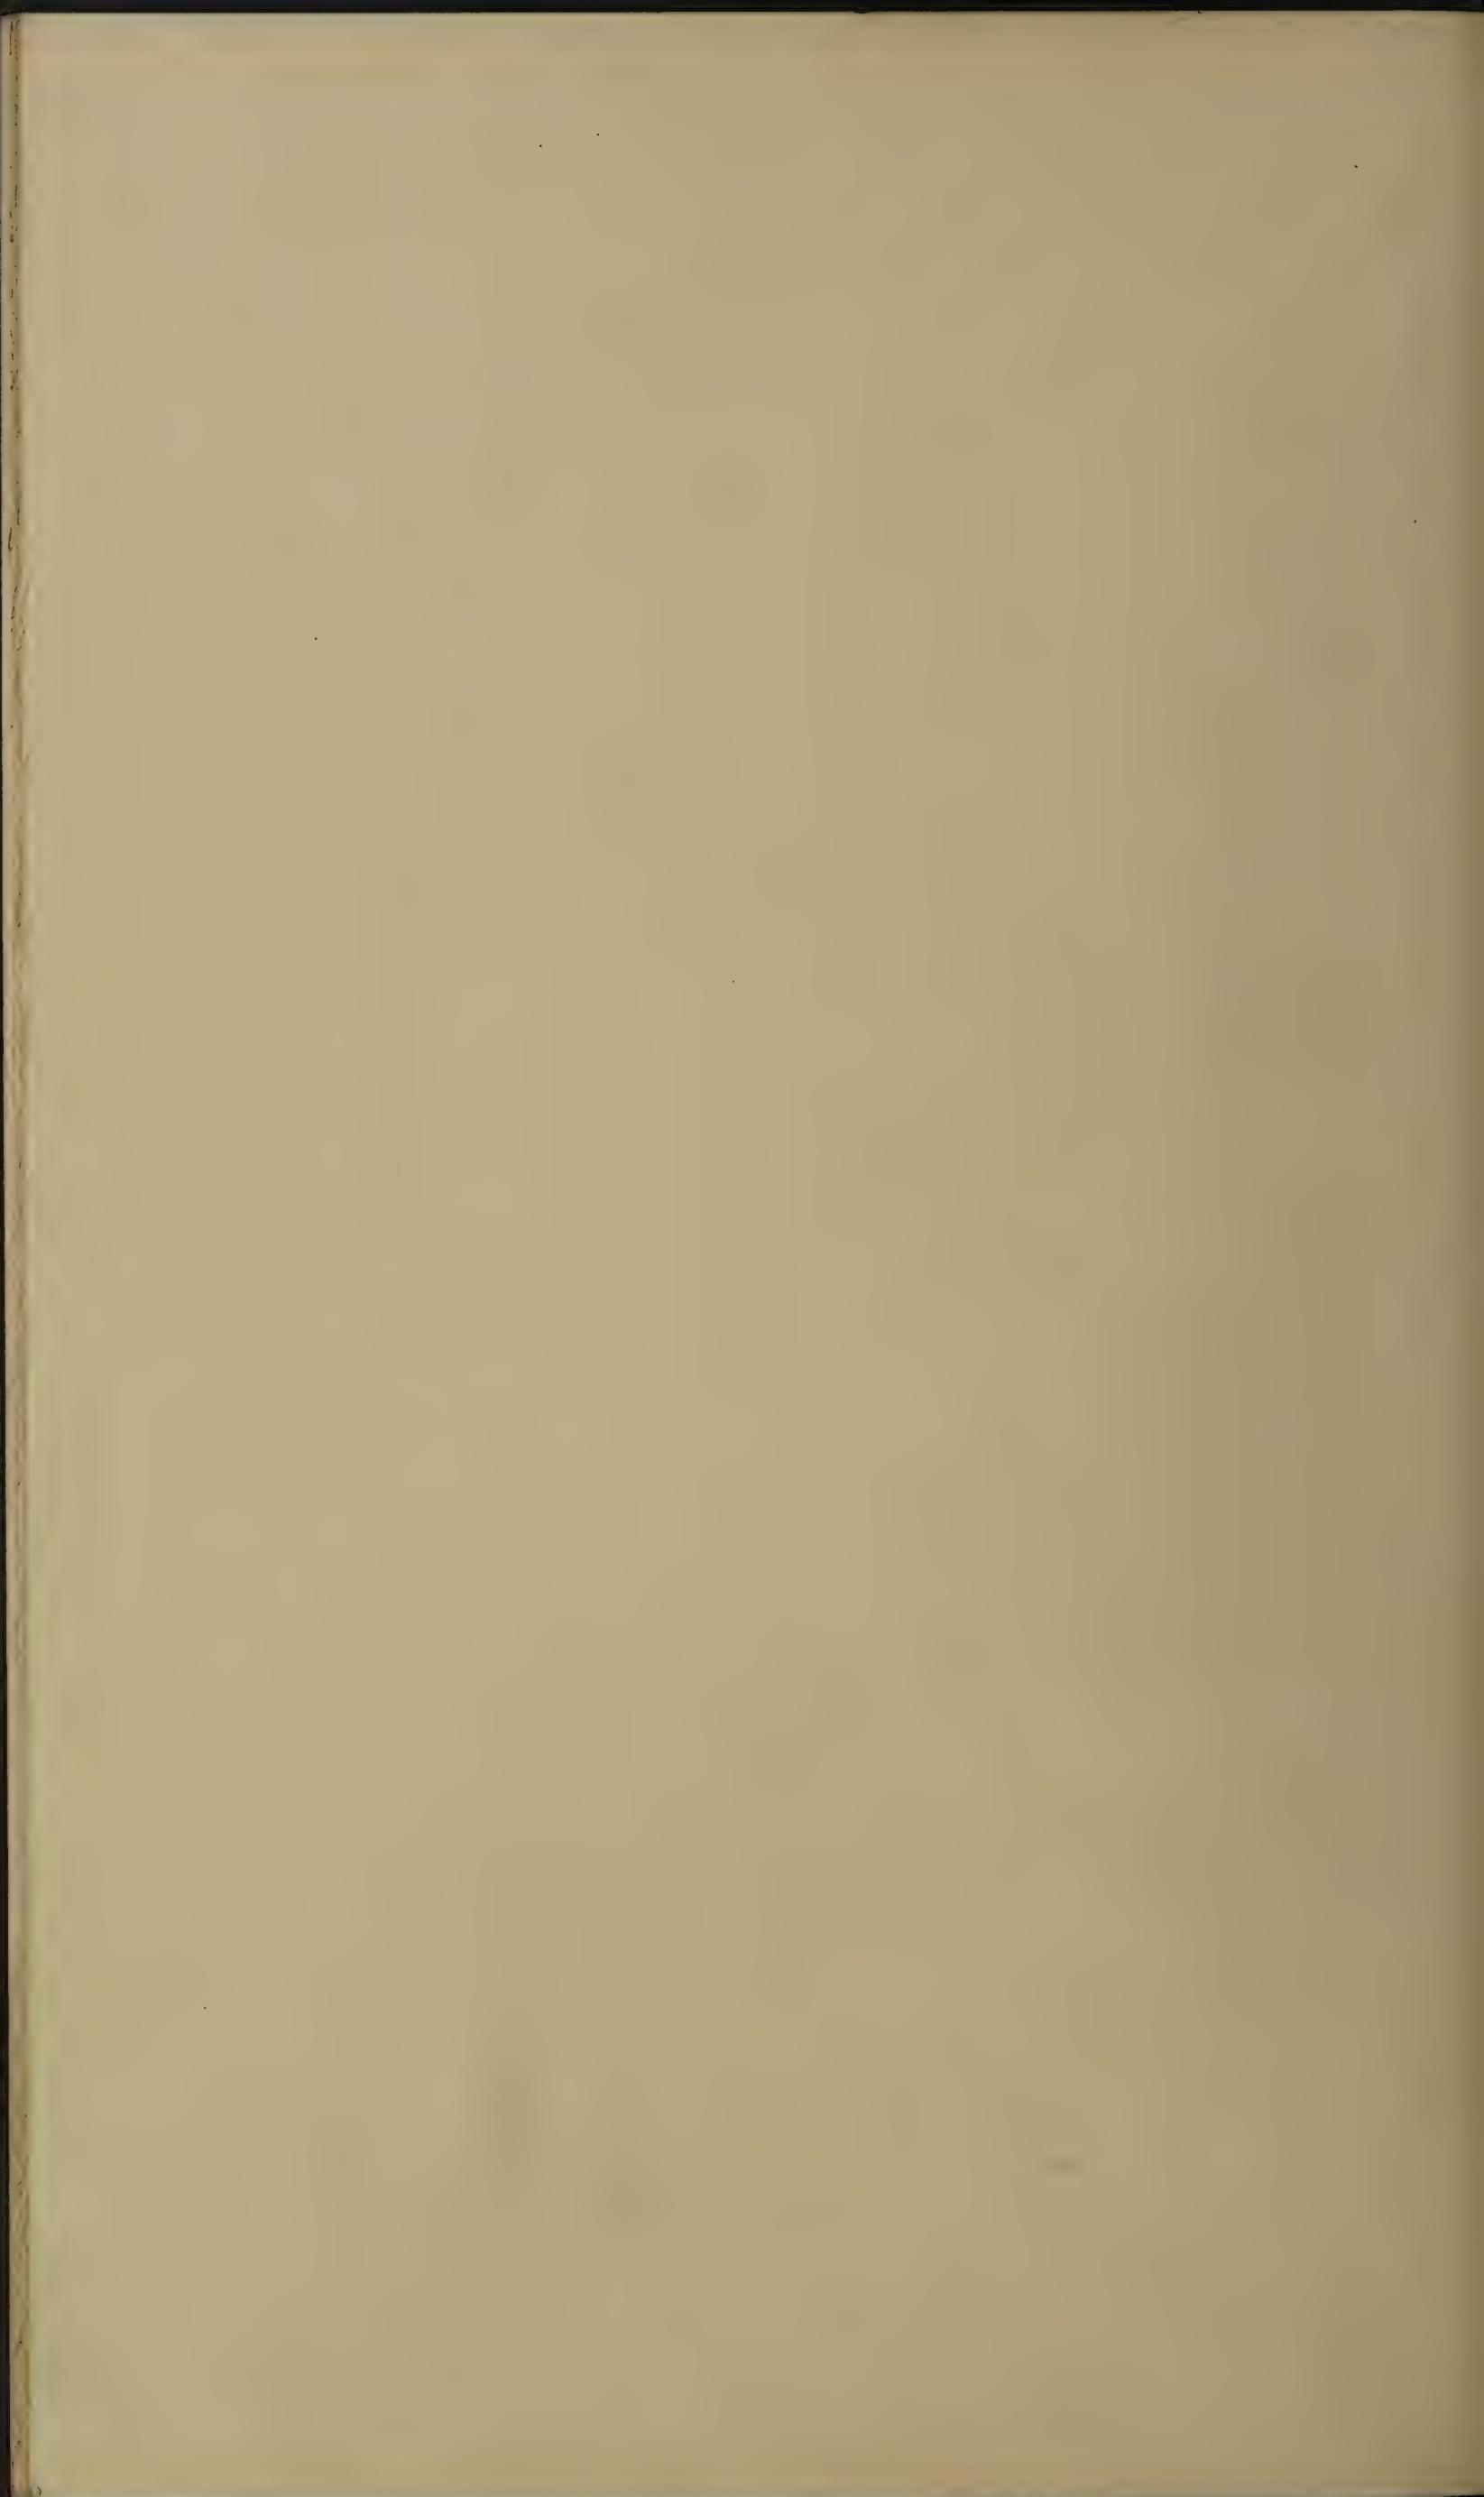

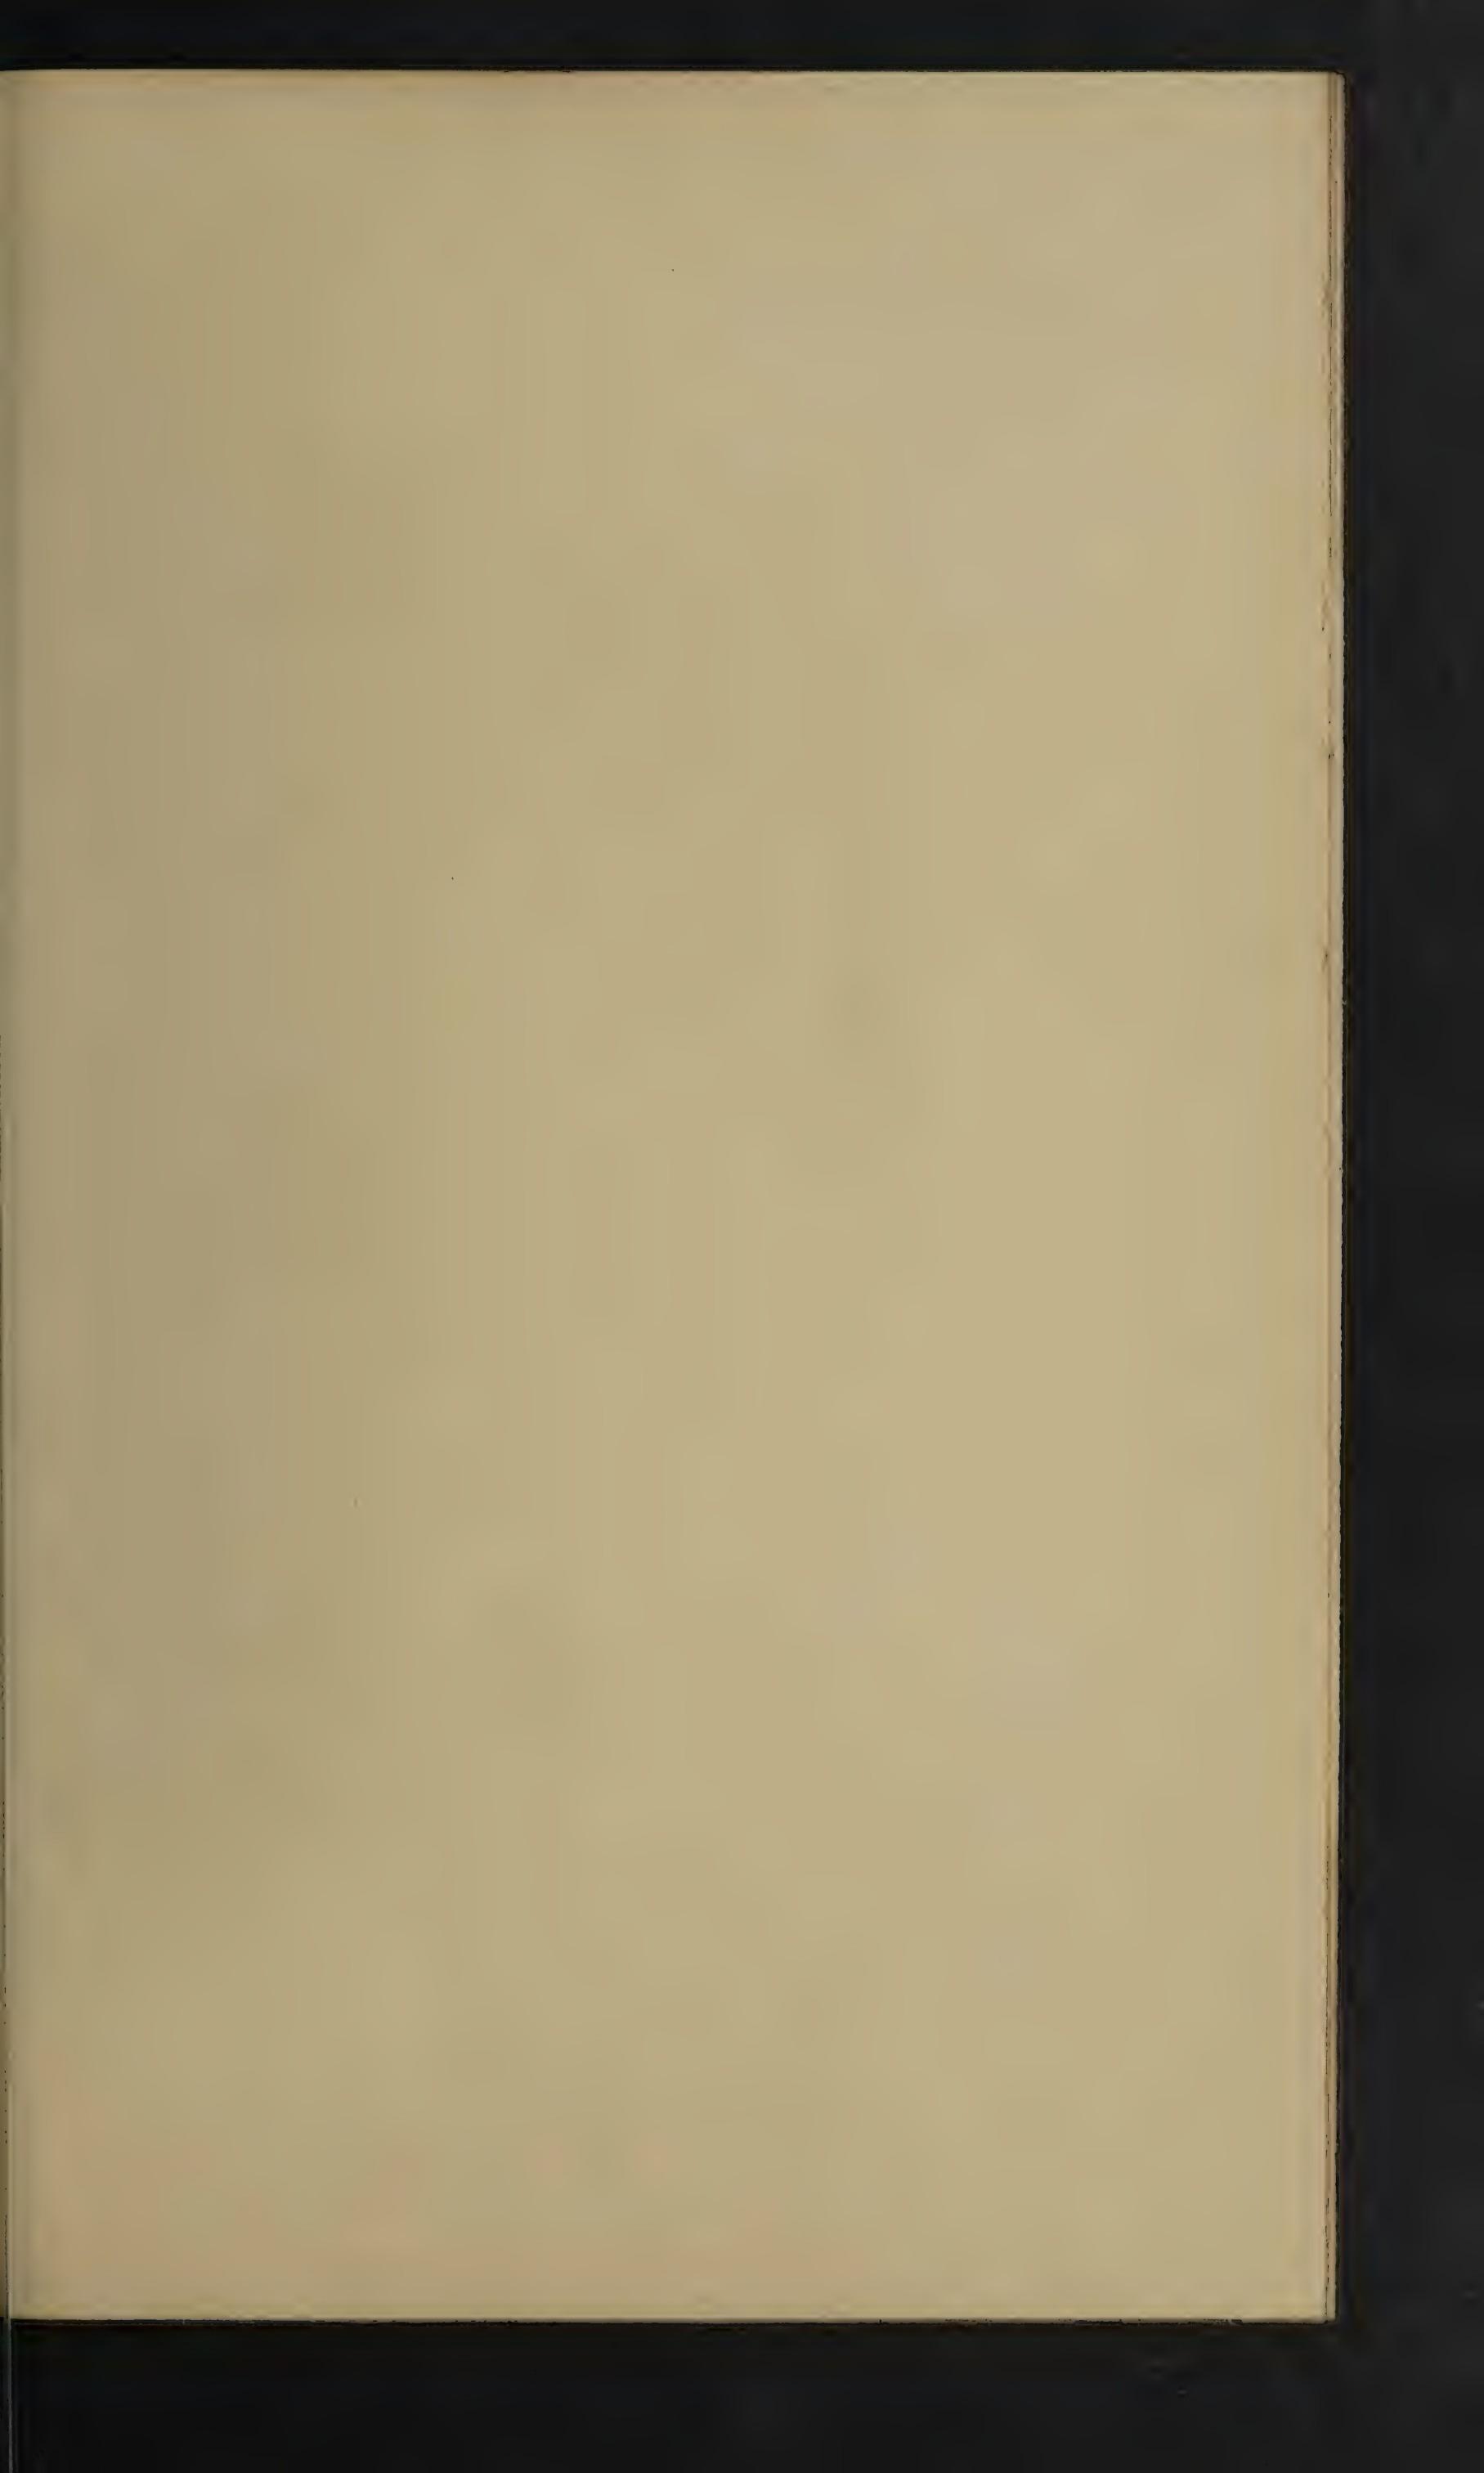

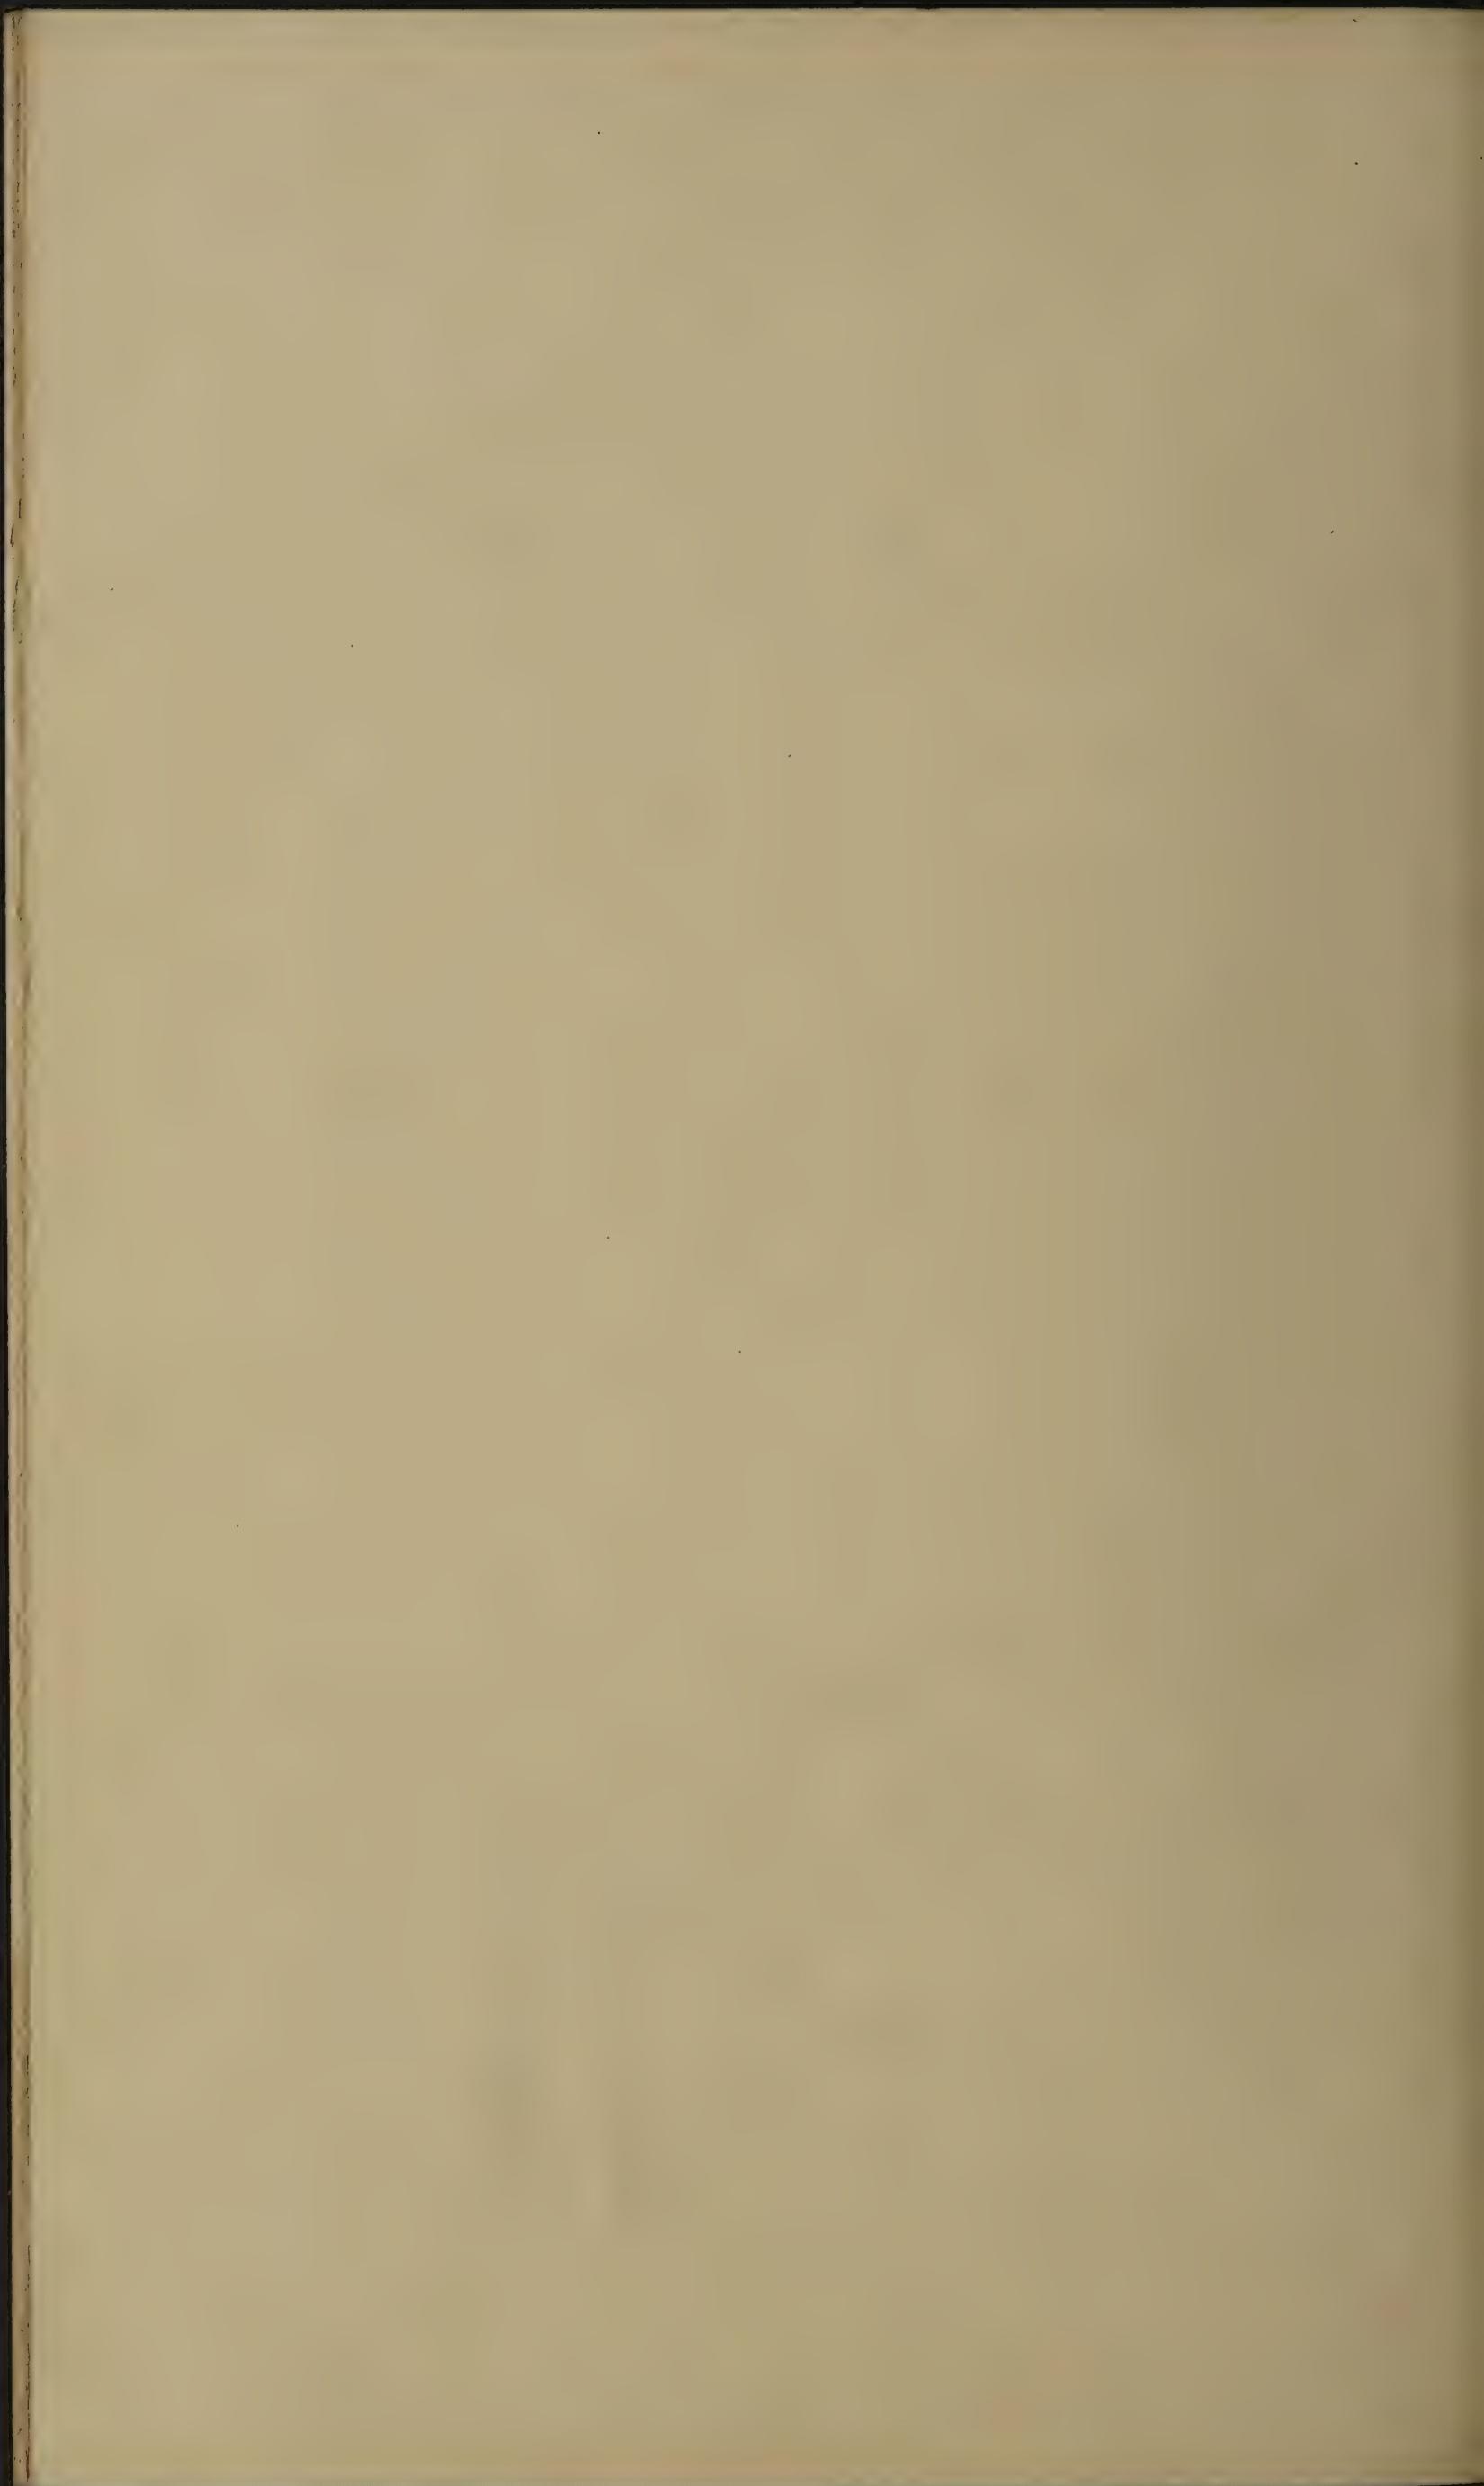

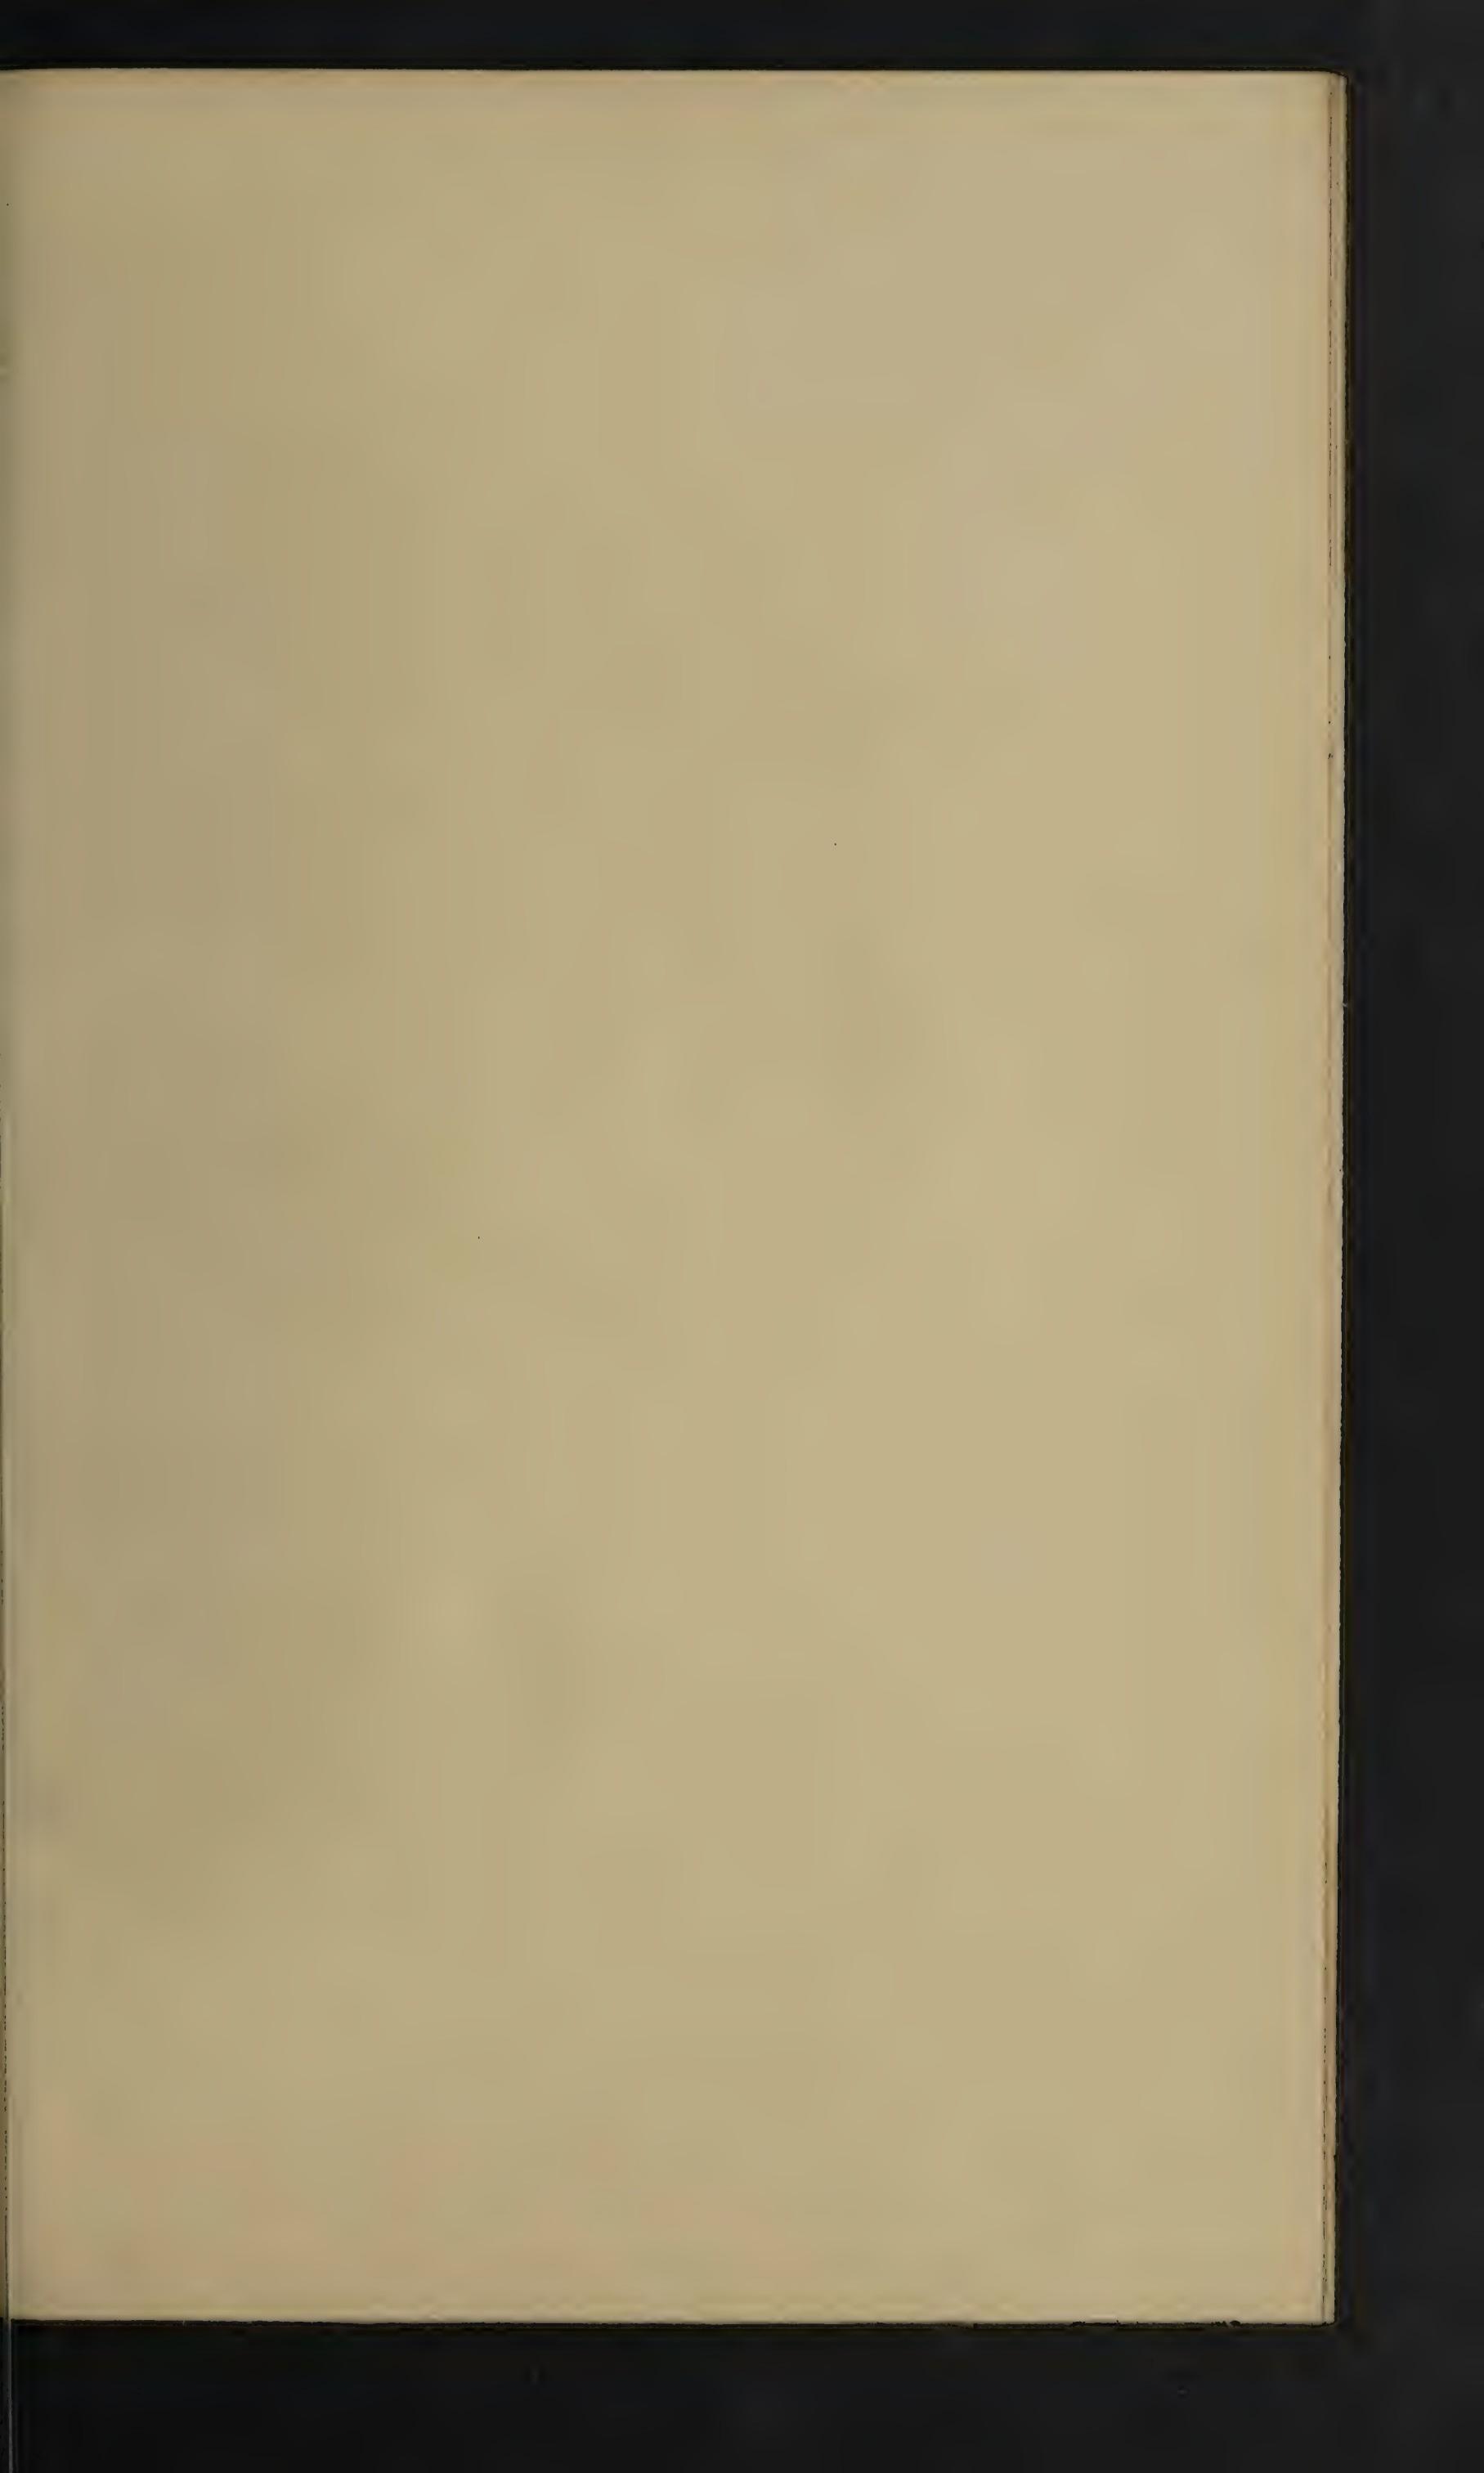

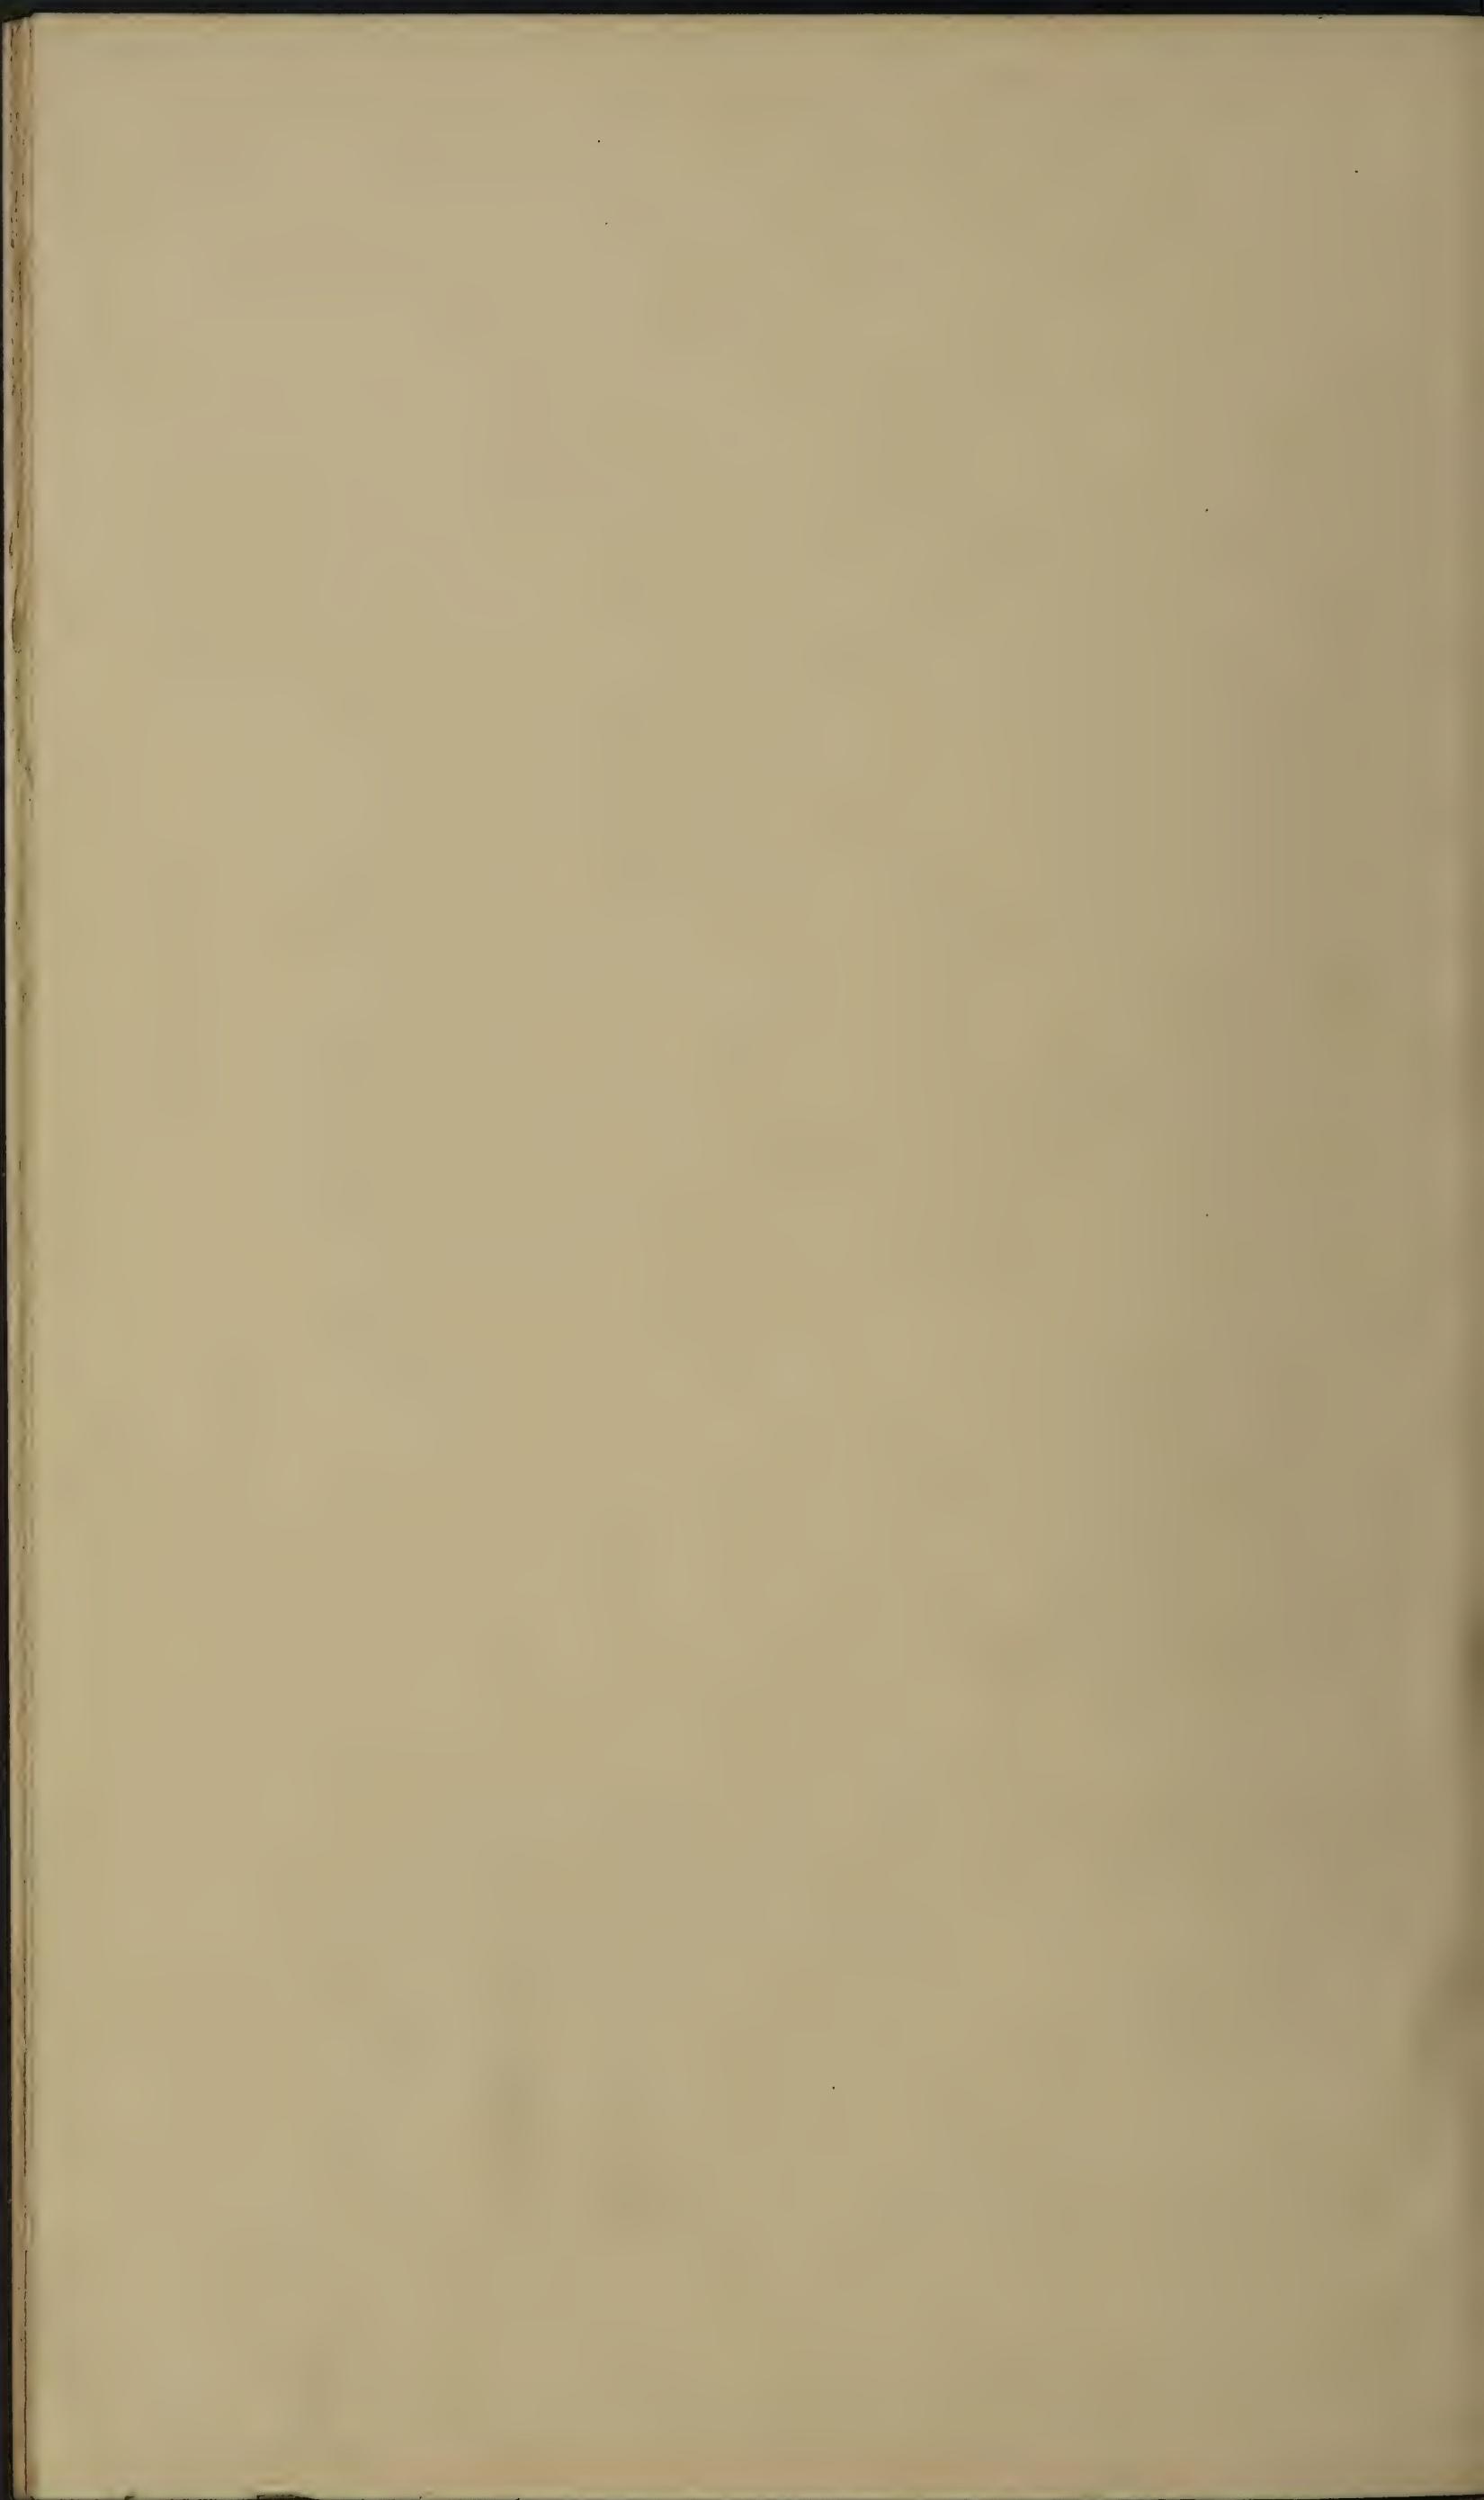

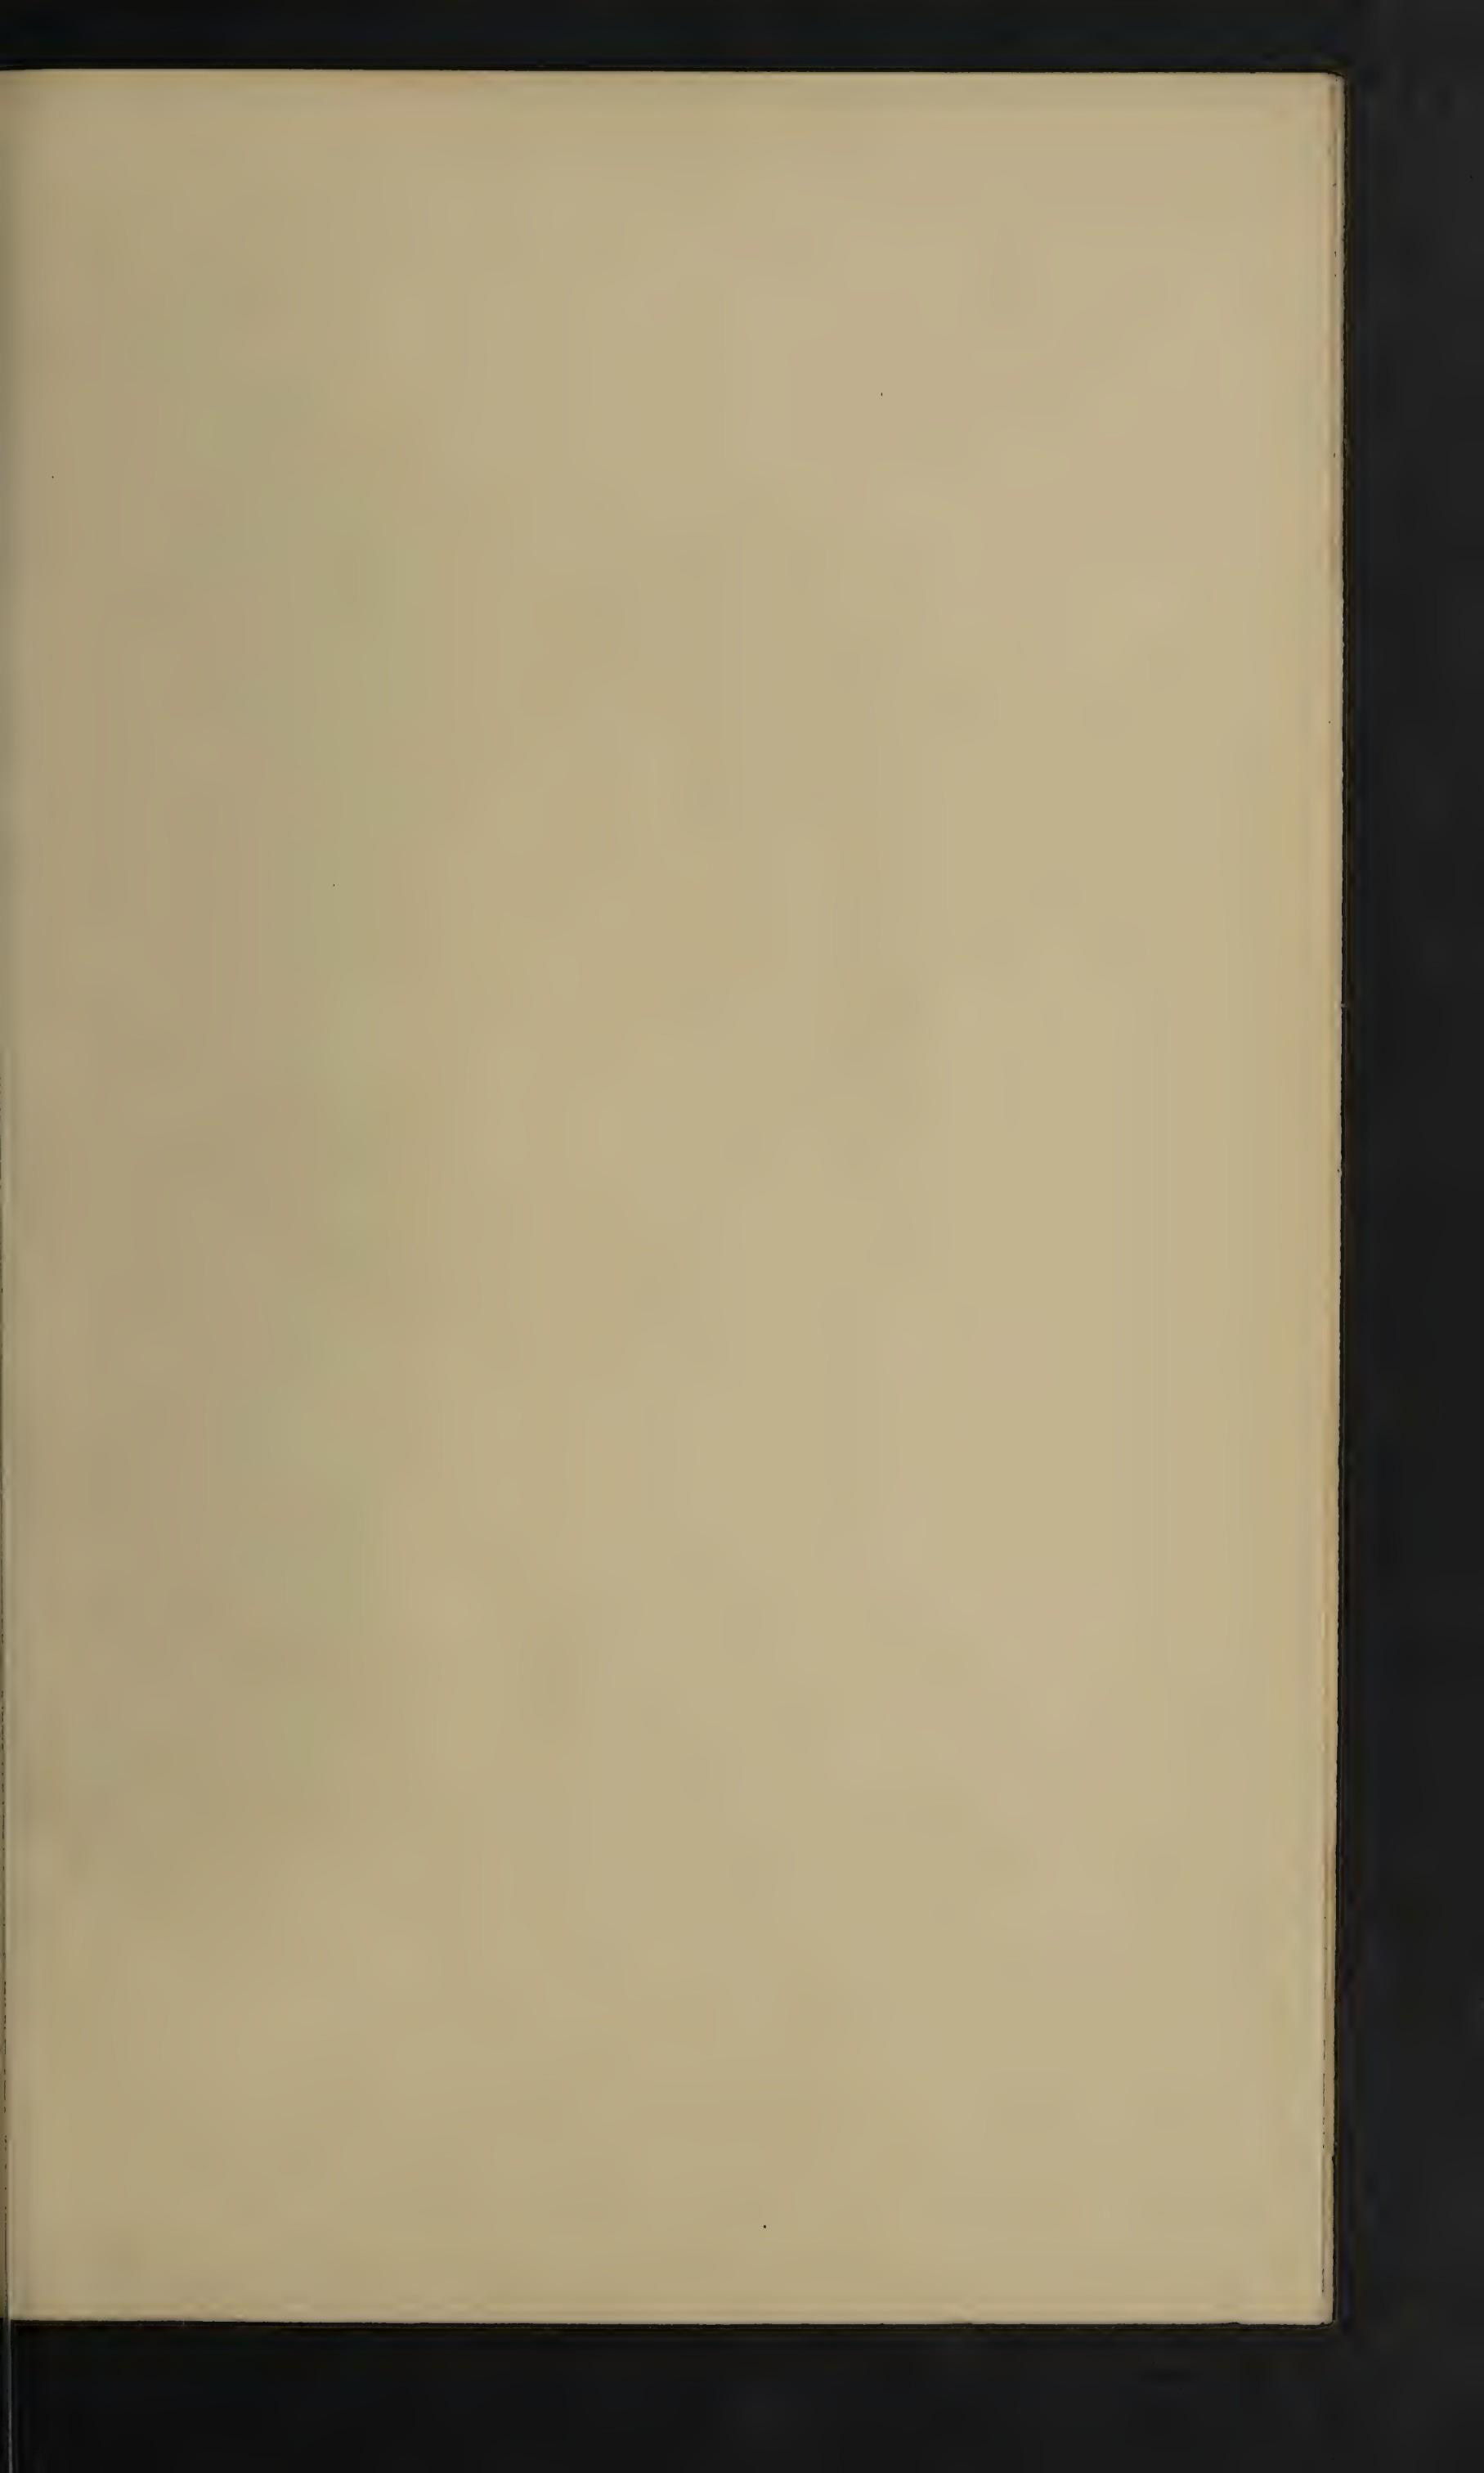

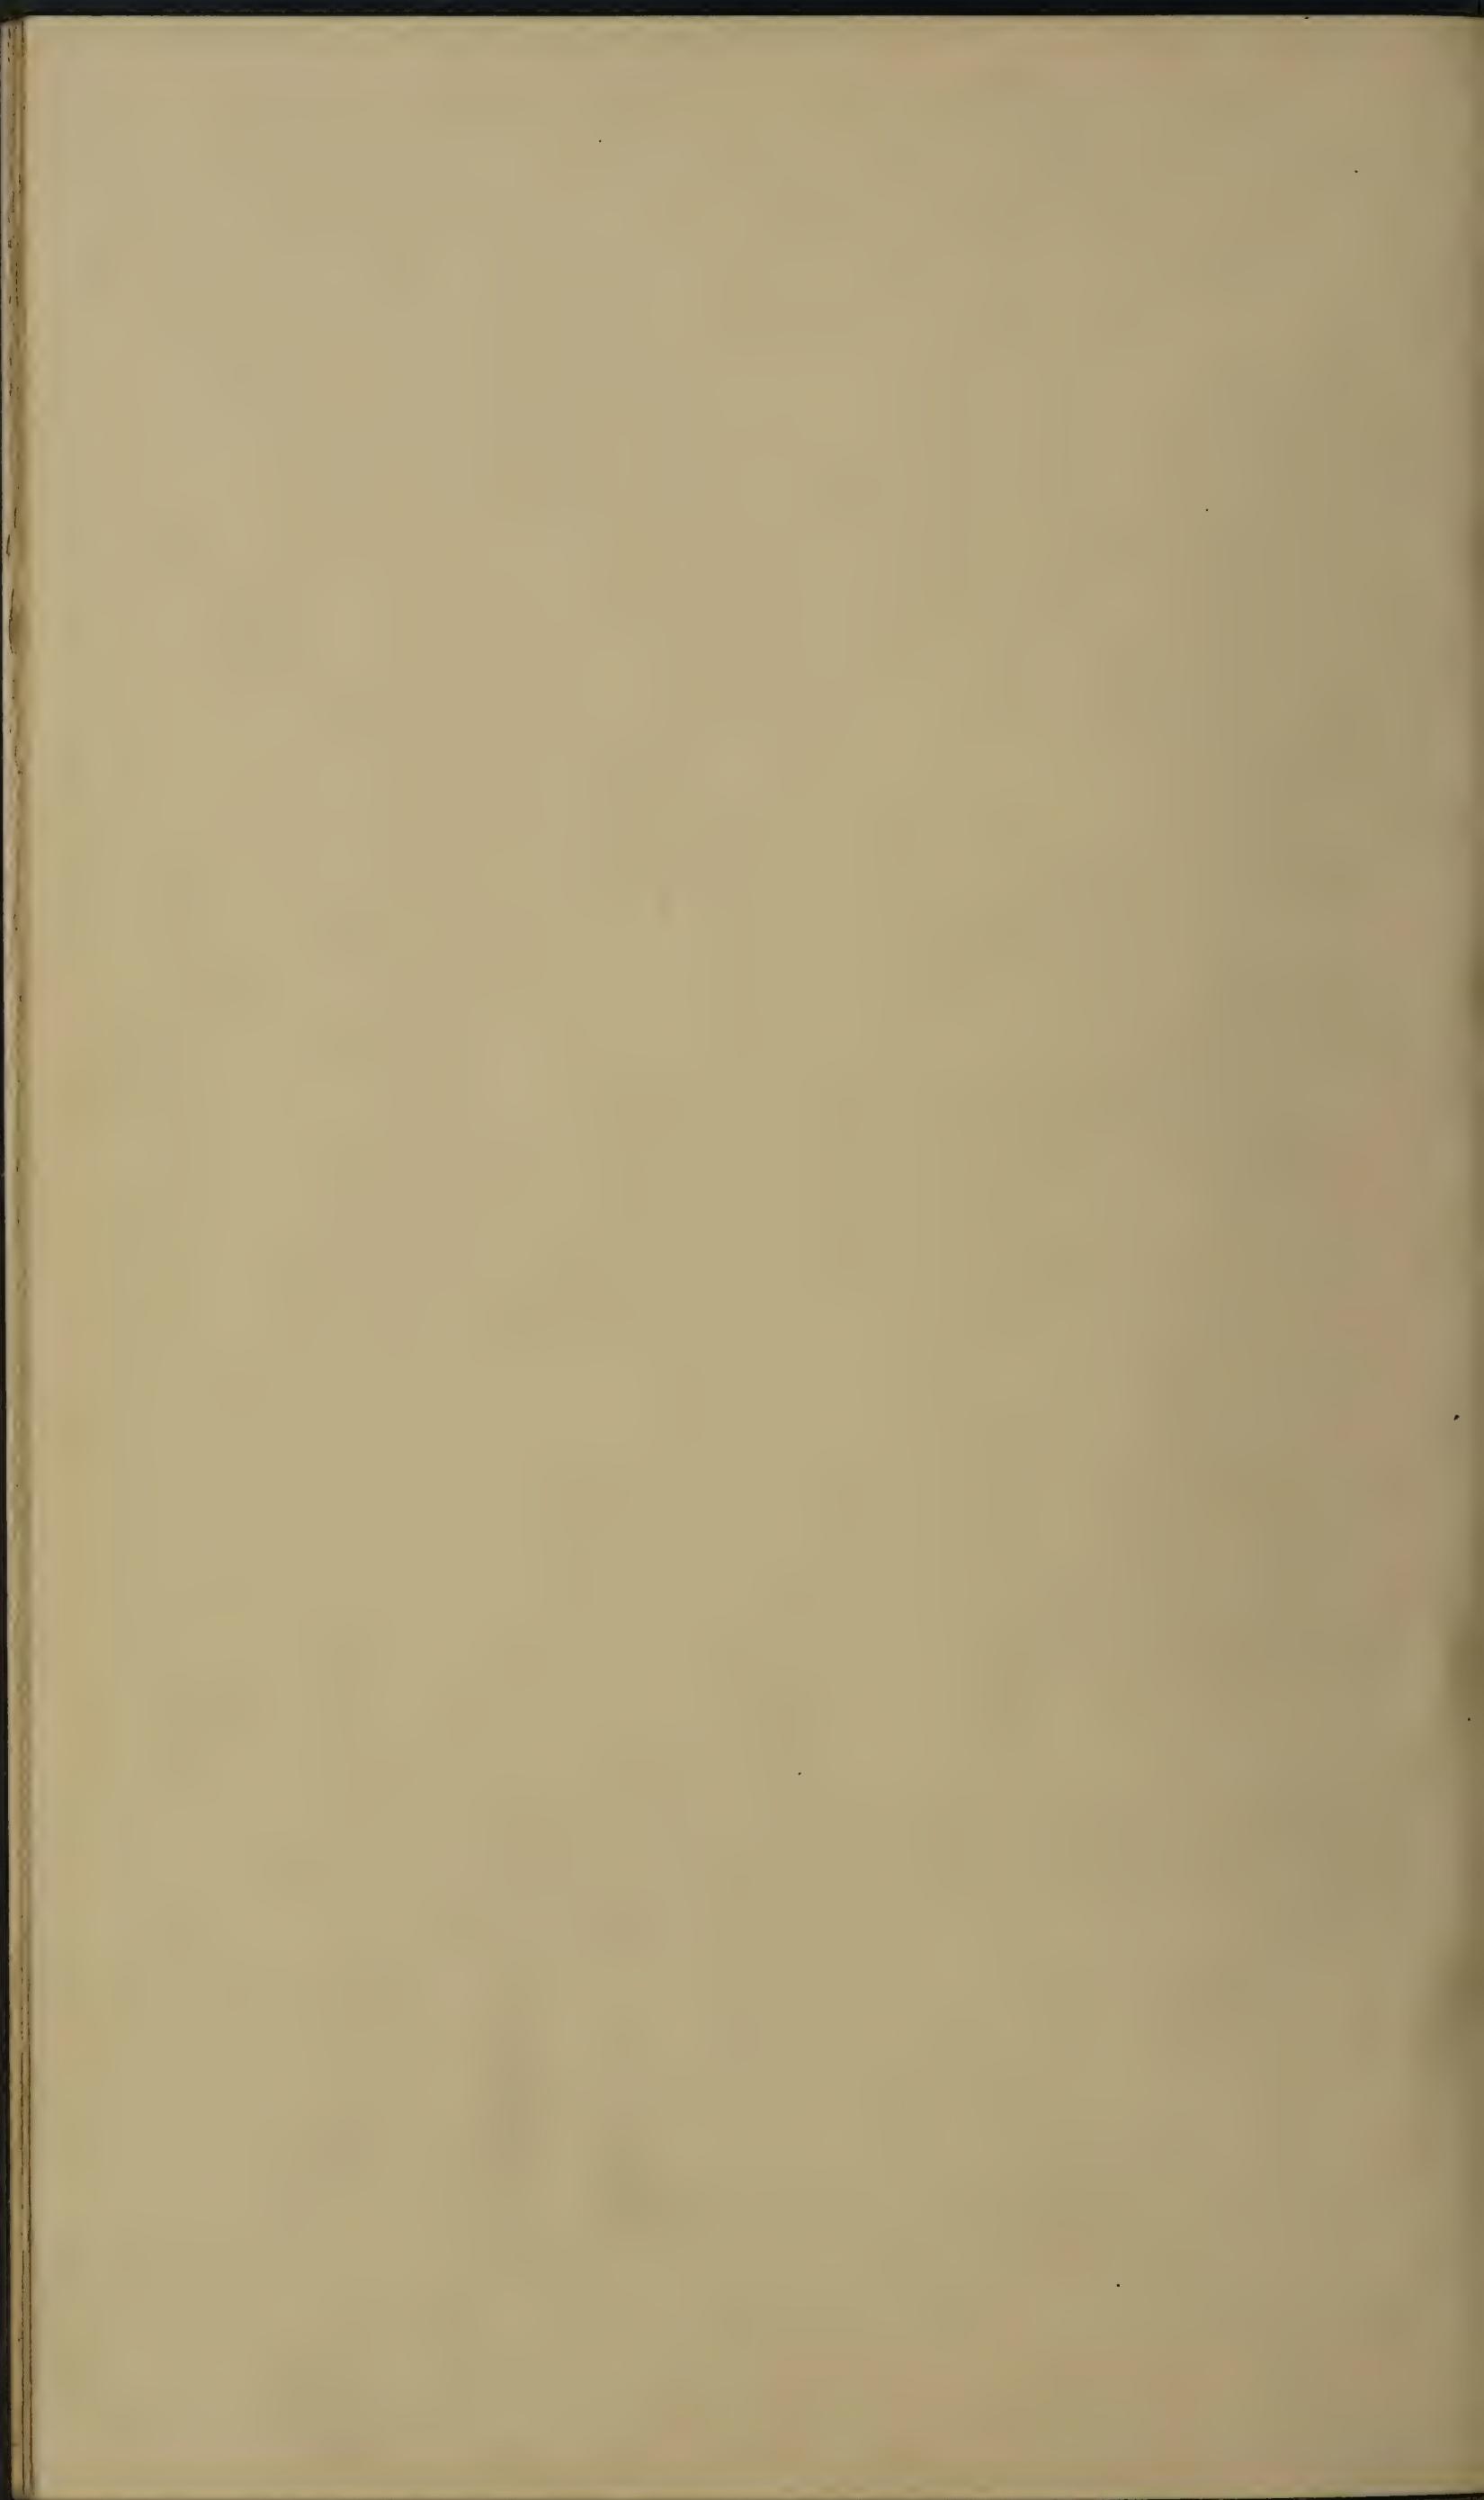

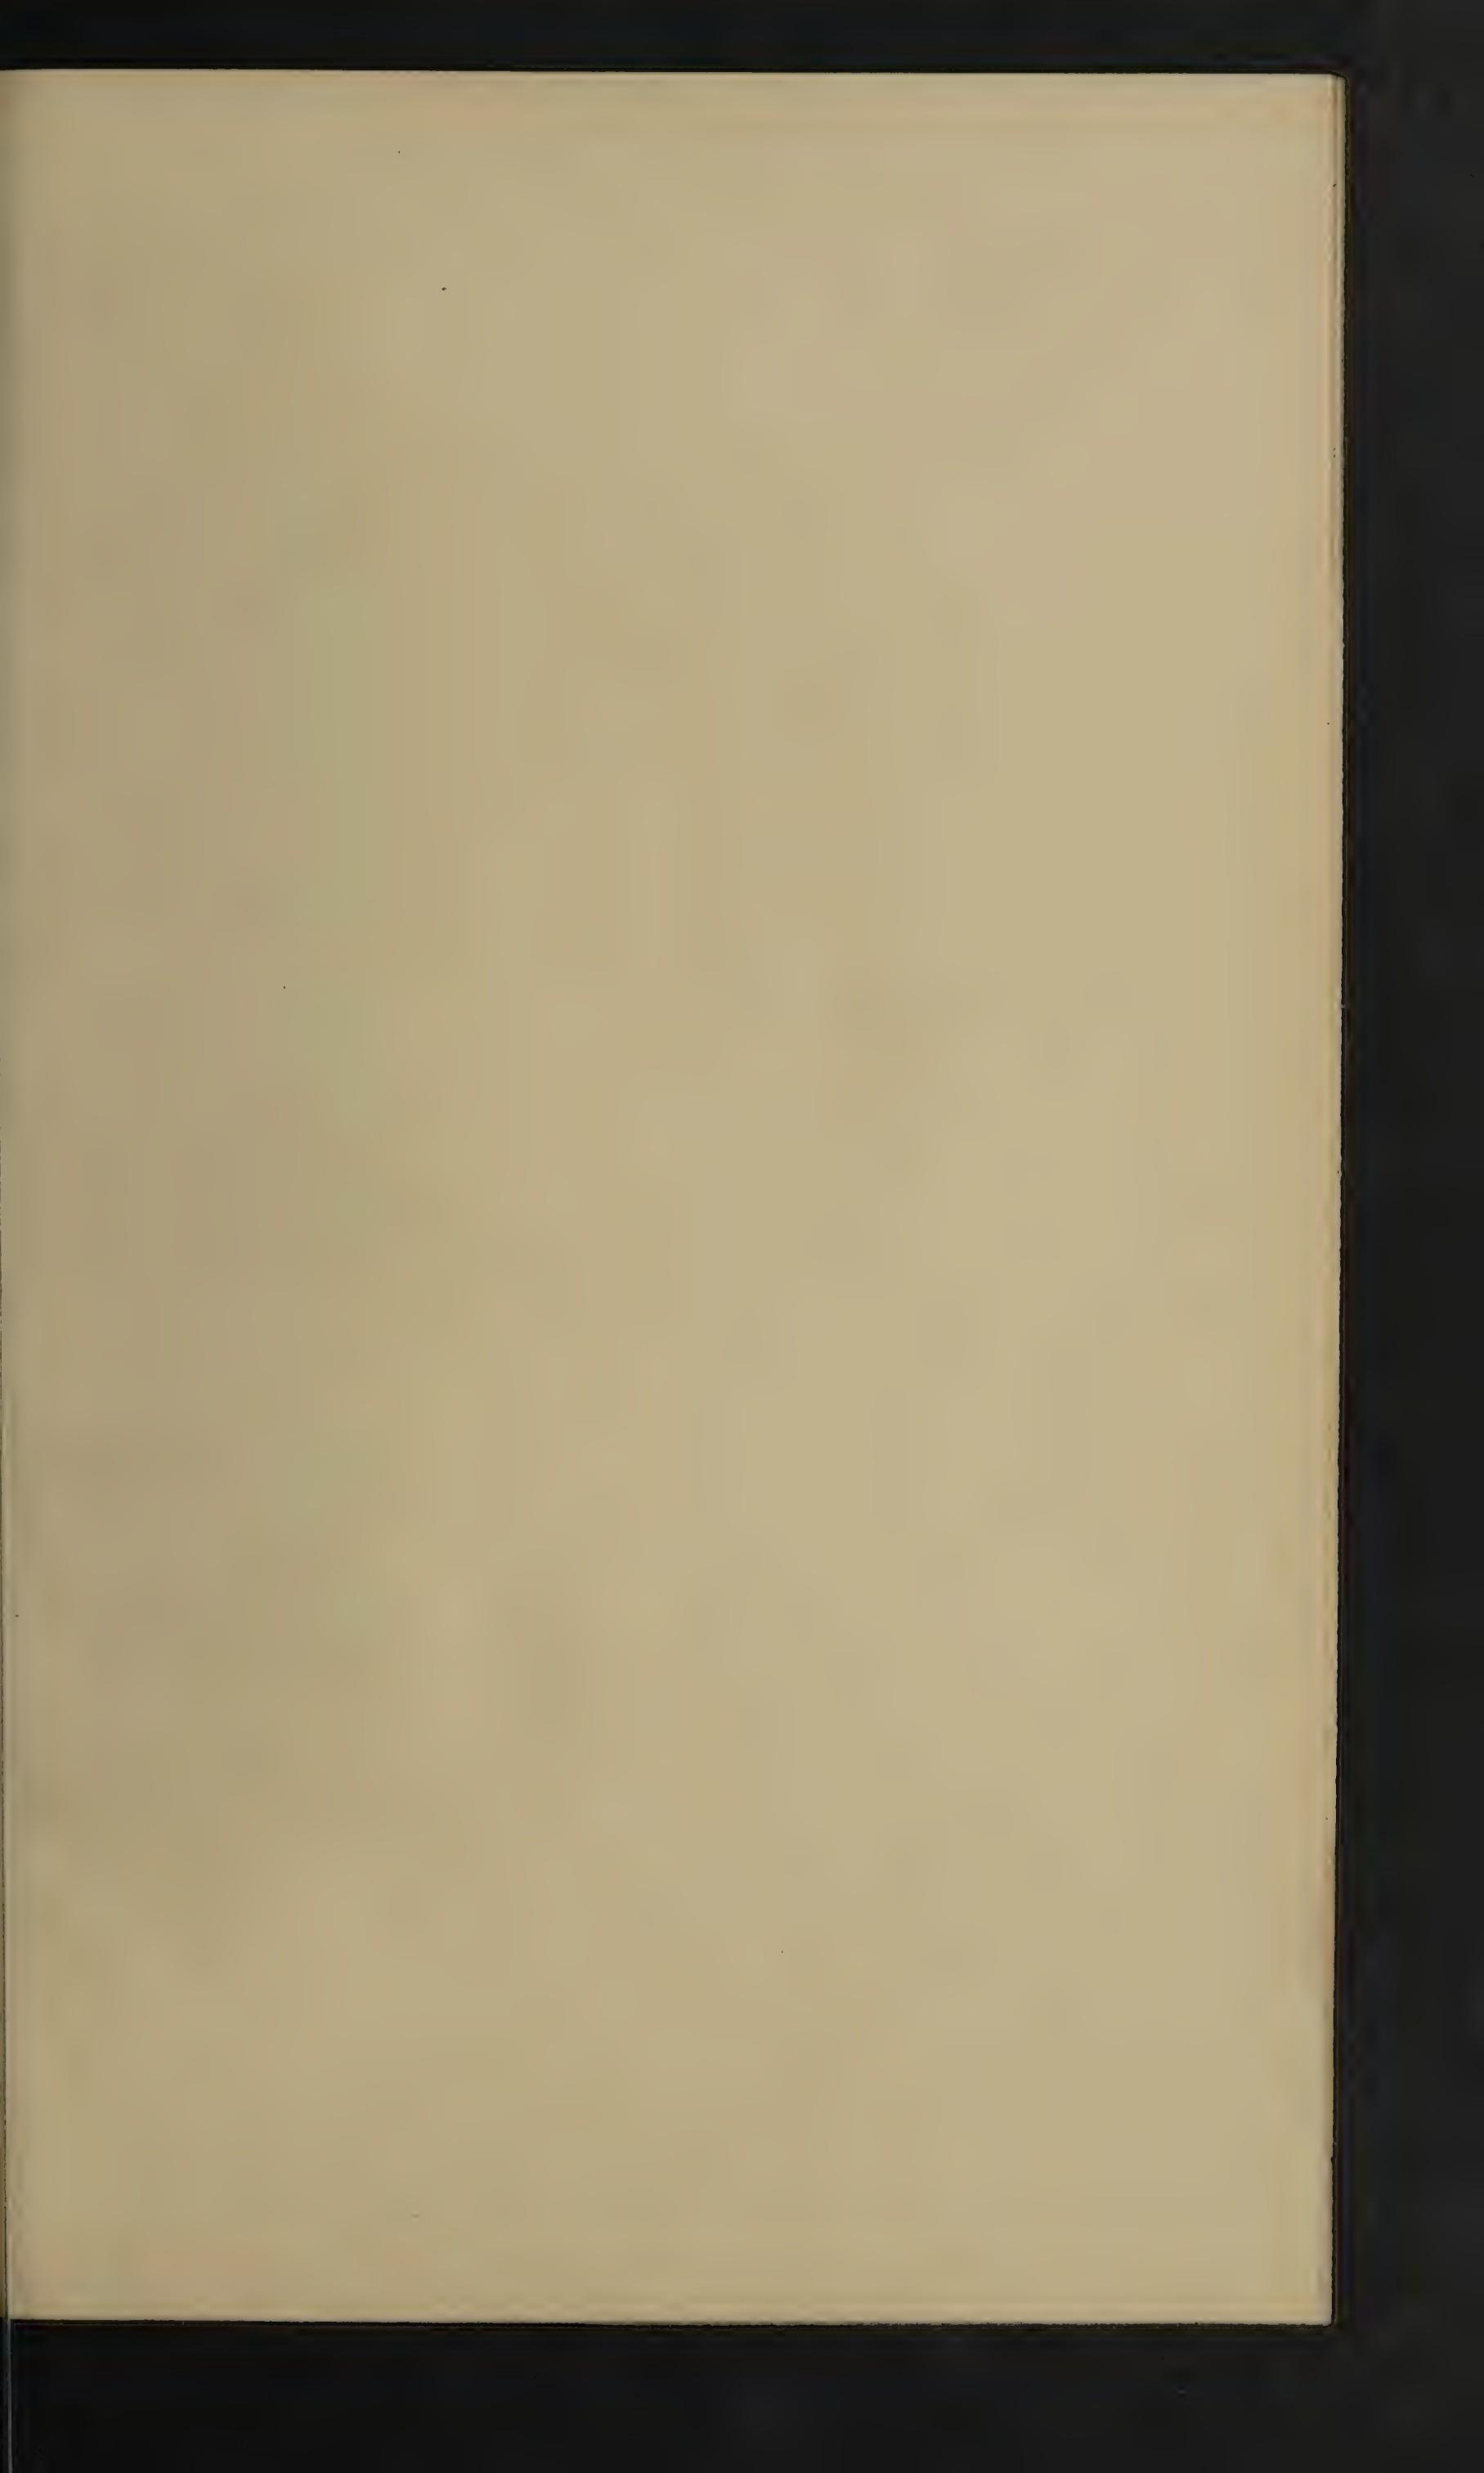

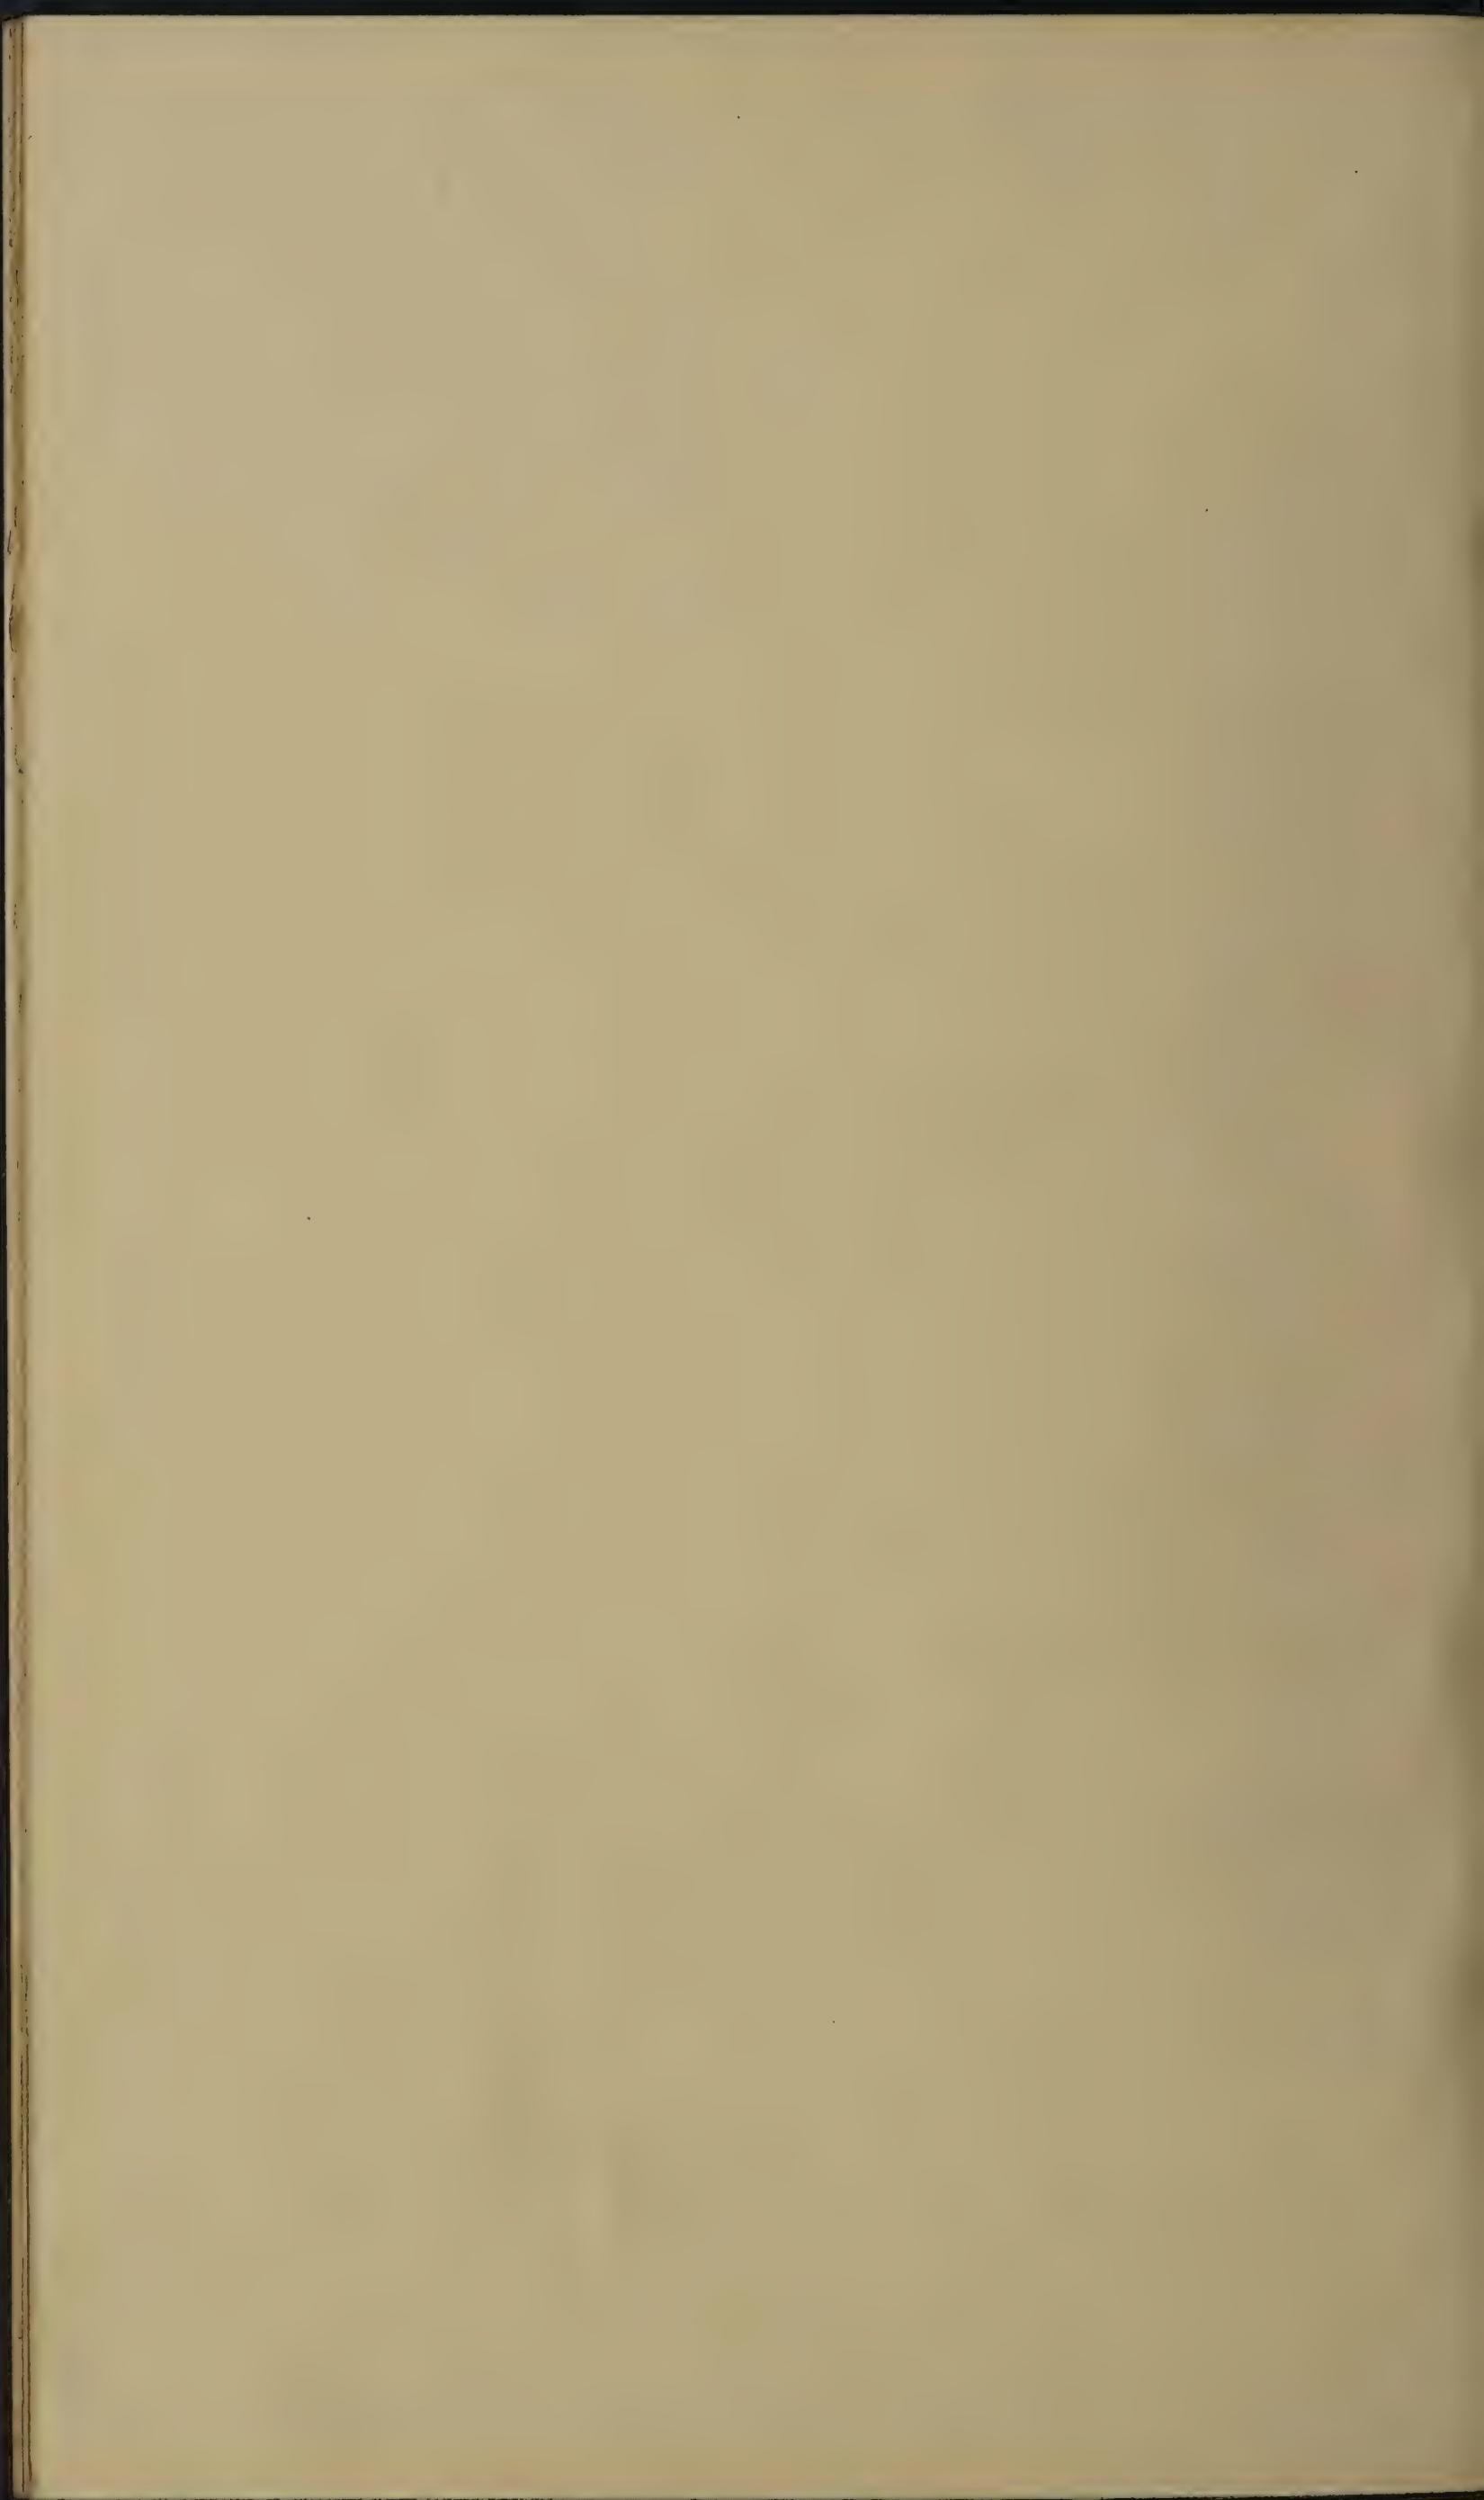

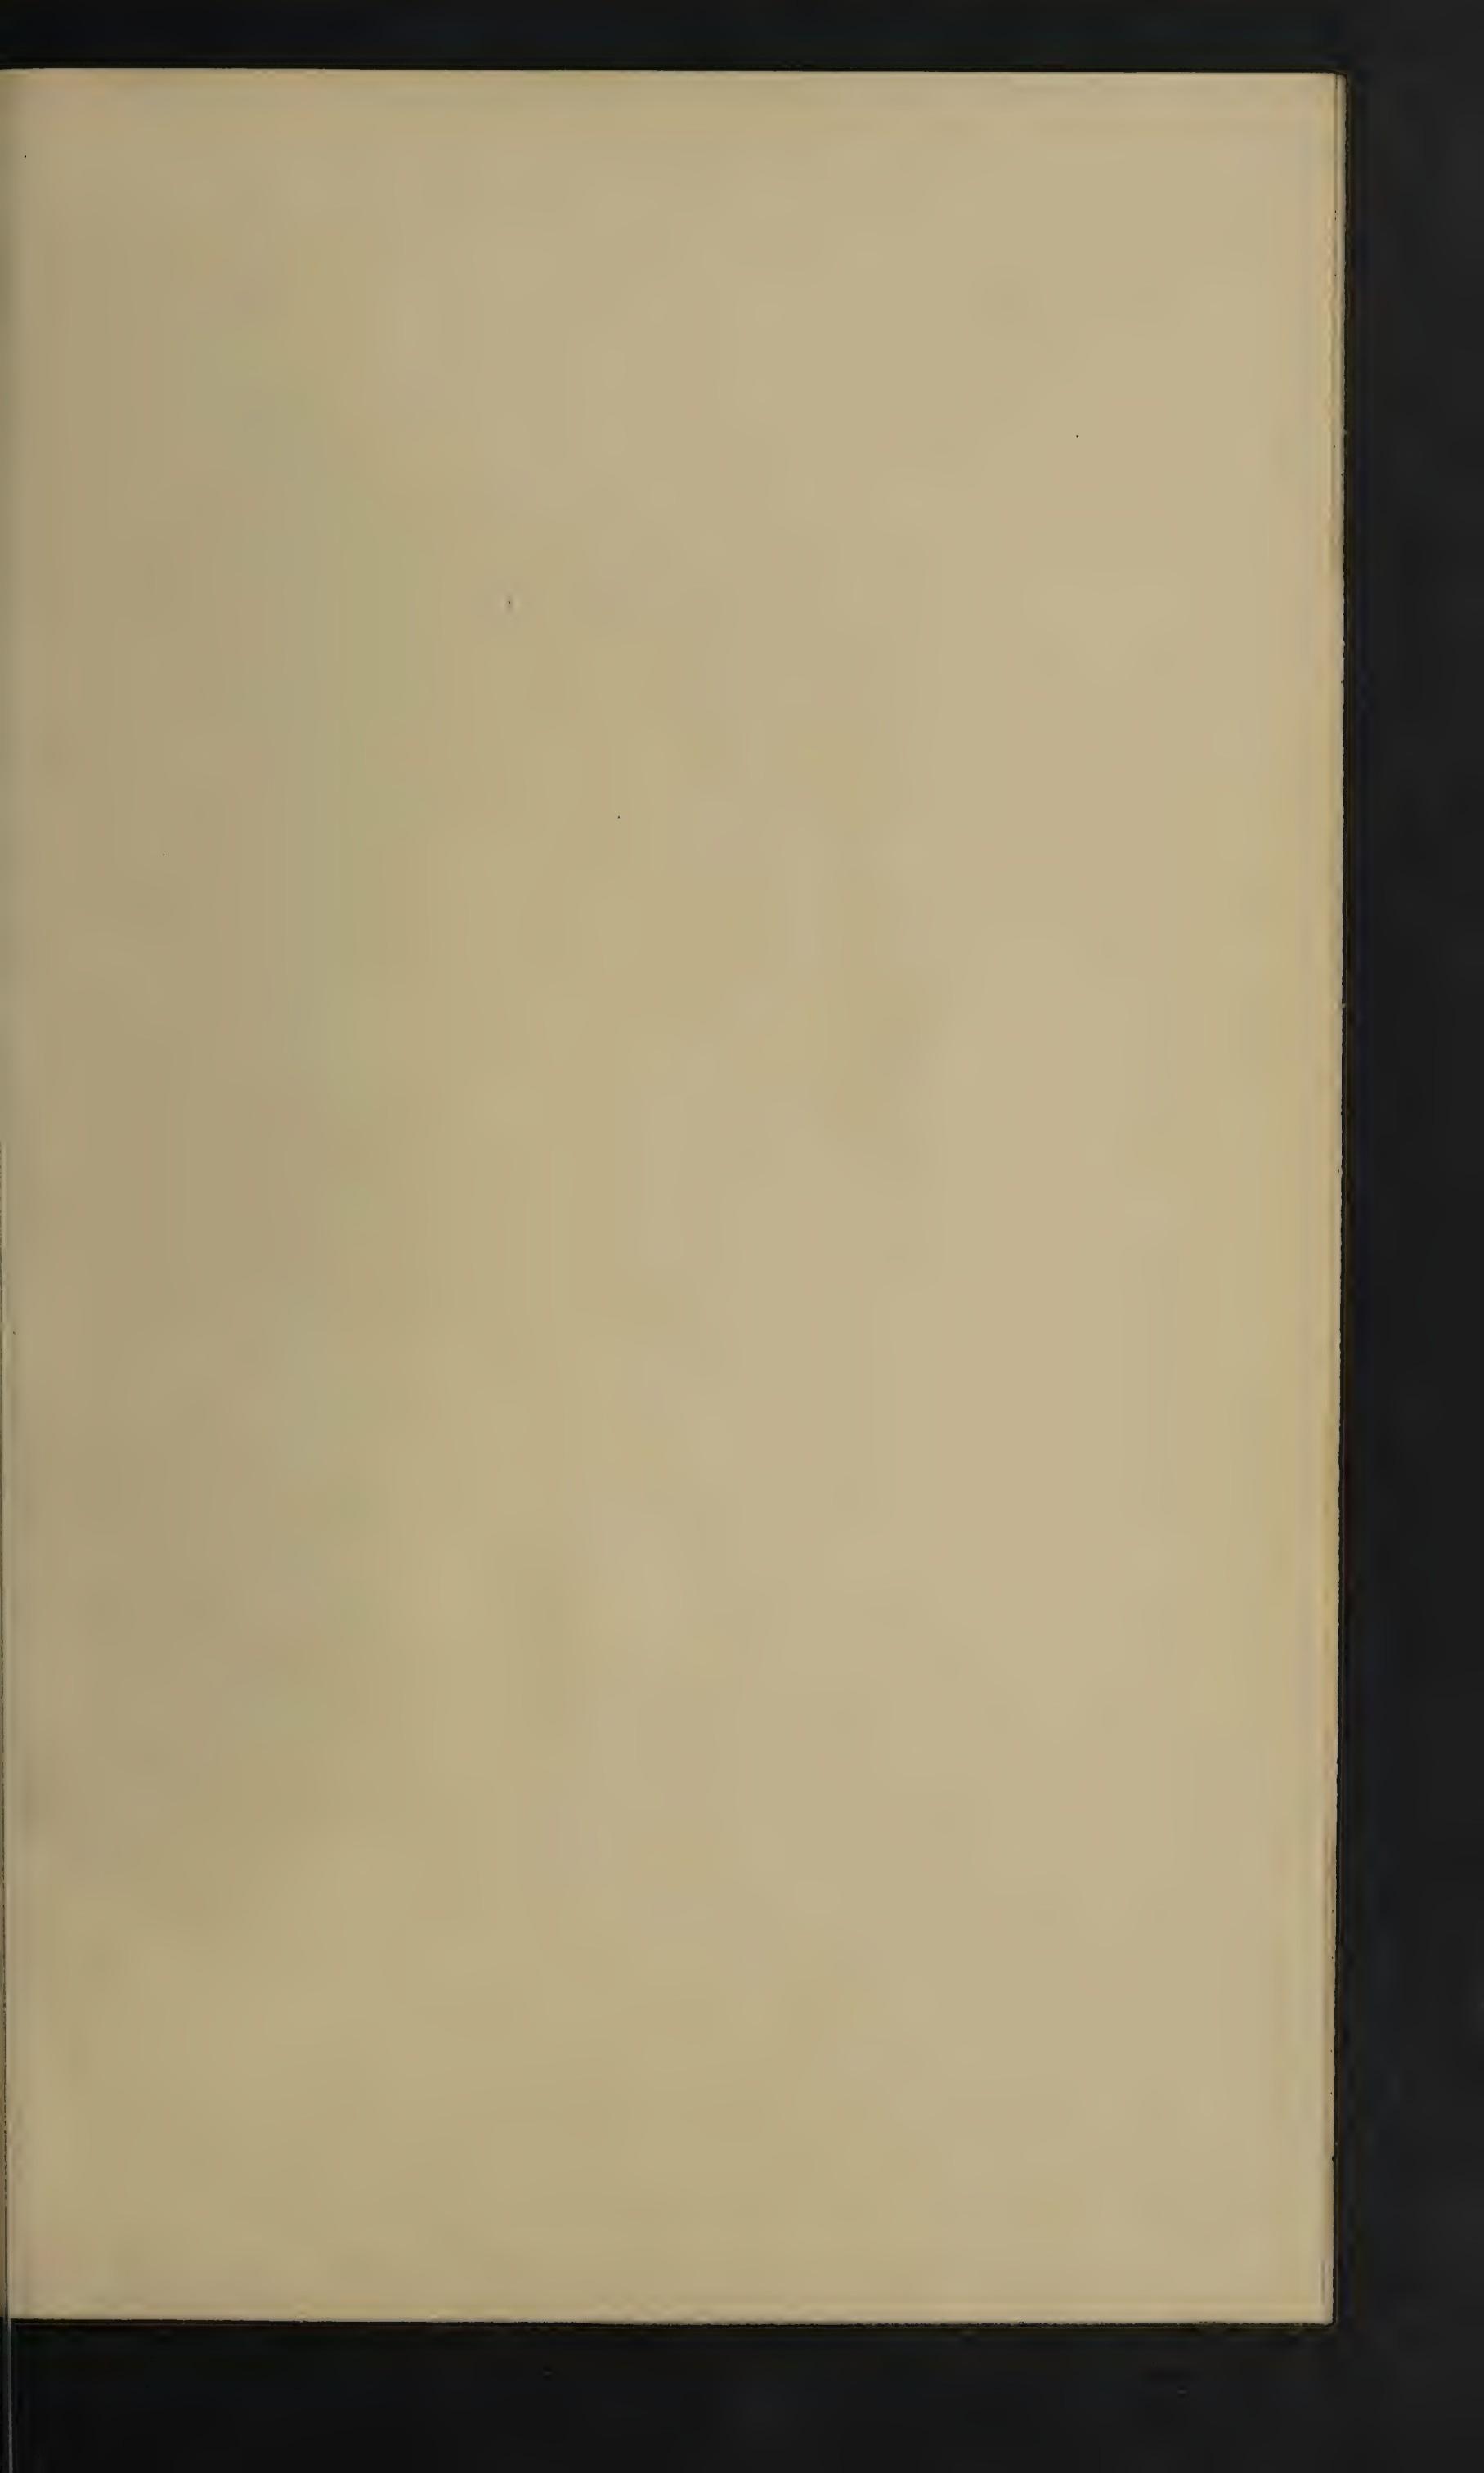

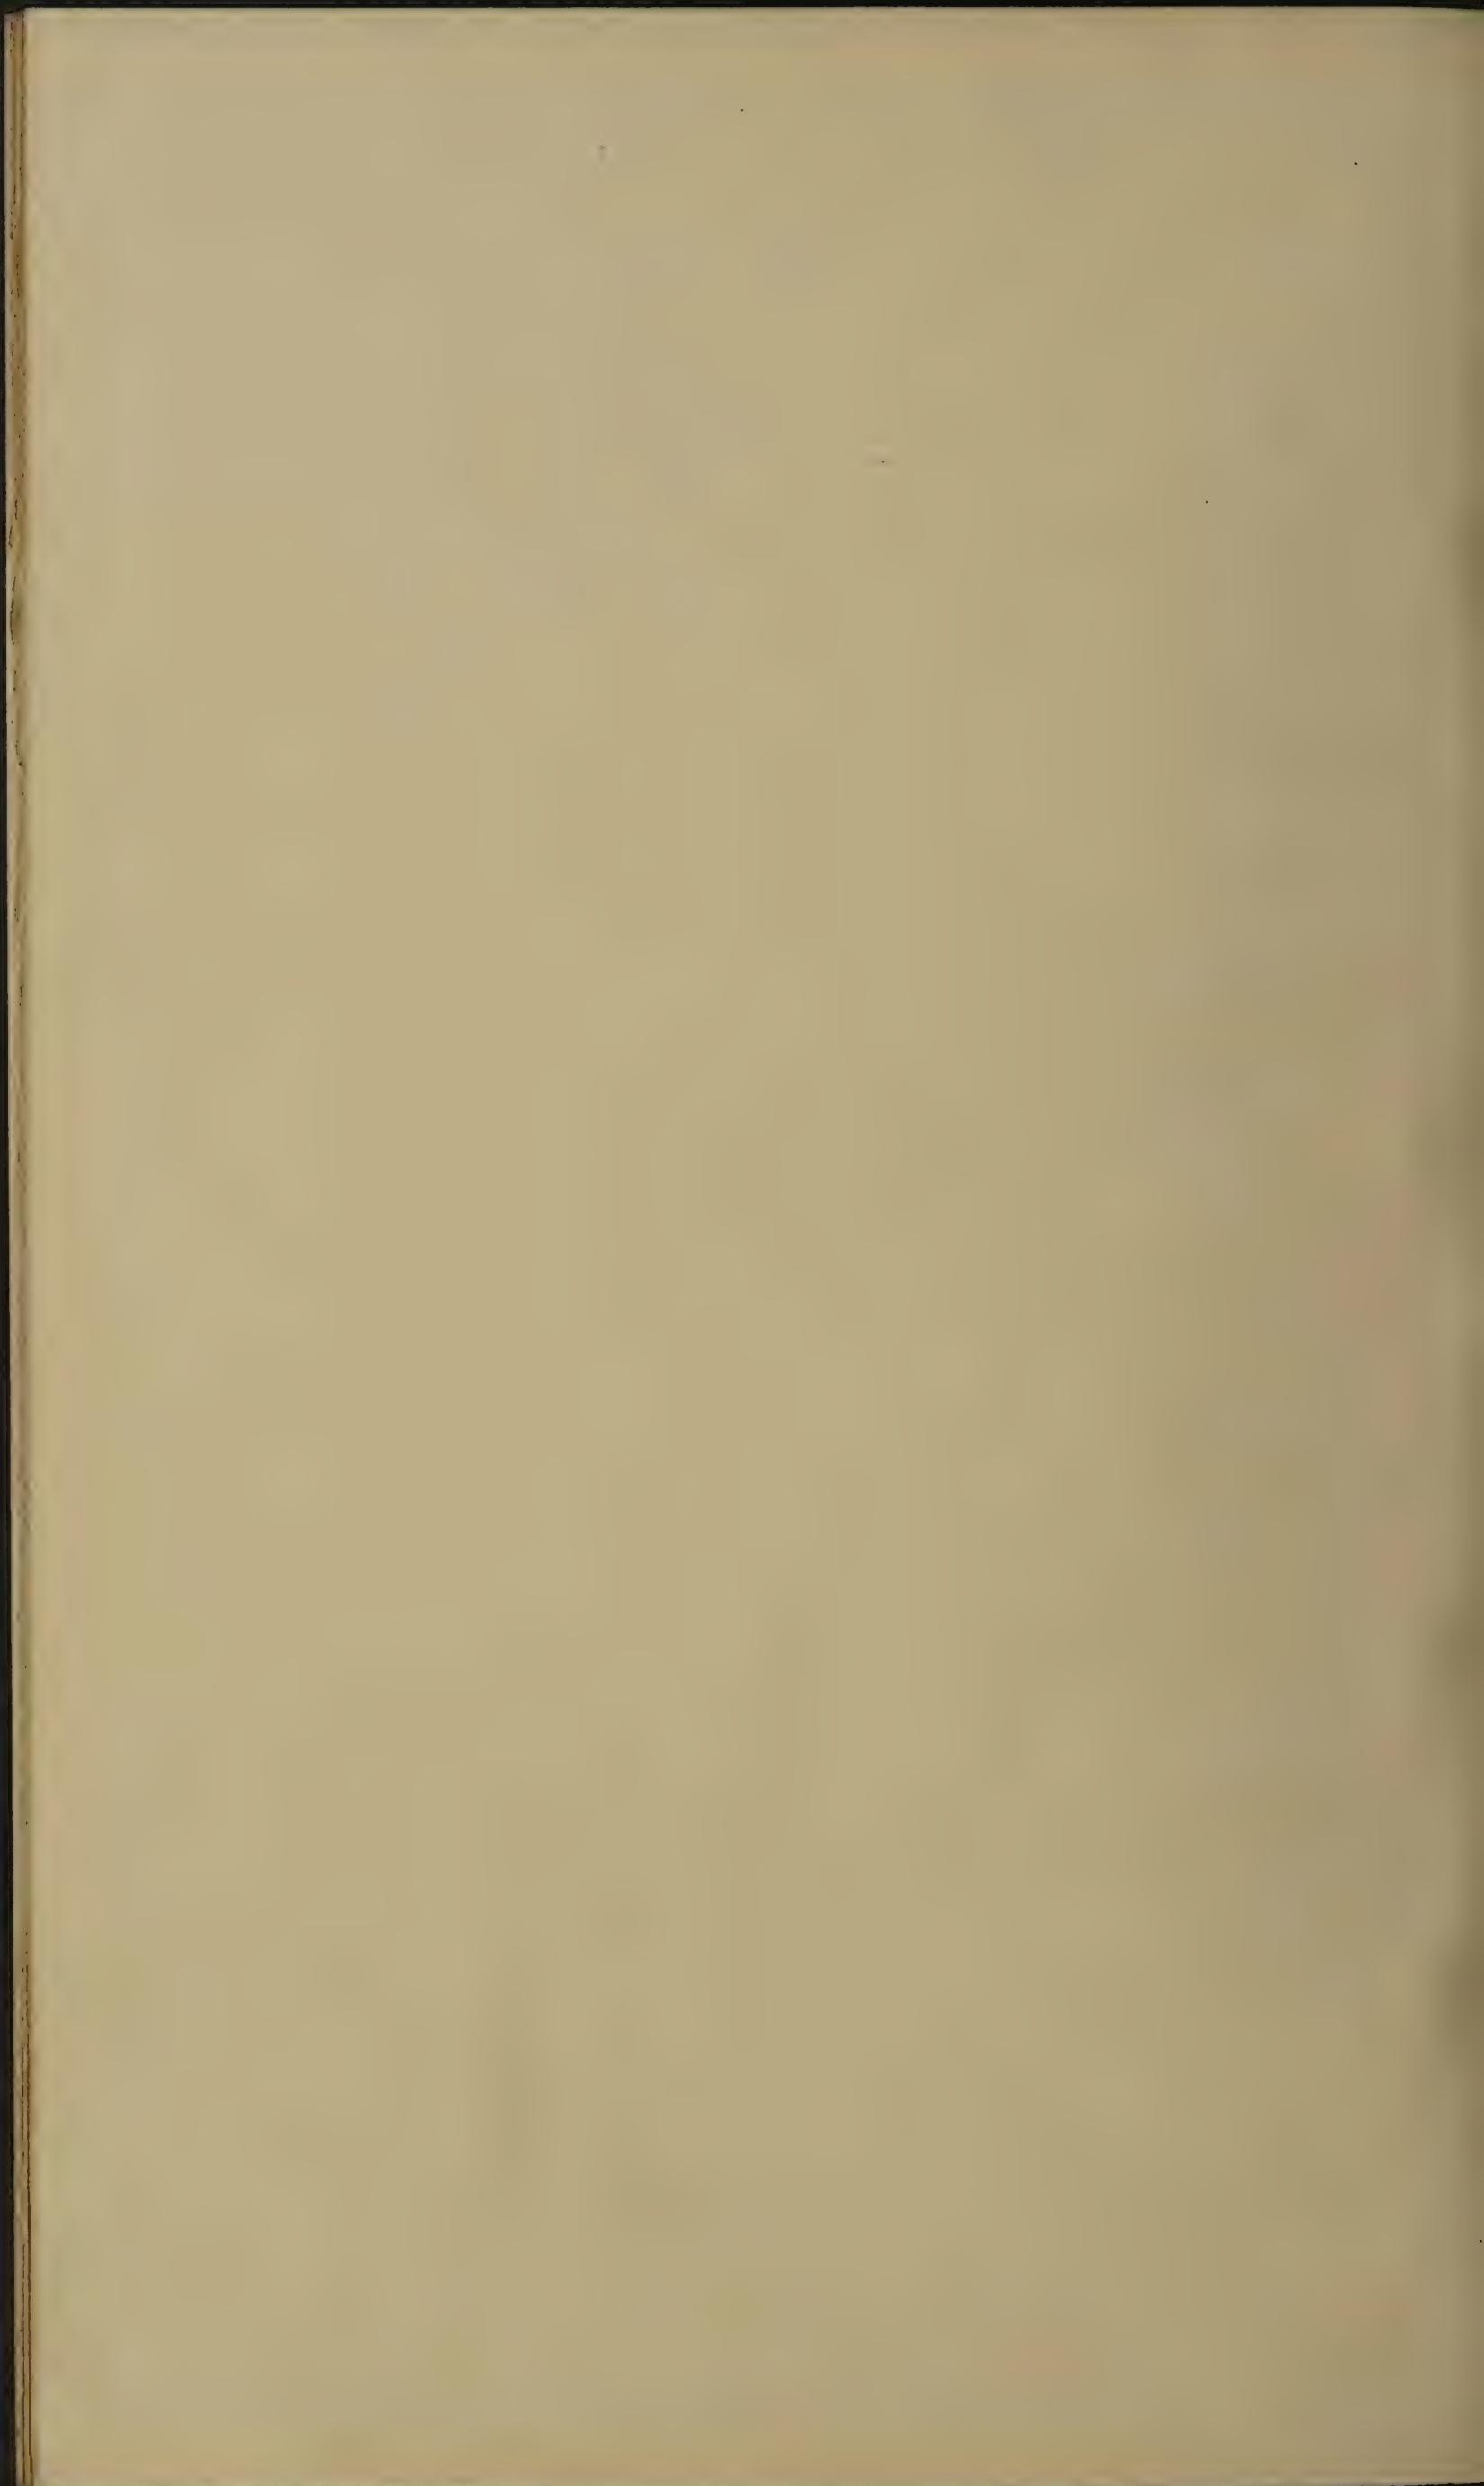

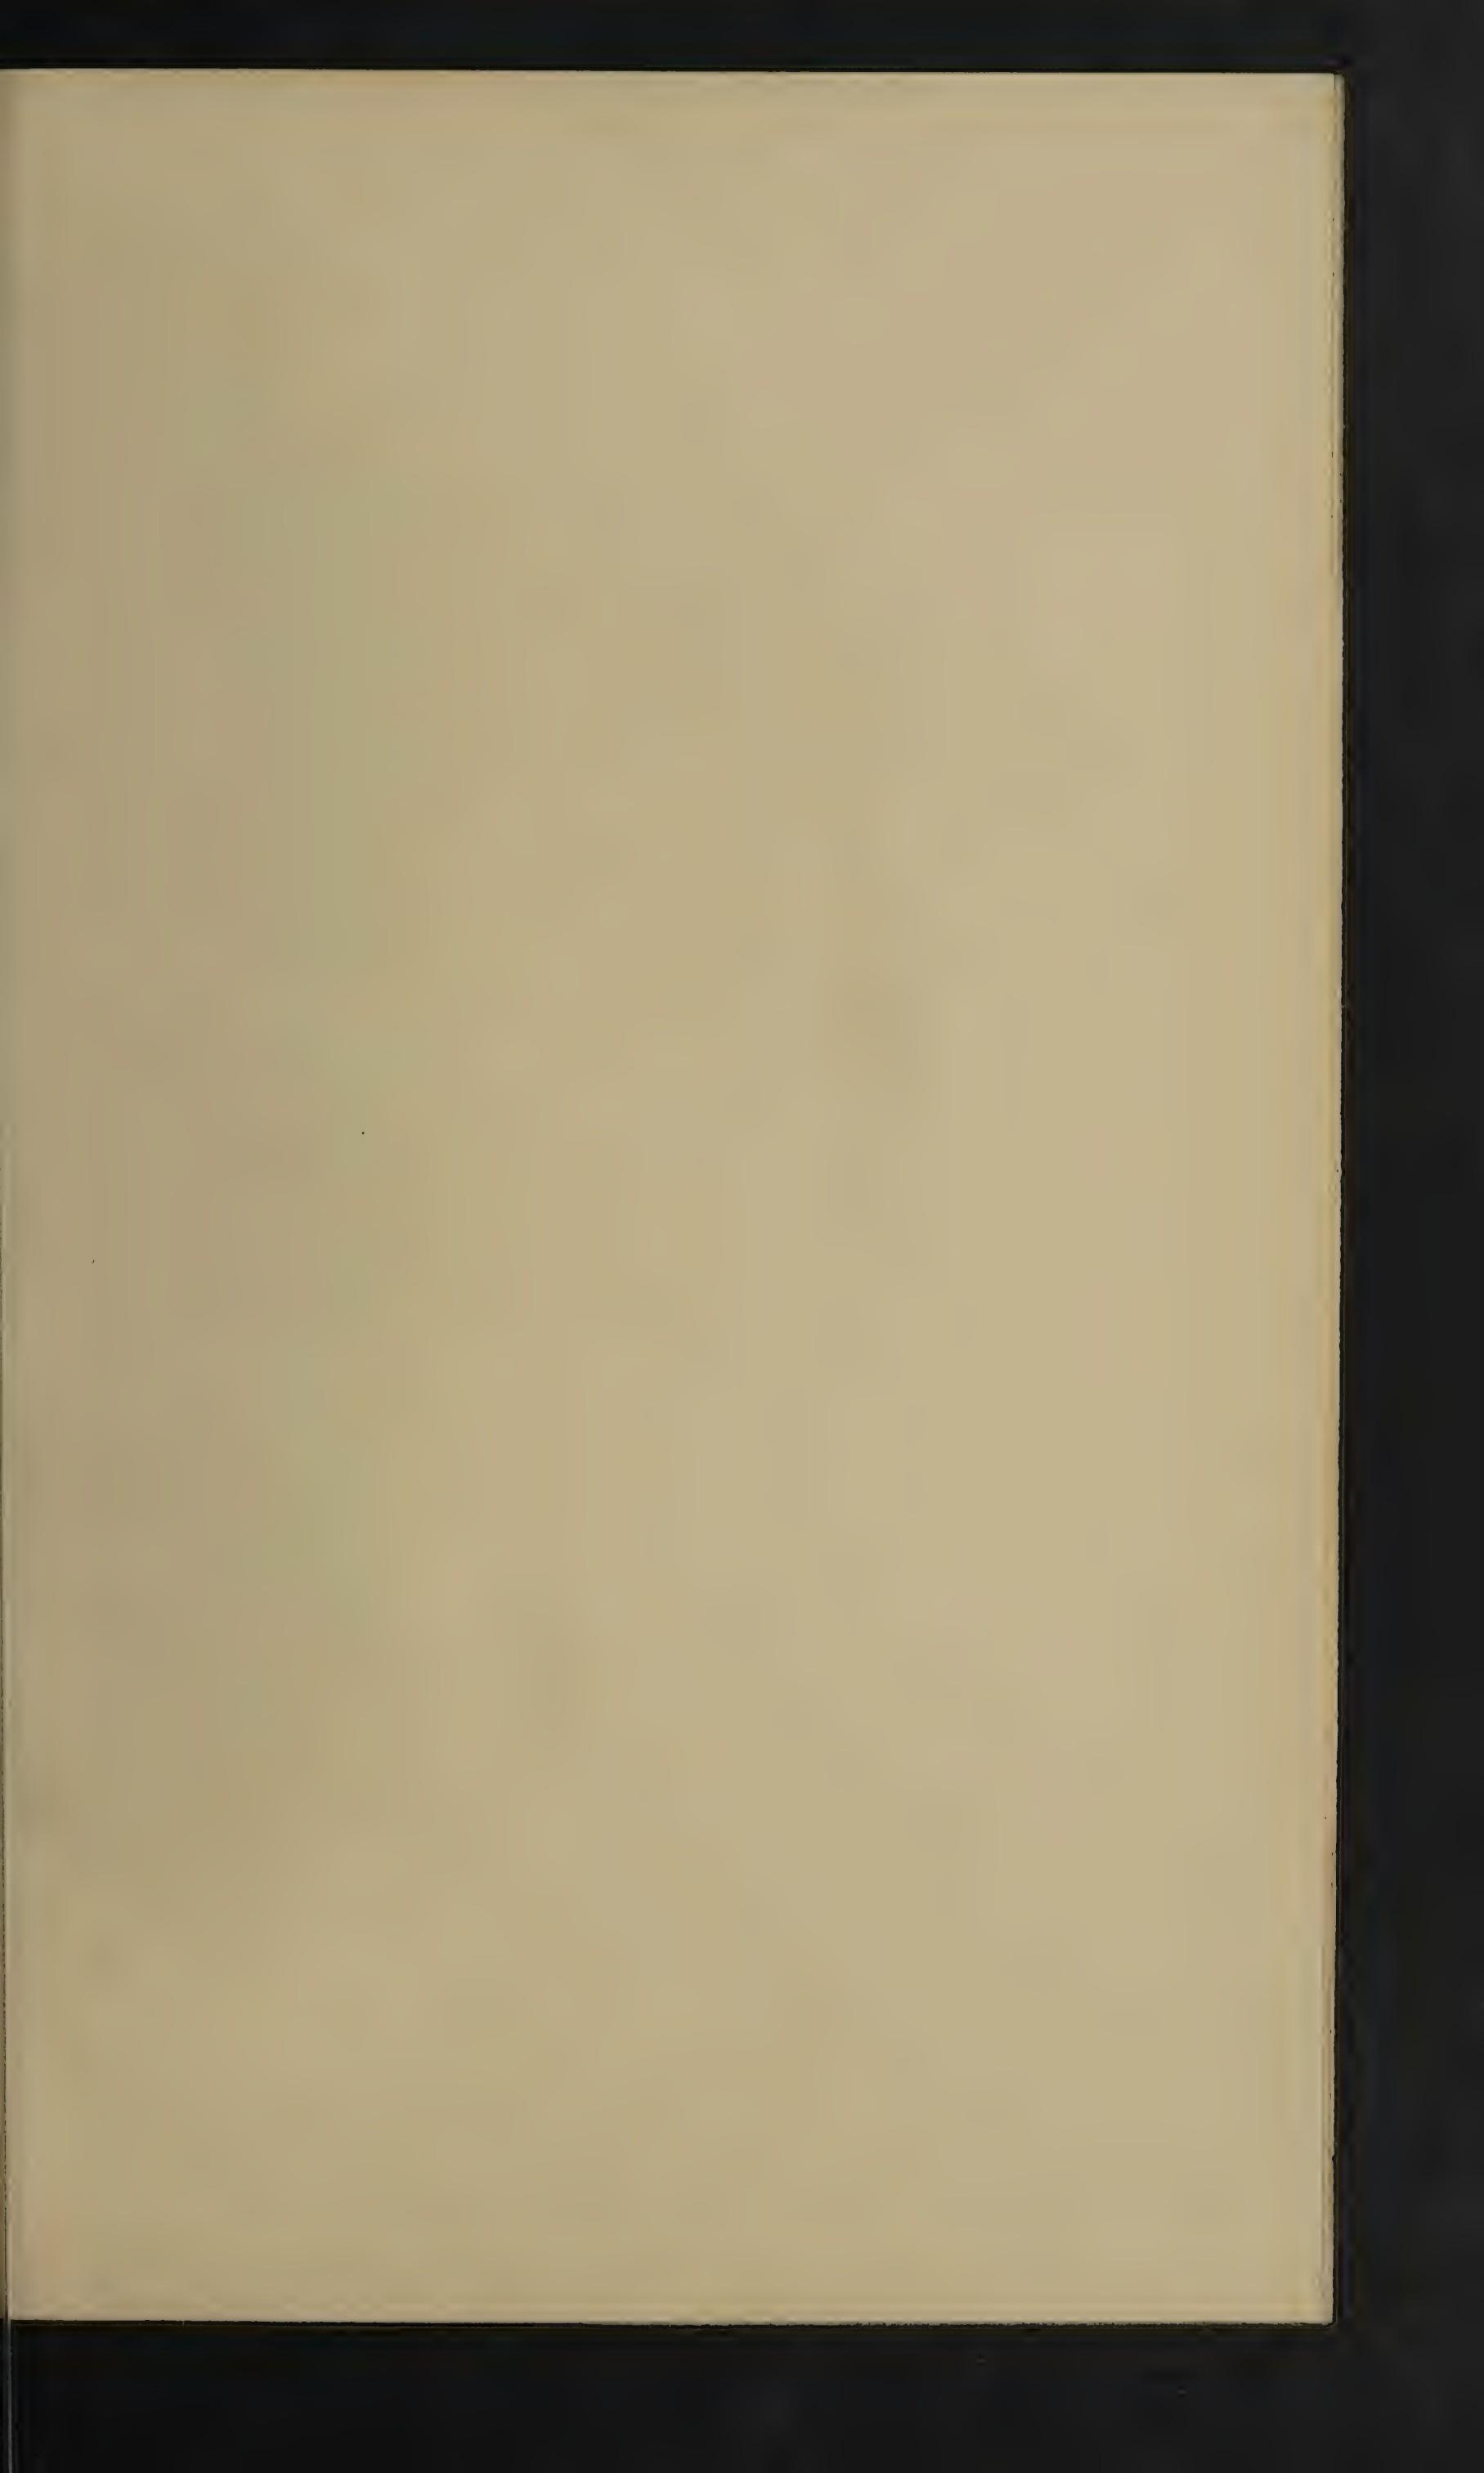

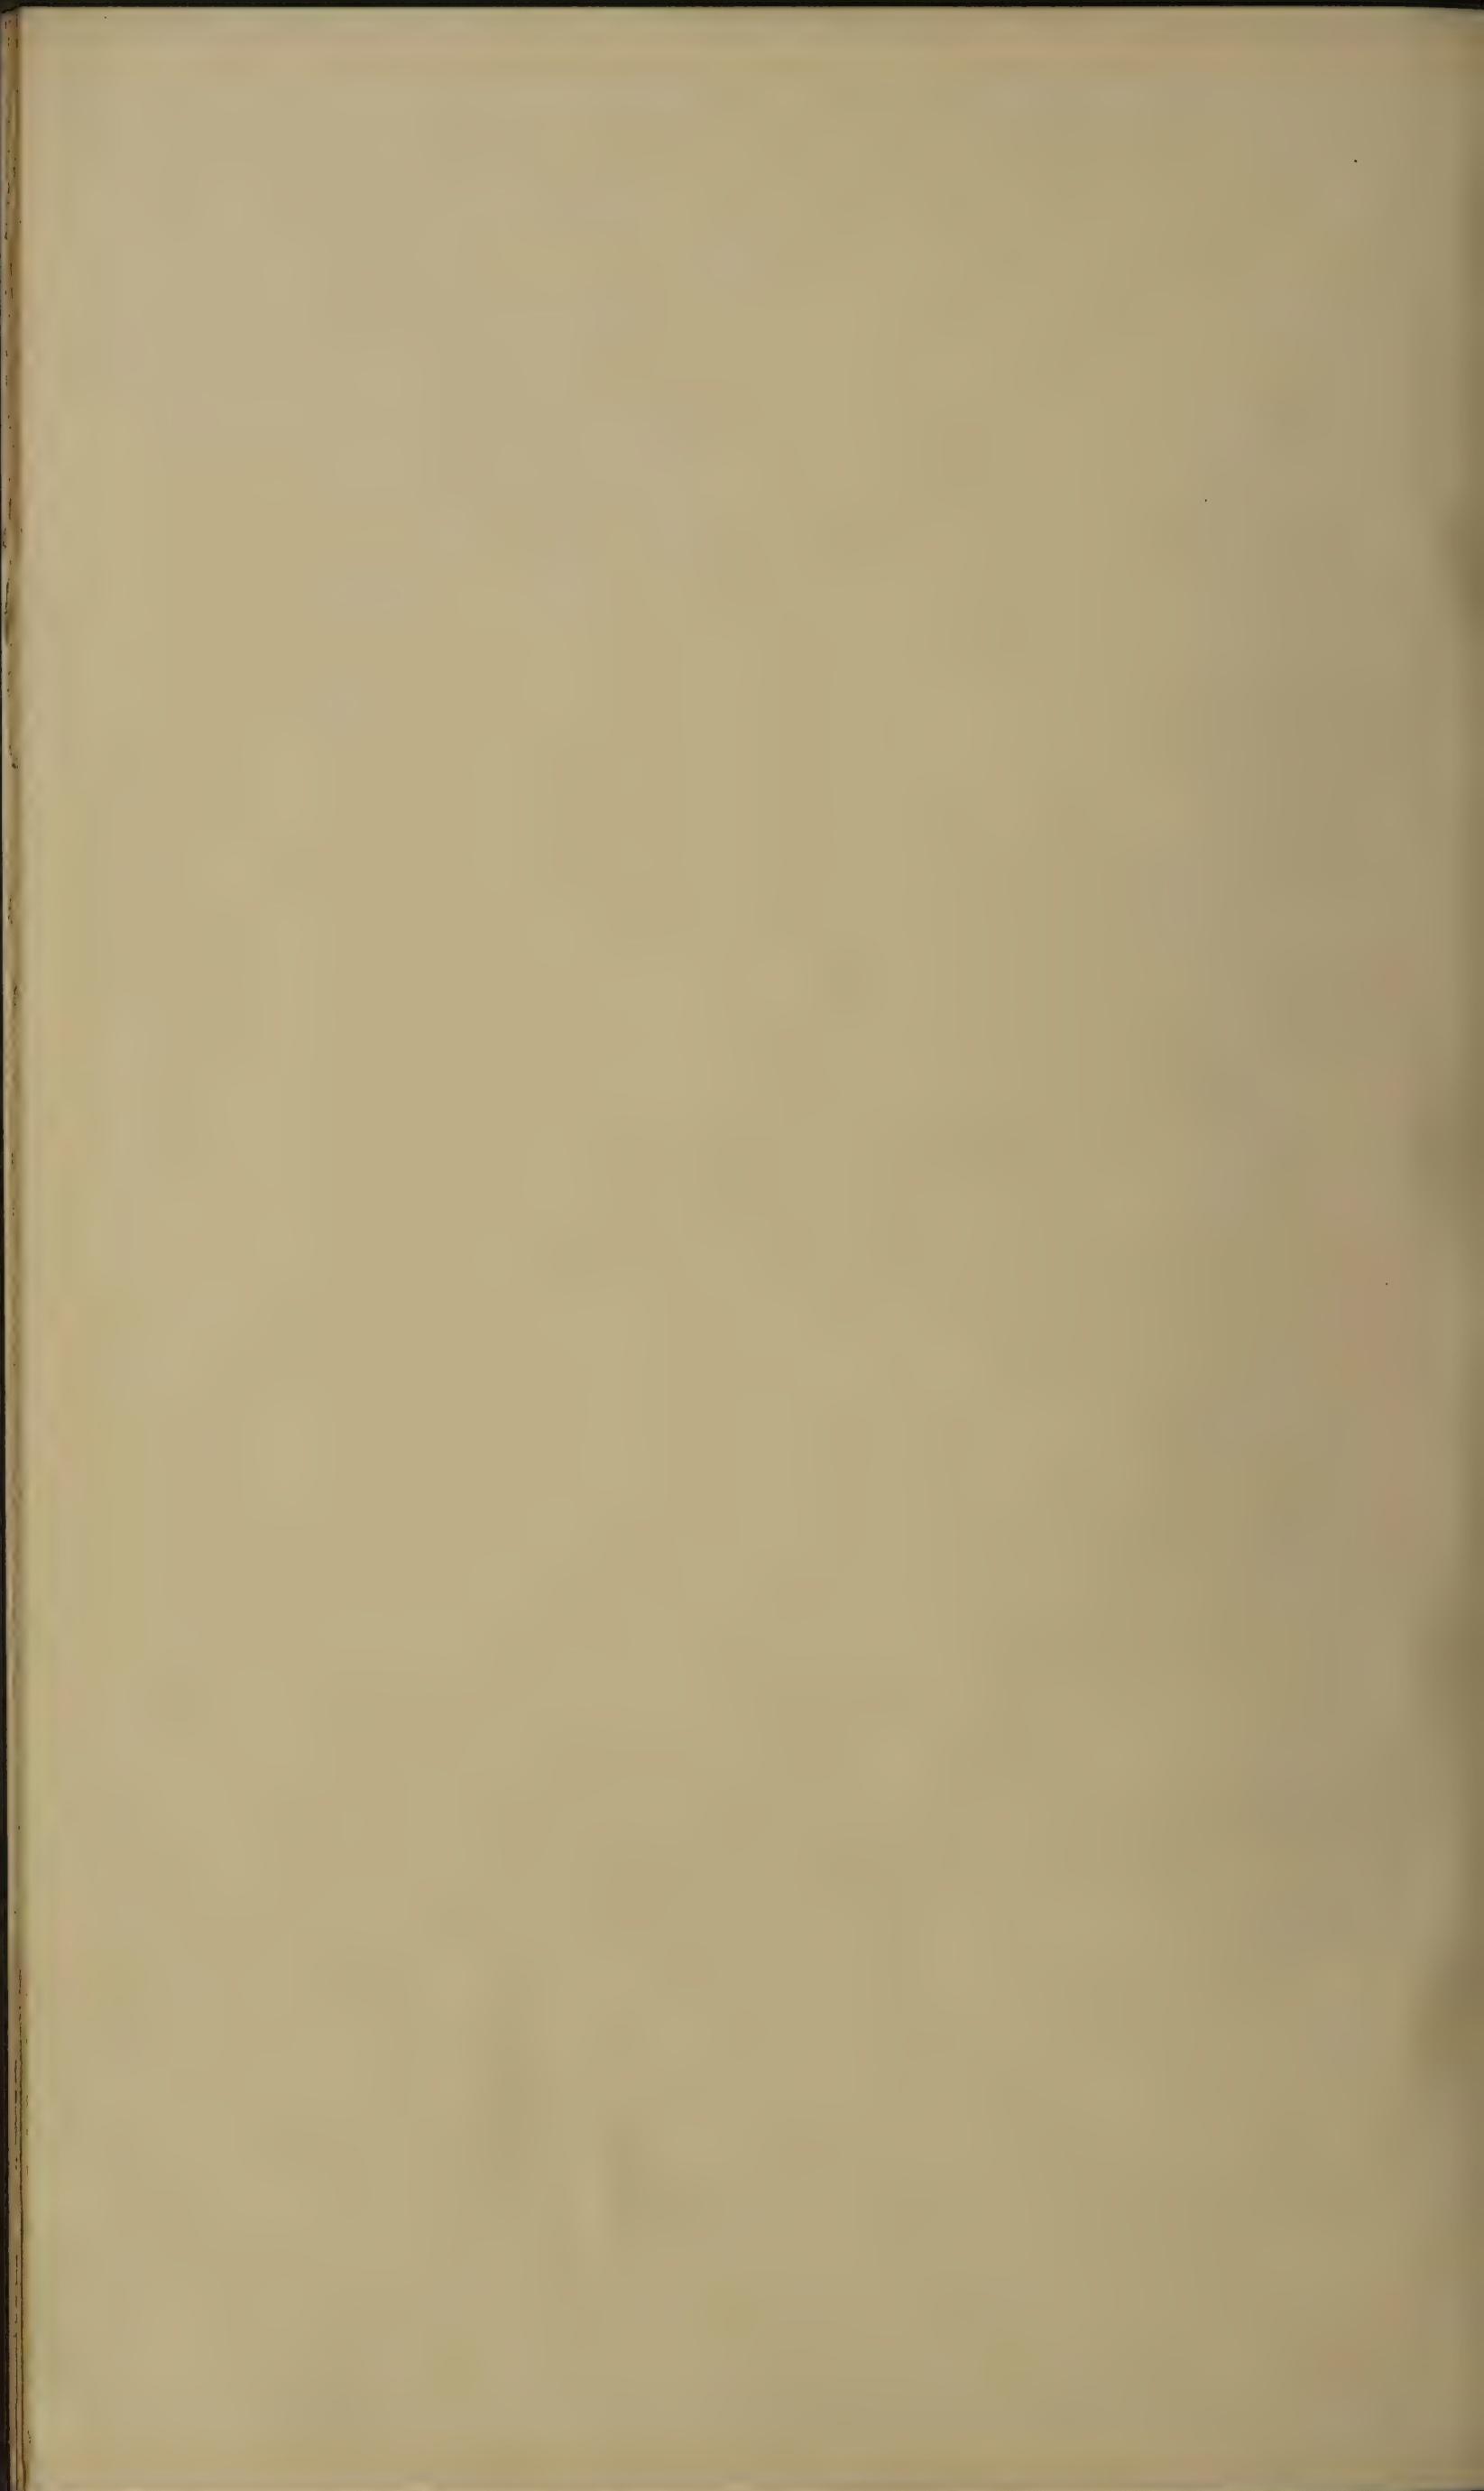

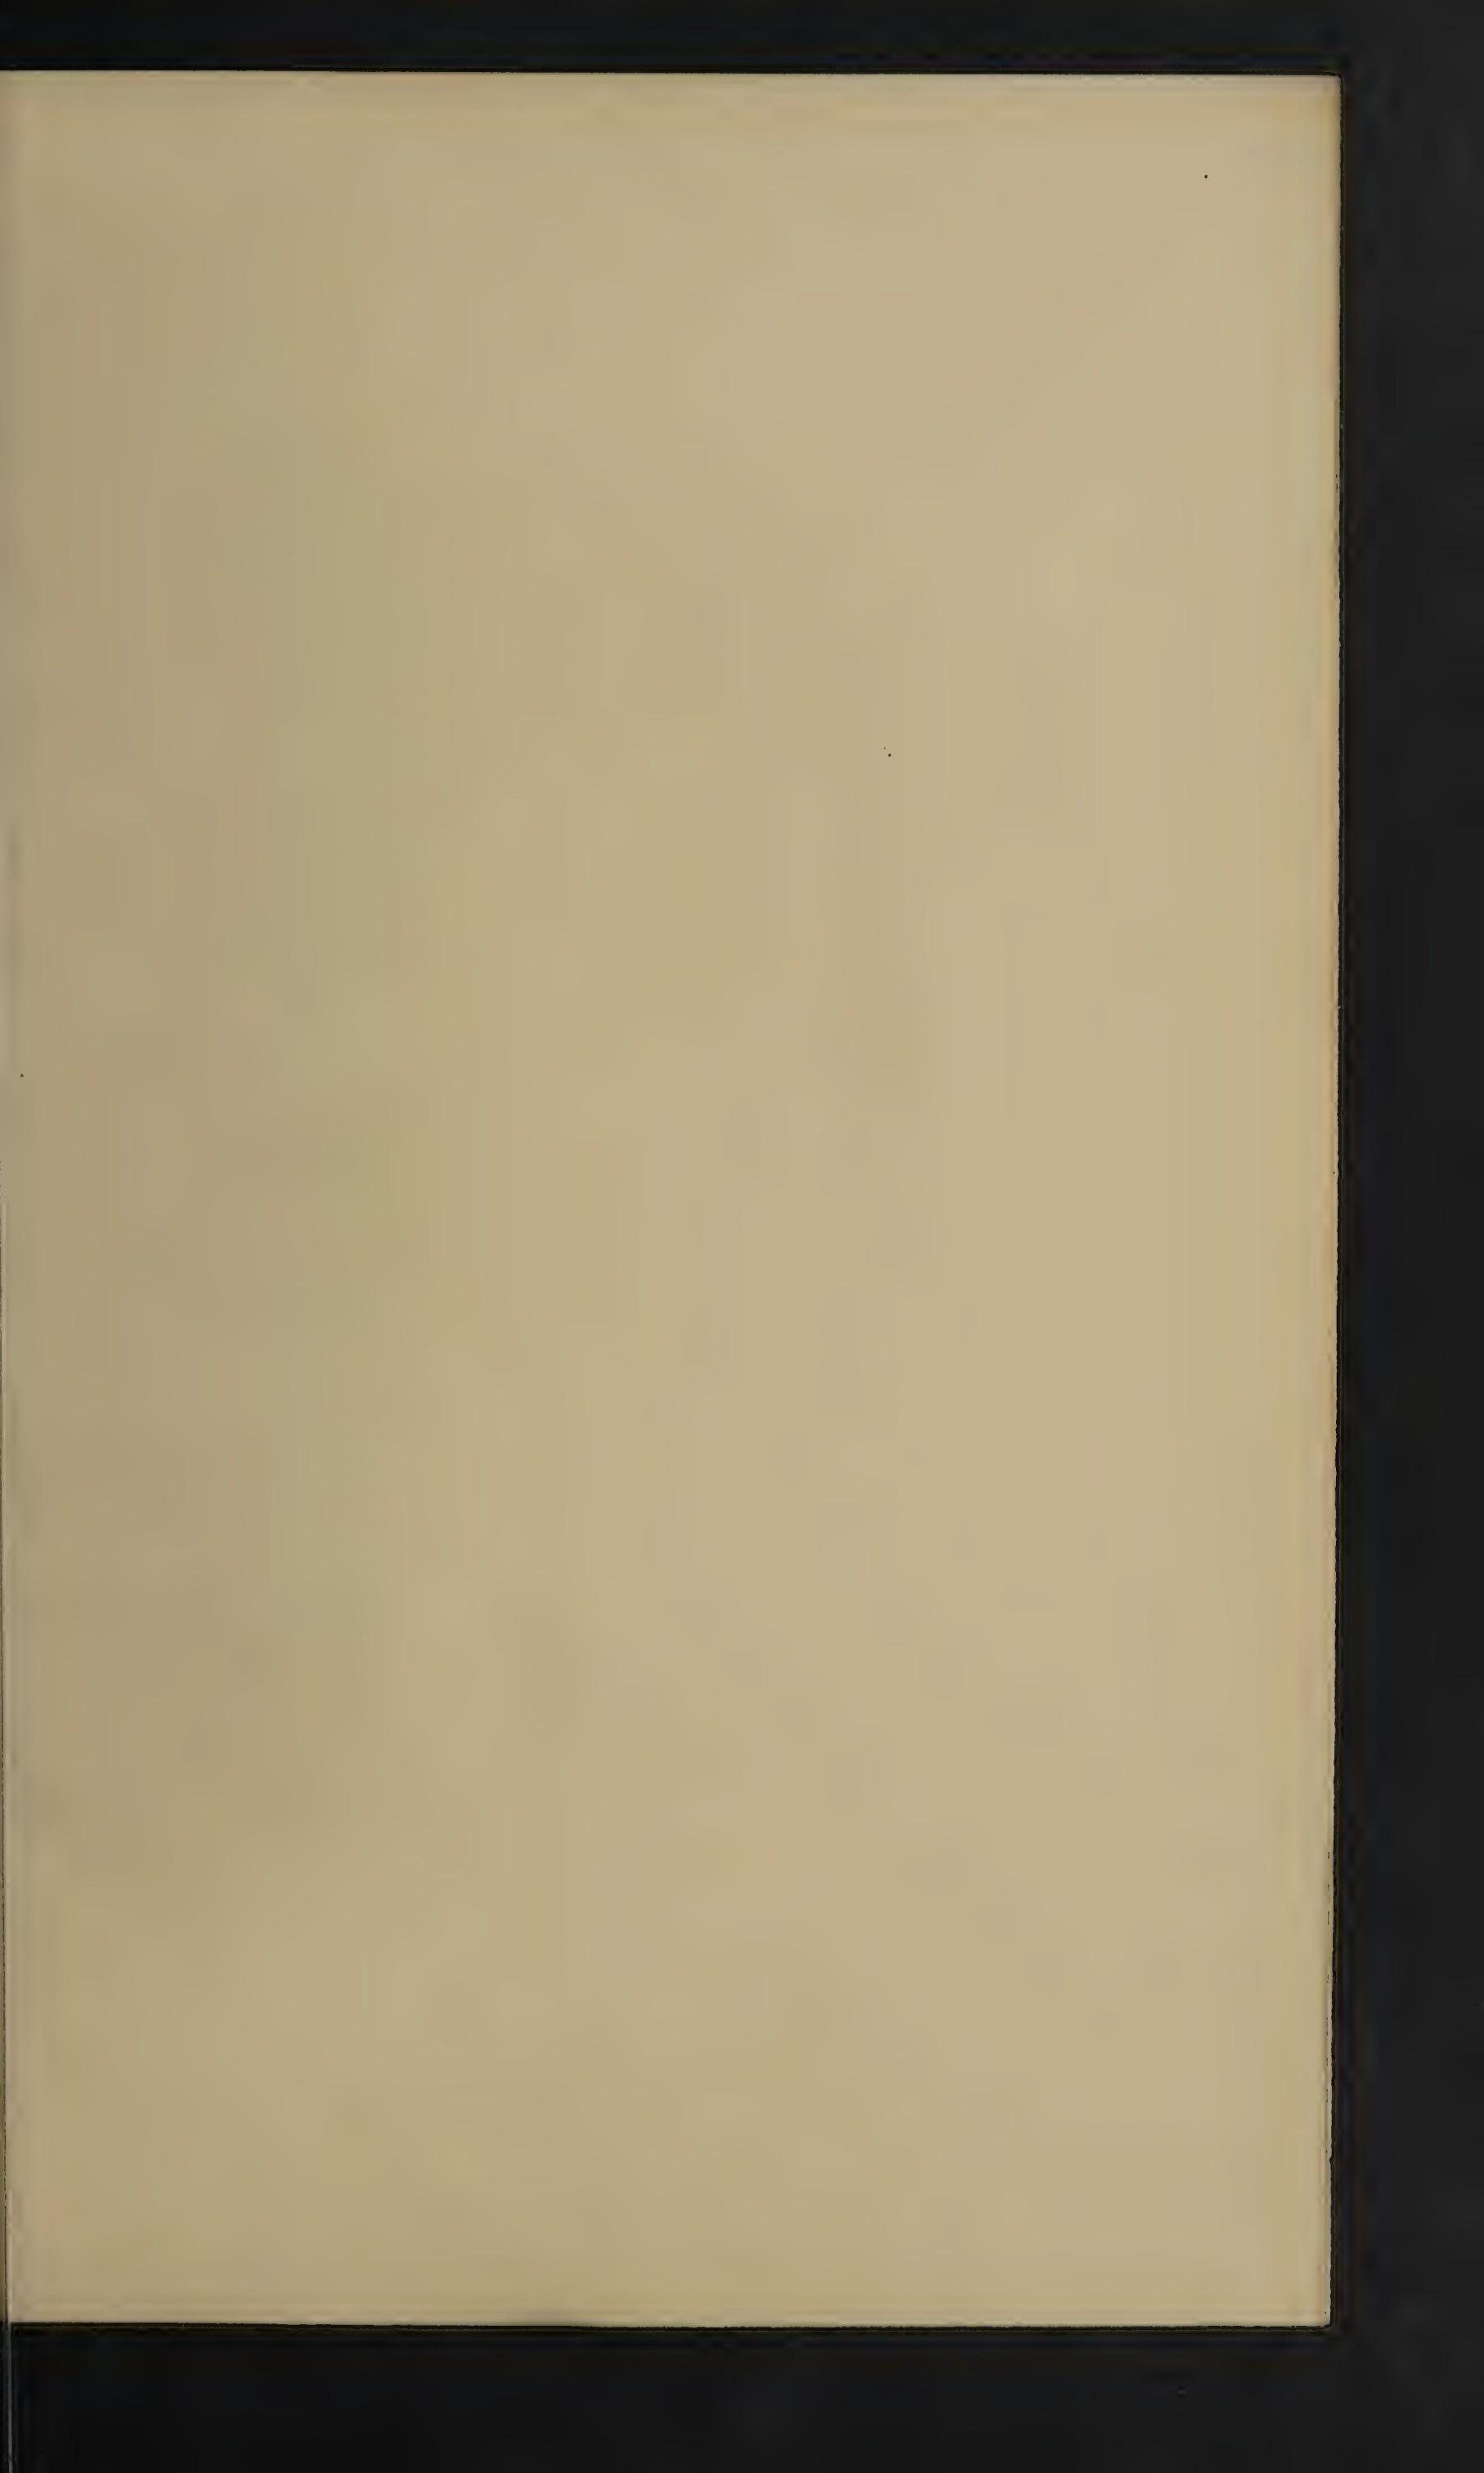

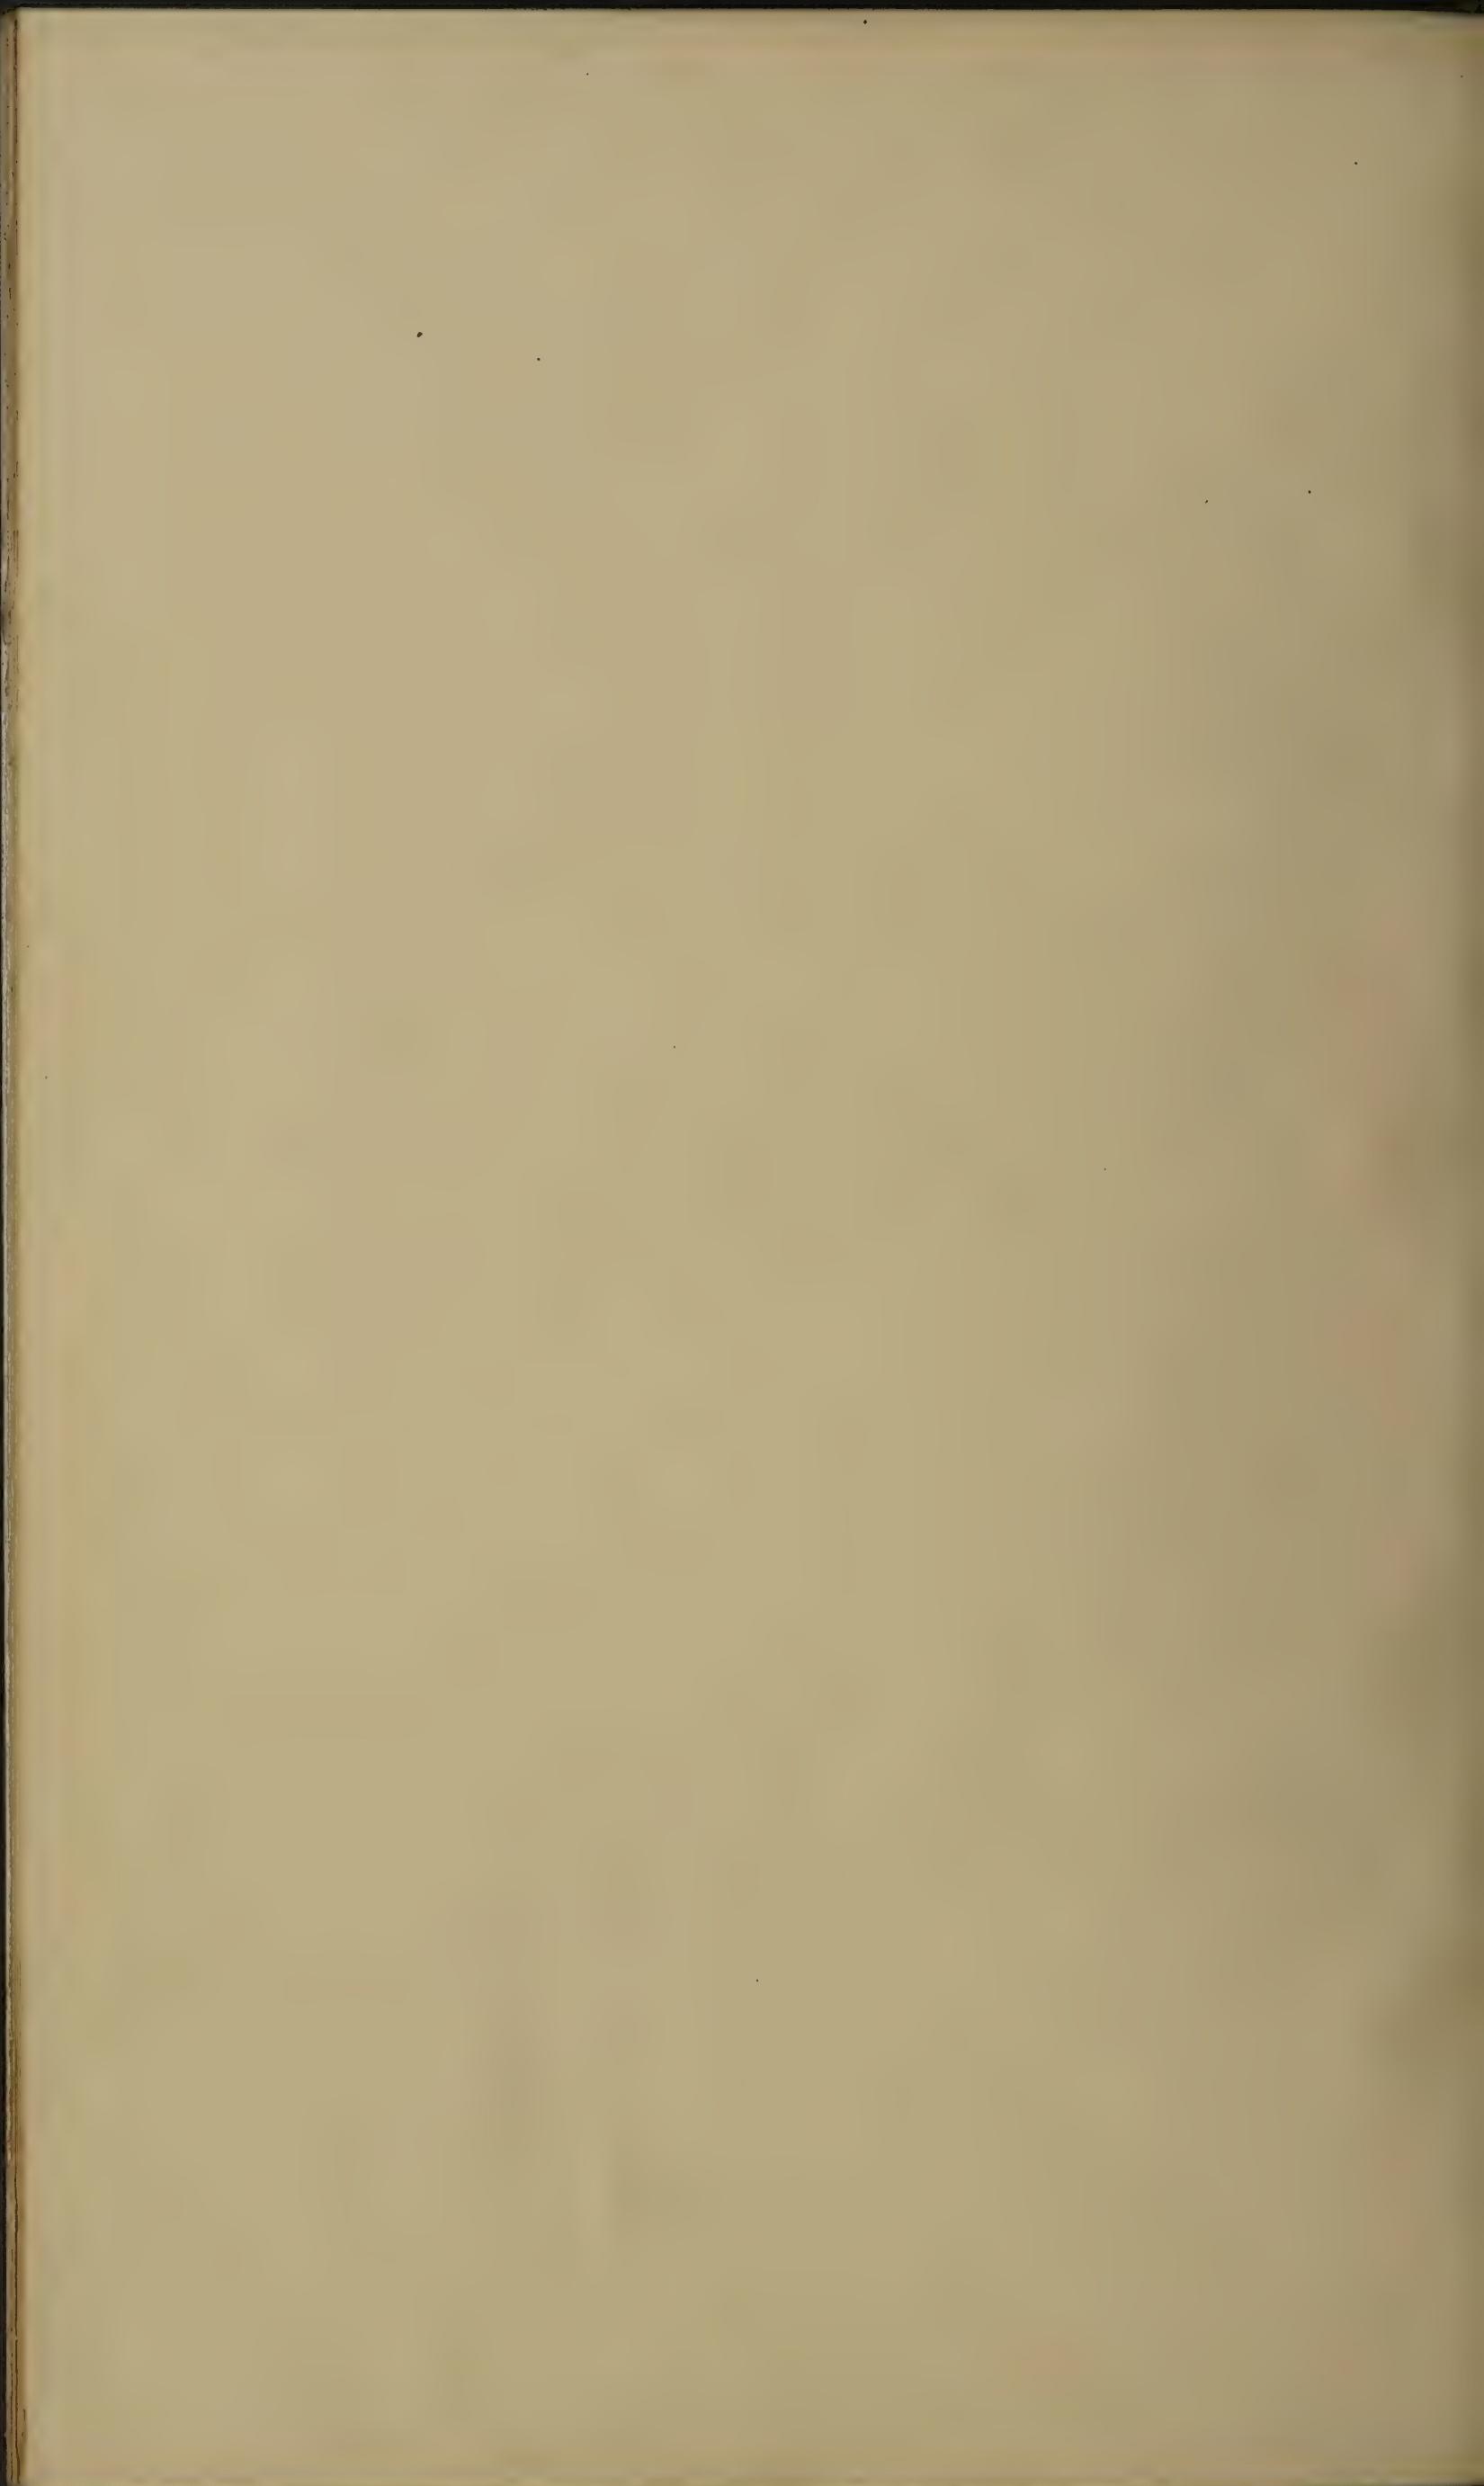

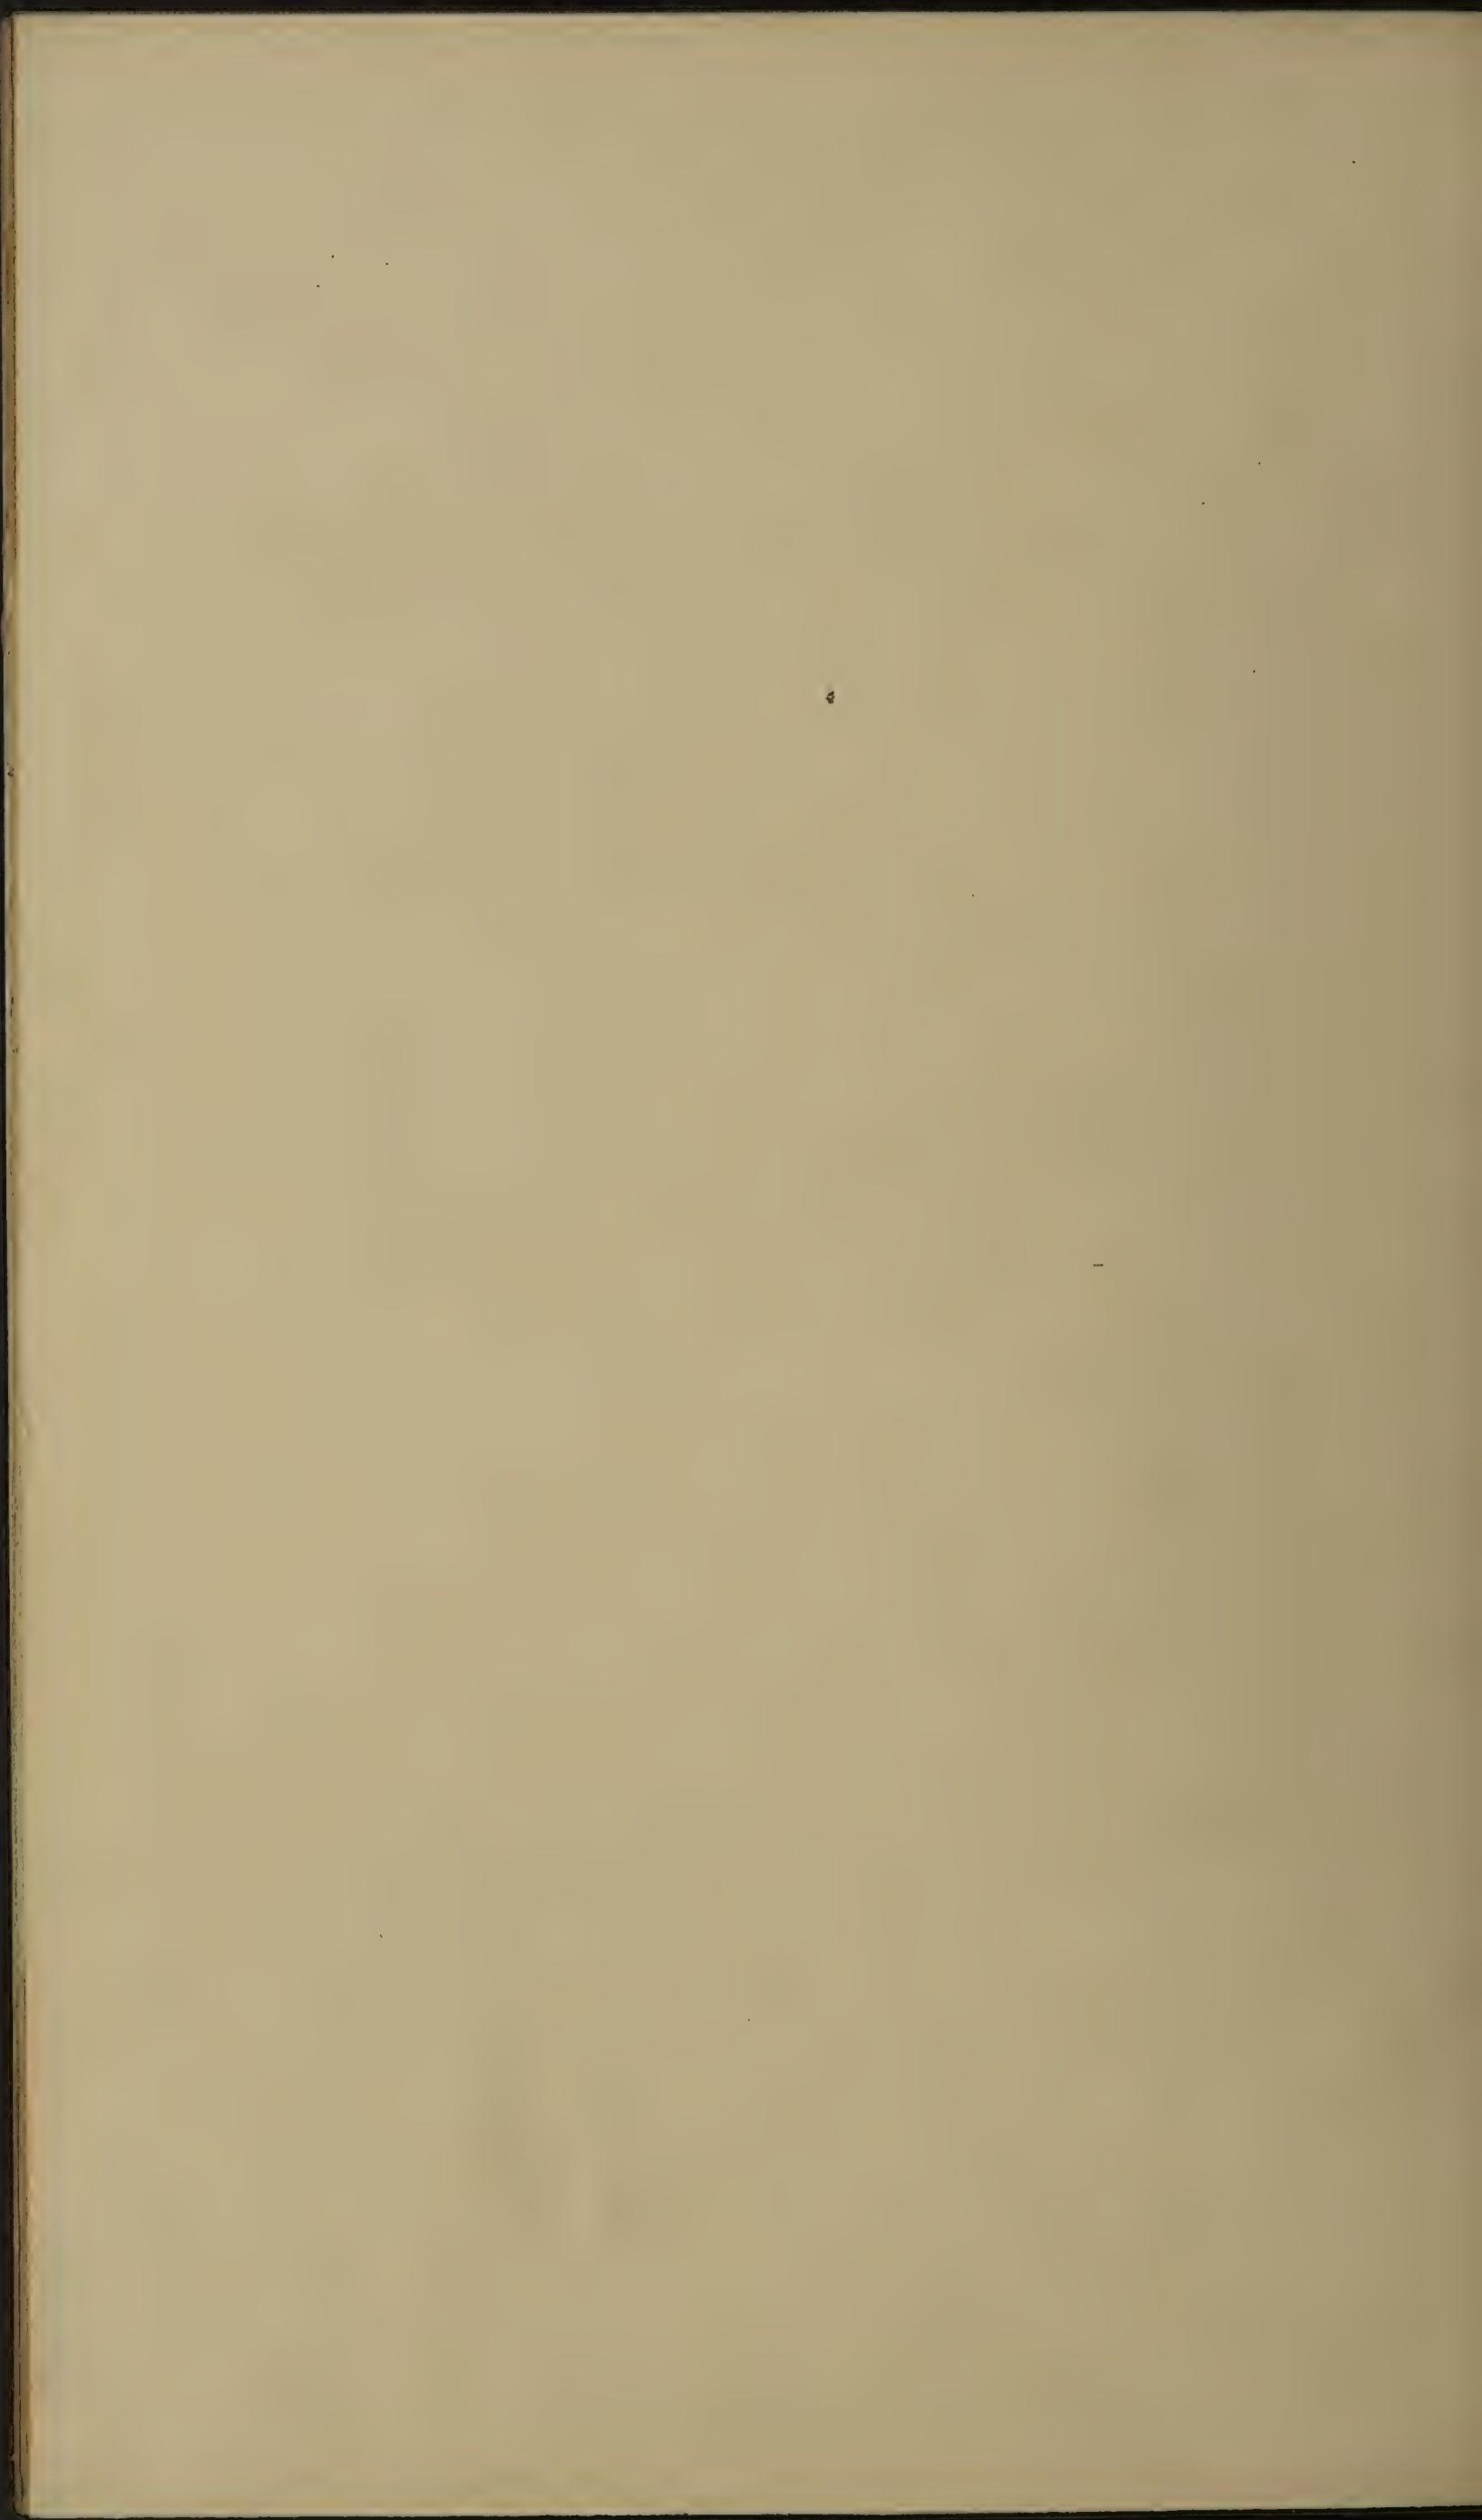

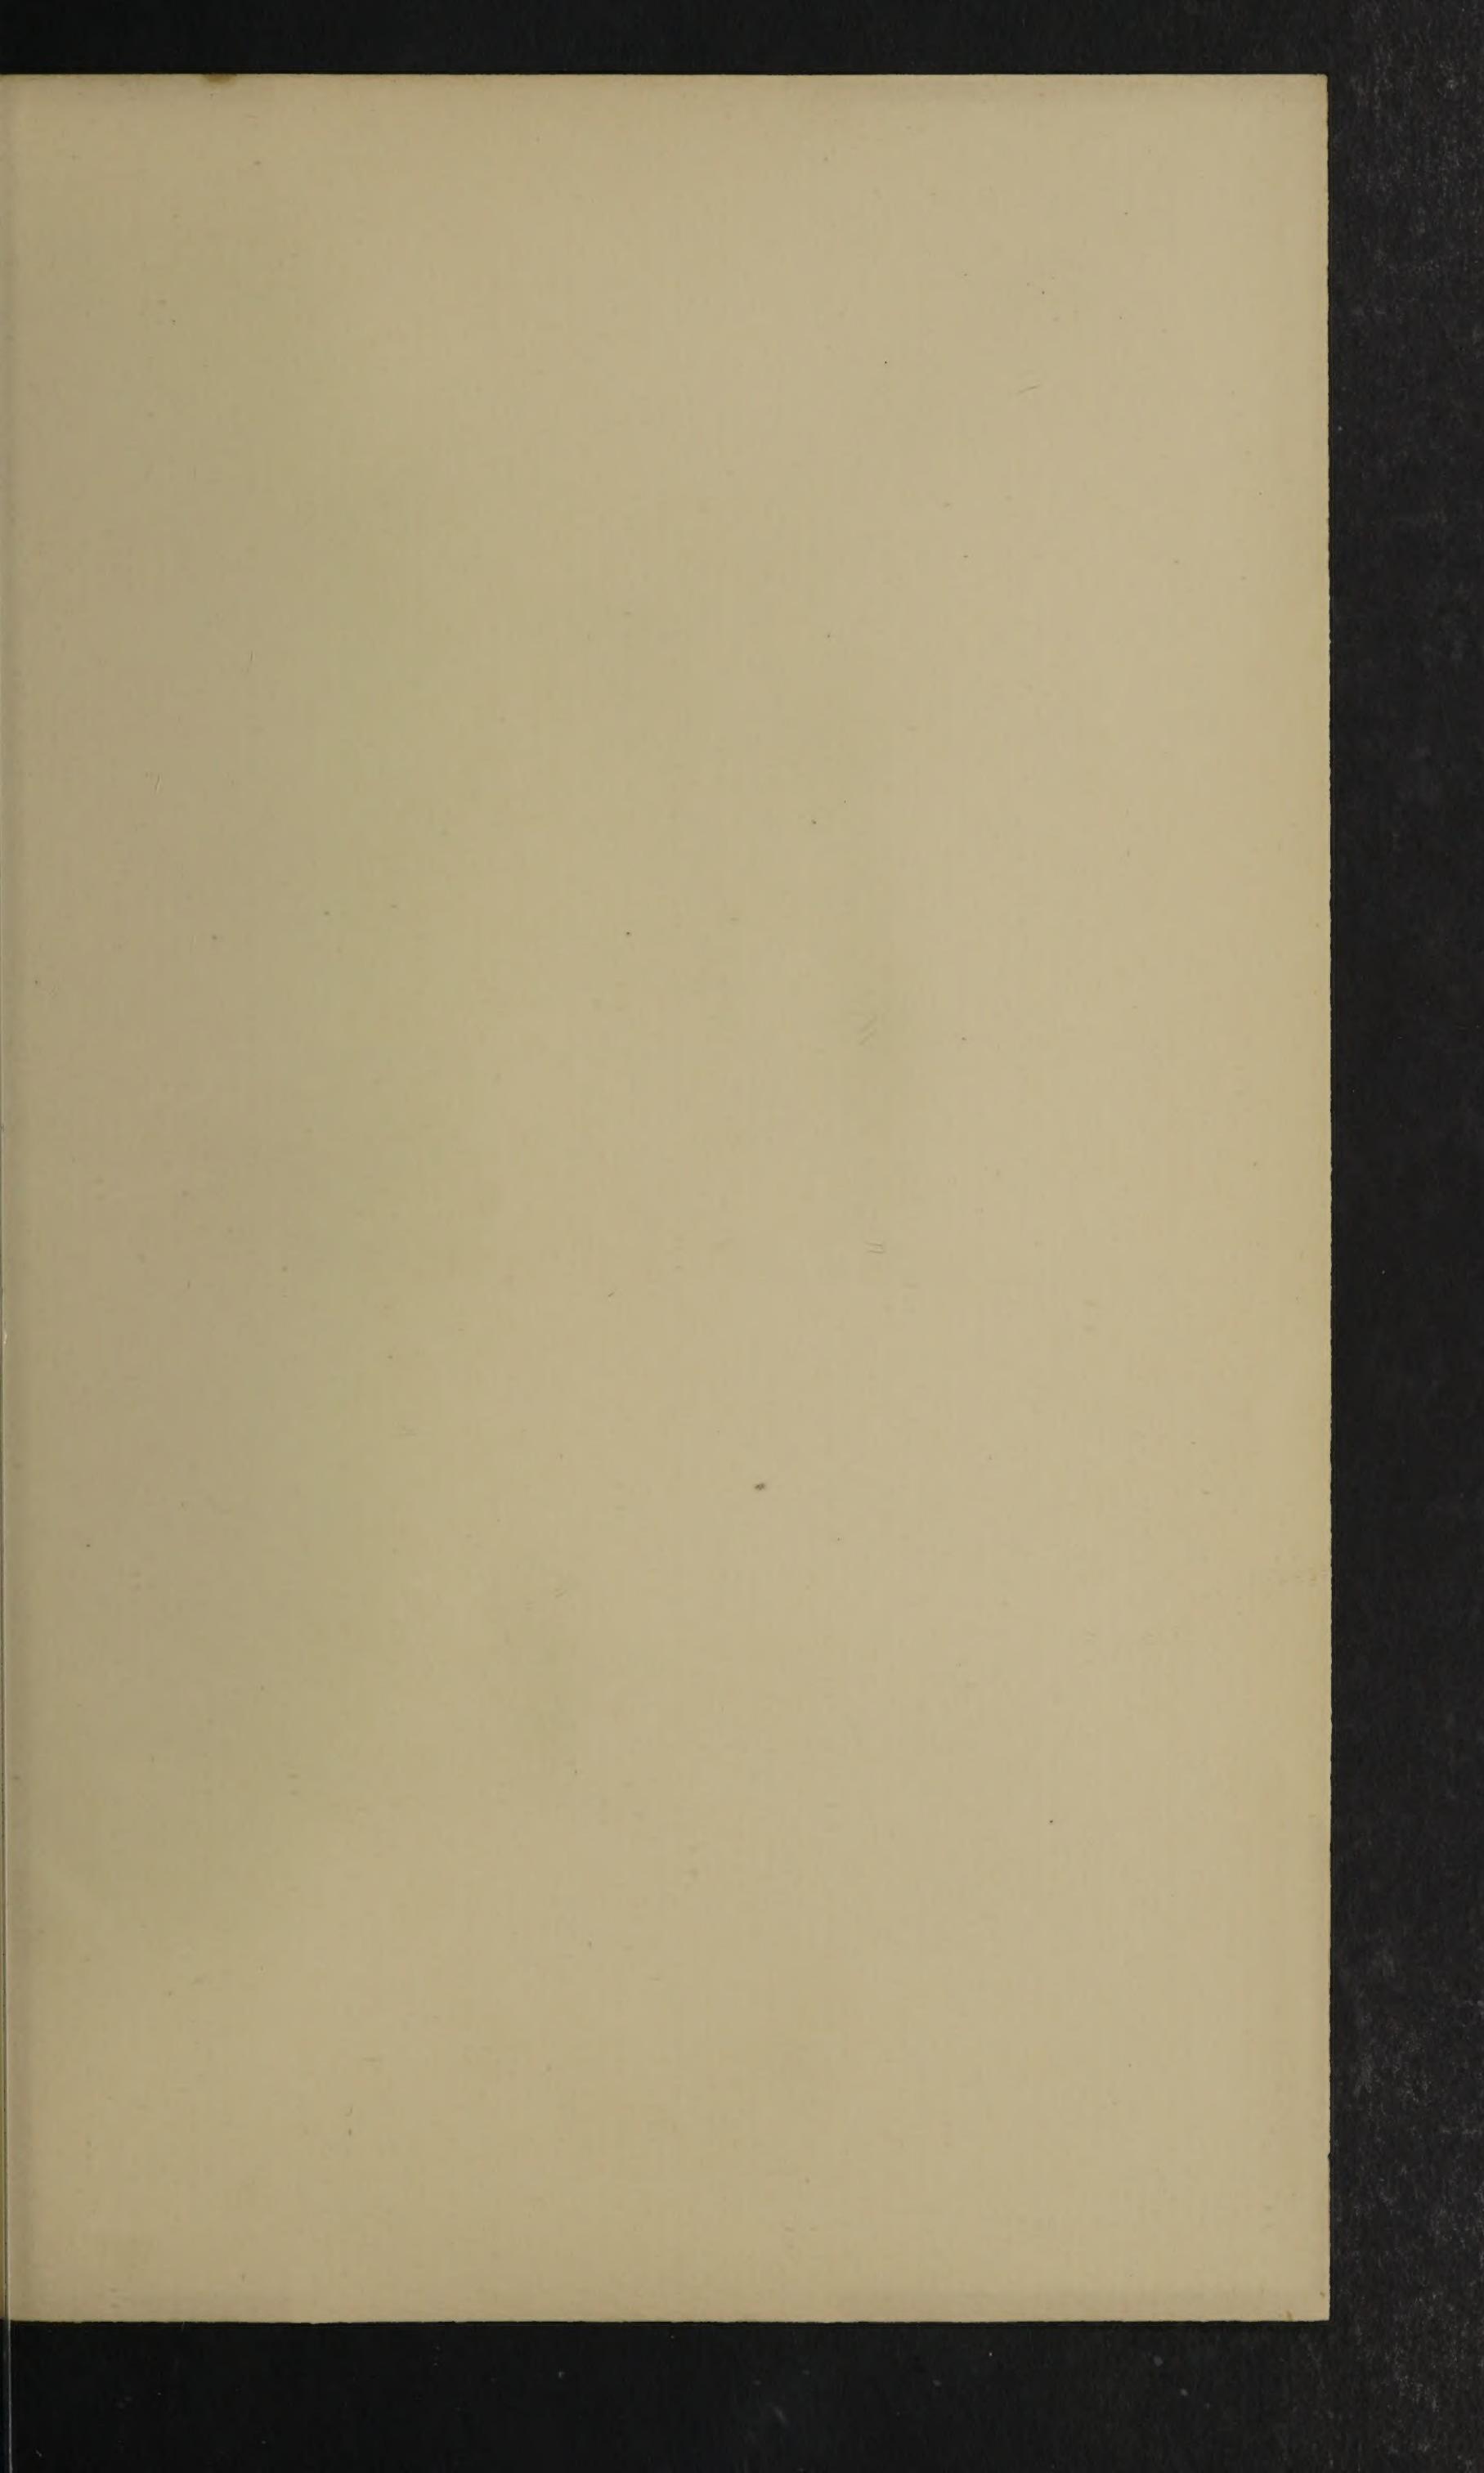

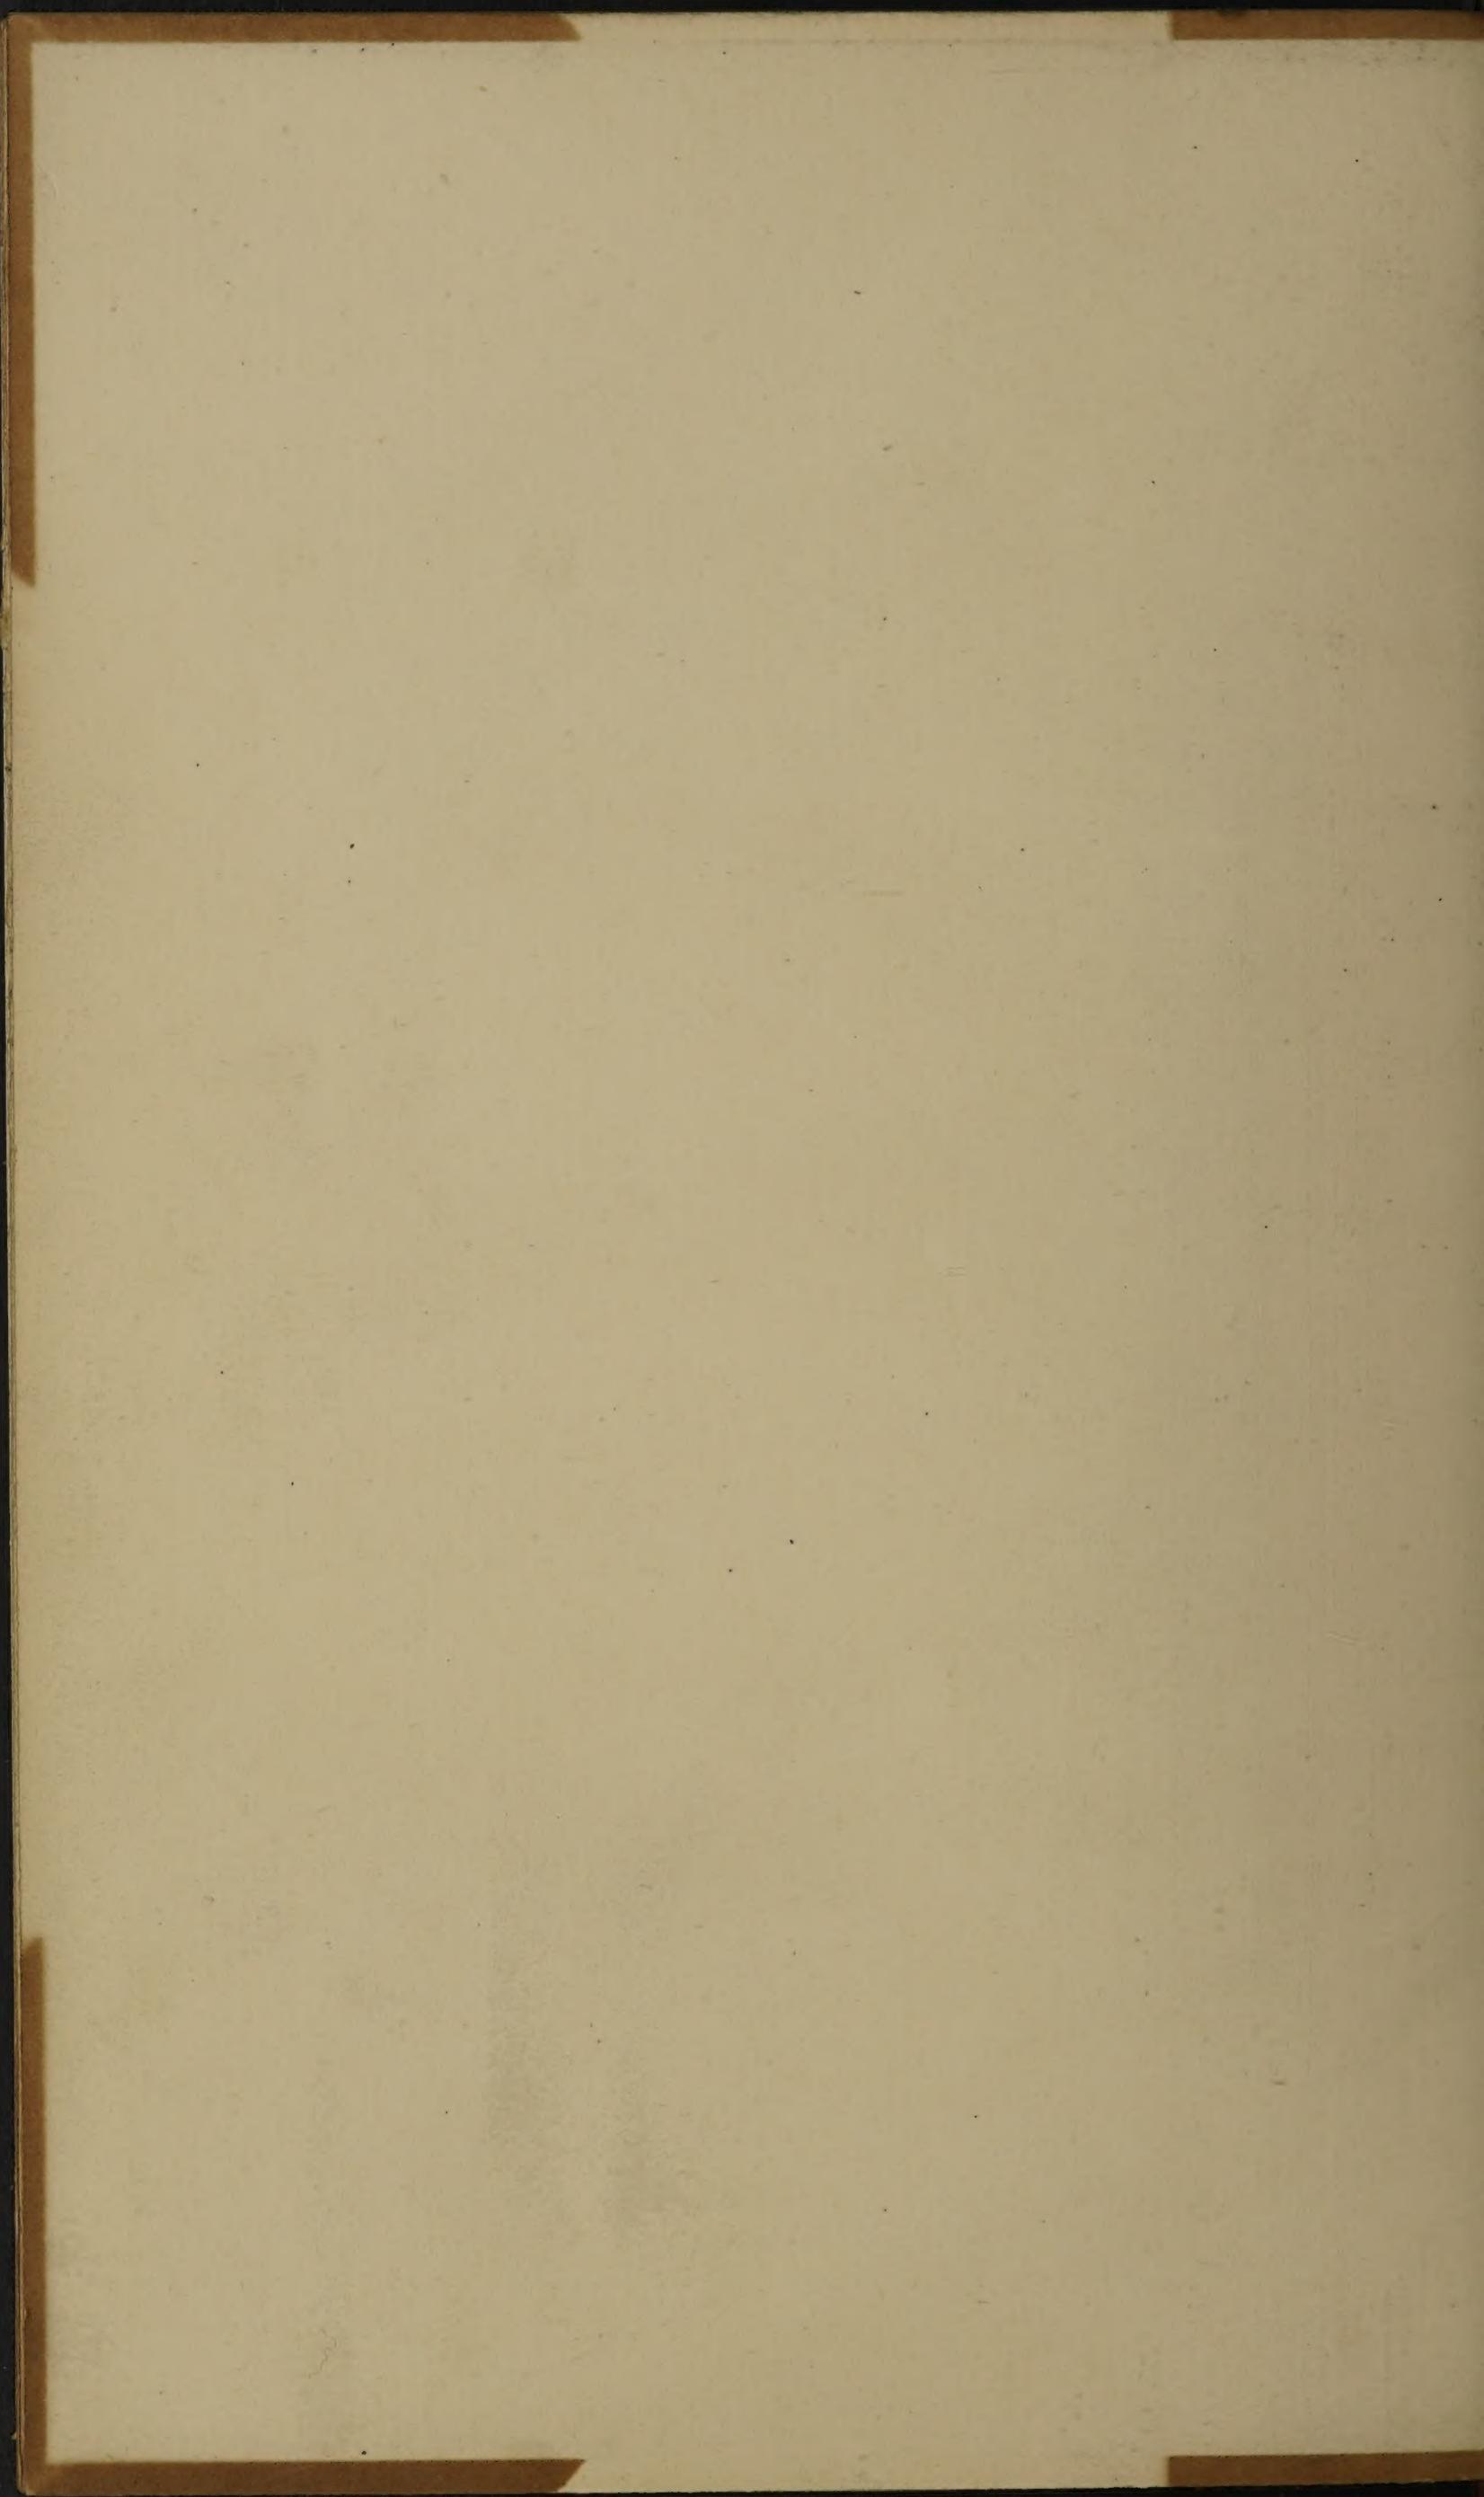

ey

